UNITY MOVE LAUNCHED

Gigantic Church Merger Asked

Methodists, Presbyterians, Congregationalists and Others May Combine

Billion in Property and at Least 30,000,000 Persons Would be Affected

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) May 8. (Exclusive)—The greatest movement in the history of America for organic church union, involving the spiritual interests of at least 30,000,000 persons and property values far in excess of $1,000,000,000, was brought before the quadrennial general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church here today.

The sweeping proposal, sponsored by Dr. J. A. James, dean of the graduate school of Northwestern University and delegate of the Rock River conference, and Dr. F. C. Eiselen, president of the Garrett Biblie Institute of Evanston, Ill., is an amalgamation of the northern and southern branches of the Presbyterian Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the Congregational Church and any other denominations which might care to join, bringing together the greatest assembly of church members in the United States into one body.

The amalgamation is proposed "without reservation or condition."

The same proposal will be laid before the Presbyterian church in its general assembly in Tulsa, Okla., beginning the 24th inst.

LEADERS SIGN IT

A resolution on the issue was presented to the conference secretary by Rev. Ray Allen of Hornell, N. Y., and bore the signatures of more than fifty leading Methodist educators and editors. It will go to

TIRE PRICES TO GO FLAT

Early Cut Told by Firestone

Promised Reduction Laid to Blowout of Monopoly Held by British

Rapid Stride on Liberian Plantation Recounted by Official Just Back

NEW YORK, May 8. (Exclusive) Automobile tires will be reduced "at least 15 per cent" within the next few months and possibly sooner, according to Harvey Firestone, head of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company. He made the statement on board the White Star liner Majestic when he boarded the vessel to greet his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Firestone, Jr., who have been in Liberia looking over the rubber plantations.

Already the manufacturers of tires have felt the reduction in prices resulting from the end of the English rubber monopoly and competition in the industry may bring about the coming radical retail reduction before the end of three months when the new and lower priced products are placed on the market. In that case, Mr. Firestone said, the manufacturers will have to stand the loss.

AUTOISTS TO GET BENEFIT

The removal of the provision of the Stevenson Act, Mr. Firestone said, has lowered the wholesale price of rubber from about 42 cents to around 18 cents. This saving is to be passed on to the automobile owners just as soon as the lowered priced rubber can be sent through the factories, he said.

"My company and probably the entire country will be independent of foreign rubber growers within ten years," Mr. Firestone said in commenting on the development of the properties his son investigated. "Even today England controls no more than 50 per cent of world supply, with the Dutch and the Americans owning most of the rest. Our Liberian plants produce about 500 pounds of rubber to an acre and the rest of the world averages about 400."

The younger Firestones were in Liberia about eight weeks, arriving there fifteen days after leaving New York—a record trip to that part of the world, they believe. They caught the Laconia of the Cunard Line, going on an African cruise, and so were saved the trip to Liverpool otherwise necessary.

TELLS OF DEVELOPMENT

The son of the rubber manufacturer said he is delighted with the progress that is being made in the rubber plantations. The project undertaken by the Firestone Plantation Company, of which the younger man is a vice-president, calls for the eventual development of 1,000,000 acres. Already two 500,000-acre tracts have been laid out and 30,000 acres planted. The present Firestone tire production requires the rubber from 350,000 acres and this requirement is expected to grow constantly as the land is developed.

The plants that are being set out now will not mature enough for tapping before five years, Mr. Firestone explained. In the meantime the little Liberian rubber that is being used comes from trees that were set out before the World War and neglected until recently. The fact that they not only thrived but today yield more than the average plant makes all concerned with the project optimistic.

The Firestone Plantation Company is employing 15,000 natives in the development work and these are under the supervision of 125 Americans—"excellent men for the work," Mr. Firestone said. The company has erected hospitals, is improving the hygienic conditions and recently opened a trade school.

Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, May 8. [To the Editor of The Times:] They examined some of the Presidential candidates yesterday to see what they had spent on their campaigns. Norris made the best showing and he had only spent $6 for an ad in a country newspaper and has the Wisconsin and Nebraska delegation to show for it, which proves that cheap advertising pays.

Goff has spent $90, but received nothing definite so far; George of Georgia has spent $100 and has Georgia; that's about $4 a delegate; Walsh receipts were $1075 and expenditures $1090.65, so he is in the red $15.65; Curtis spent $11,000. It costs money to get William White and his gang to vote for anybody. Now none of these men have spent much, but on the other hand they haven't got far. It just shows you can't get something for nothing.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

LID LIFTED FOR SPEEDERS

Fresno Justice Holds Limit Can be Ignored if Driver Observes Safety Requirements

FRESNO, May 8. (AP)—There is no speed limit on California highways under certain conditions, according to a ruling entered by City Justice Church in finding Philip Conley, Fresno attorney, not guilty of speeding, although the attorney in fighting his own case admitted he was driving his car at the rate of fifty miles an hour.

In his decision, Justice Church interpreted the amendment to the Motor Vehicle Act passed by the last Legislature as "taking the lid off" speeds in excess of the generally accepted maximum of forty miles an hour under these conditions: Being a capable driver, highway clear of traffic, kind and condition of car, condition of highway, driving with such safety as to not endanger life or property.

In the face of the ruling, W. L. McCarty, captain of the Fresno county traffic squad, said that he will continue to arrest motorists on speeding charges when he finds cars moving faster than forty miles an hour. City Justice Church said:

"The statute provides that the prosecution in proving that a defendant has exceeded a speed of forty miles an hour has established a prima facie case.

"The burden of proof then shifts to the defendant to show that in face of the speed at which he was traveling the conditions laid down by the code as safety elements were present. These were completely met in the Conley case.

"The language of the code by stipulating the conditions of safety in speed in reality places the proof adduced by a defendant within the full discretion of the court or the jury, who may be trying the case."

STATE FORCES WILL IGNORE RULING

SACRAMENTO, May 8. (AP)—Enforcement of the forty-mile speed law by State traffic officers will in no way be affected by the ruling of Justice Church of Fresno in releasing Philip Conley, a Fresno attorney, who drove fifty miles an hour, Frank G. Snook, chief of the State Division of Motor Vehicles and head of the State's traffic forces, declared here tonight.

The new section of the law passed by the 1927 Legislature to raise the speed limit from thirty-five to forty miles an hour, Snook said, is plain. Observations of his department have shown this speed to be sufficiently great for the traveling public and his department will hold to that limit in its enforcement.

"In fact," the motor vehicle chief

NINE DROWN AS CAR RUNS INTO CANAL

Divers Bring Up Bodies After Tragedy Involving Two Louisiana Families

NEW ORLEANS, May 8. (AP)—Nine persons, all members of two families, who have been missing since Sunday when they left Hammand, La., after an outing, drowned when their automobile left the highway and ran into a canal bordering the roadway near Ruddock, La. The upturned automobile and the imprisoned bodies were found today.

Divers brought to the scene were said to have brought up several of the bodies, according to reports reaching State police officials here.

They were Peter Lacausi, his wife Mary; two daughters, Marquerite, 7 years of age; Josephine P. and baby son Vito; Lacausi's mother-in-law, Mrs. Sam Tumella; her daughter Margaret, 8, and her 10-year-old son, and Michael Canizarro, Mrs. Tumella's father-in-law.

SHOPWORN TITLE SALE OFF

Actress Leaves Baron Suriani Waiting at Church; Couldn't Marry Man Who Advertises

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—Baron Giorgio Mario Suriani of Italy, who obtained a license to marry Miss Winifred Barry, 21-year-old actress, was left waiting at the church today.

"No, I certainly will not marry him," said Miss Barry, as she remained away from the Little Church Around the Corner, where the ceremony was to have taken place.

"Not only did I not know that he had advertised his title for sale at $100,000, but I learned this morning, after I got over the shock of seeing him in the newspapers, that he had been engaged to another woman for the last year."

"Well, she can have him," the actress continued. "I don't want him. Anybody can have him."

The Baron a year ago offered his title for sale in marriage, but he said he found no satisfactory takers.

"I'm not willing to take a chance with one of these rich widows," he said, "for these old women live forever. New York is getting very blase in regard to titles; it is not like it was once. A title is not the investment it once was in America."

STATE G.O.P. TRIO AWAIT PUNISHMENT

Arnold, Andrews, Tracy Adjudged Guilty of Court Contempt at Sacramento

SACRAMENTO, May 8. (AP)—Ralph Arnold, chairman of the Los Angeles county Republican Central Committee, and Albert Andrews and Frank C. Tracy, chairman and secretary, respectively, of the San Francisco county Republican Central Committee, were adjudged in contempt of the State Supreme Court here this afternoon.

The trio was accused of addressing improper communications to the court in connection with the injunction suit brought by Senator Boggs of Stockton against Secretary of State Jordan over legislative reapportionment.

They were released on their own recognizance to appear next Monday in San Francisco for sentence.

The court's findings follow:

"The members of this court are agreed that the matters charged amount to contempt of this court. No good cause has been shown that the defendants, Arnold, Andrews and Tracy, should not be punished for that. The matter of punishment is a matter the court wishes to consider further."

Vice-Consul's Body in River Near Shanghai

SHANGHAI, May 8. (AP) — The body of Walter B. Wilson, Jr., of Greenville, N. C., American Vice-Consul at Shanghai, who disappeared May 1, was found in Whangpoo River, ten miles below Shanghai, today. A leg was broken as though the body had been struck by a ship's propeller.

Wilson had been despondent for some time, and when he disappeared several days ago he left letters indicating he intended taking his own life.

He was appointed a clerk in the Shanghai Consulate in 1923, and later that year was made a Vice-Consul there. Prior to that time he had served as an assistant paymaster for the Shipping Board.

Lindsey Torn by Two Loves

SACRAMENTO, May 8. (AP)—Judge Ben B. Lindsey, admitted today to practice law before the courts of California, told the Associated Press he is torn between two desires:

One is to return to Colorado and "clean out that bunch of highbinders that unseated me."

The other is to open offices in Los Angeles and specialize in domestic relations, incidentally launching a campaign in this State to scrap all divorce courts and substitute for them a "house of human welfare."

HOOVER AND WATSON RUN CLOSE RACE IN INDIANA

Result of Primary Undetermined as Returns Come in Slowly Putting Senator Slightly Ahead

INDIANAPOLIS, May 9. (Exclusive)—With Herbert Hoover trailing slightly in the returns compiled early today from Indiana's Presidential primary, the issue as between him and Senator James E. Watson, long Republican leader of the State, remained undetermined. Less than one-third of the precincts had been reported at 3 a.m., and at that hour the figures were so close that either might win. The heavy vote delayed the count, and it was believed it may be another day before the decision finally is known.

Returns from 1167 of the 3610 precincts in the State gave Watson 60,365, and Hoover 57,325.

The returns indicated that Secretary Hoover had carried the northern sections and the larger cities by goodly margins, but that rural communities had stood by Watson. In several precincts in such cities as Fort Wayne and South Bend, Hoover's majority was more than two to one.

ROBINSON LEADS

United States Senator Robinson, candidate for renomination with the backing of the Anti-Saloon League and Ku Klux element, was leading his opponents, Atty.-Gen. Arthur L. Gilliom and former Judge Carter. In 340 precincts Robinson had 18,039; Gilliom, 10,770; Carter, 5693.

At this rate, Robinson, with a majority over his two rivals combined, has been renominated in the primaries. If he should fail to receive a majority, the nomination will go to the State convention.

For the Democratic nomination for Senator, Albert Stump was leading in 443 precincts. Stump had 19,502; Walter Myers, 10,956; L. W. Curry, 3120.

Frederick E. Schortemeier had taken the lead among the ten Republican contestants for Governor when 554 precincts had reported. He had 12,515. Frederick Landis was second with 10,828 and Thomas H. Adams third with 9186.

Frank Dailey appears to have won the Democratic nomination for Governor with a majority over all of his rivals combined. In 193 precincts Dailey had 9615 and his opponents 8886.

WOOLEN UNOPPOSED

Evans Woolen was unopposed as the Democratic Presidential candidate.

The most sensational development in connection with the Democratic primary was the arrest of Olin R. Holt, candidate for the nomination for Governor. He is charged with being intoxicated in public.

Holt is a Kokomo attorney who at one time represented D. C. Stephenson, former grand dragon of the Indiana Ku Klux Klan, who is now serving a life term in the penitentiary for murder. Holt is supposed to have Klan backing in his aspiration to the governorship. He also had the indorsement of the W.C.T.U.

FRAUD CHARGES FLY

Charges of wholesale vote frauds are being bandied between the rival headquarters. The Hoover headquarters accused Indianapolis election officials, who are affiliated with the Watson organization, of holding back and tampering with the returns.

The Republican primary was the most bitterly contested in decades. In it were involved not only the capture of the thirty-three delegates to the Kansas City convention which most profoundly influence the nomination for President, but the tenure of Senator Watson as Republican overlord of Indiana and the reputation of the State which had been besmirched by the exposure of the rottenness of government in the Hoosier commonwealth.

WASHINGTON, May 8. (Exclusive)—Latest information at the Hoover headquarters tonight, based on returns from all over the State, indicated that Herbert Hoover has obtained the thirty-three delegates from Indiana in the primary election held today. It was the heaviest vote ever cast in the Hoosier State.

TAX REFUND INDICATED

Court Supports Ford Appeal

Eight Stockholders May Escape Paying Total of $44,500,000

Interest Charged on Posted Securities Pending Ruling Set at $6,790,000

CINCINNATI, May 8. (AP)—With the Court of Appeals today supporting the District Court at Detroit and a recent decision of the Board of Tax Appeals, eight former minority stockholders in the Ford company seemed assured of escaping payment of approximately $44,500,000 in income and profits taxes to the United States.

Mrs. Alice G. Kales of Detroit would be refunded around $2,627,309 which she paid as taxes and then sued for its recovery. Seven others would have returned to them the security for $35,100,000 in taxes posted to guarantee the government the government in the event the final decision was against them. Interest claimed by the eight plaintiffs totals $6,790,000.

DECISION AFFIRMED

Judges Denison and Kanppen, both of Grand Rapids, and Judge Moorman of Louisville, today affirmed District Judge Bawkins of Detroit in Mrs. Kales's suit against the government. She and the other minority stockholders had paid income taxes and sold their stock based upon an appraisal made by Daniel C. Roper, former Internal Revenue Collector, in 1919 on Ford motor stock of 1913.

His valuation of 9489.34 a share wa reappraised at $2500 a share in 1922 by Internal Revenue Collector Blair, who ordered the stockholders to pay income taxes on the differences in valuation.

COUZENS ON LIST

The Board of Tax Appeals last week ruled in favor of the seven other minority stockholders. They had petitioned also in the Court of Appeals as friends of the court in connection with the Kales suit.

These claimants and their approximate claims are: United States Senator James Couzens, $10,900,000; Horace Rackman, $5,000,000; Mrs. Rosetta V. Hause, sister of Senator Couzens, $100,000; Horace Dodge Estate, $5,000,000; Paul Gray and Phillip Gray, $7,500,000; John W. Anderson, $1,600,000.

Those in the hospitals included twelve women and two children. Some of the cases were considered serious, physicians said.

WENIG ORATORY WINS

Hollywood Student Triumphs in Intercollegiate Constitutional Contest at Santa Clara

SANTA CLARA, May 8. (Exclusive)—Displaying a poise and command of his subject even more marked than that which won him the international high school oratorical contest in 1925, Herbert Wenig of Hollywood tonight won the Pacific Coast regional finals of the Intercollegiate Oratorical Sweepstakes with his address on "The Constitution." He represented Northern California in the contest, as well as Stanford University, where he is now a student.

The addresses were sponsored by the Better America Federation and by his victory Wenig earned his way into the fourth national finals, which will be conducted at Los Angeles on June 21.

Wenig's elocution, delivery and knowledge of his subject bested four other contestants.

J. P. Monoghan, representing the Montana district, was accorded second place, making him the alternate to Wenig at the national contest in event the former Hollywood High School orator is unable to compete.

The other contestants were William B. Henley, president of the student body of the University of Southern California; John Q. Adams, of the University of Arizona, and Llewellyn McKay, representing the Utah district.

Judges were David M. Burnett of San Jose, member of the board of governors of the State Bar; Rev. Father Cornelius J. McCoy, president Santa Clara University; George L. Sullivan, dean of the college of engineering at Santa Clara University; Fred H. Thomas, District Attorney of Santa Clara county, and Hiram D. Tuttle, former judge of the Santa Clara County Superior Court.

RUMANIA'S CRISIS AWAITS DEMANDS OF PEASANTS

Boycott May Be Weapon Decided to Force Regency's Downfall; Carol Sentiment Expires

BUCHAREST (Rumania) May 8. (AP)—The failure of Juliu Maniu to present the ultimatum of the Peasants party to the Regency today or even to seek audience with that body left the Rumanian political situation hanging precariously in the balance and measurably increased the painful tension throughout the country. It was believed that Maniu does not intent to approach the regency directly but to deal with it through the secretariat of the Adverul, the organ of former Premier Averescu, who is a strong supporter of Premier Bratianu, says that the Peasants party has decided to boycott the government just as it did Parliament, dealing with it only through the Regency. The paper asserts that the Peasants will try from now on to embarrass the government by every form of passive resistance such as nonpayment of taxes and refusal to perform any public service.

PICKS HIS CABINET

Serenely confident that sooner or later the Regency will be compelled to bow before the rising tide of dissatisfaction among the rural population who constitute three-fourths of Rumania. Maniu already has formulated a Cabinet.

To prevent the peasant unrest from spreading the government has stationed troops at all vital centers throughout the country and every large town of Transylvania is under strict military control with soldiers guarding the public buildings.

Bucharest is outwardly calm, but beneath the surface is much apprehension that if the Regency rejects the peasants' demands, the country districts may become disaffected and attempt open resistance to the government.

Strict censorship is maintained. All telephone lines leading out of Rumania are carefully supervised and all foreign newspapers containing Prince Carol's recent threatening gesture to return to Rumania have been confiscated.

PEASANTS DISBAND

Largely on account of a cold rain, fatigue and the long distance to Bucharest, most of the peasant columns from Albajulia have disbanded.

However much Prince Carol may desire to become a member of the Regency or to replace his son on the throne, there appears little or no sentiment for him even among the peasantry and the army, where it might be looked for.

It is generally felt that when Lionel Bratianu, Rumania's late dictator, died, Carol figuratively speaking died with him because Maniu used the Carol question only as a lever to undermine the Bratianu regime.

"We want neither Carol nor revolution," said M. Maniu to the Associated Press. "Neither are we against the monarchy. We are only against a feudalistic regime and the present government. We want a government which shall truly represent the will of the people as in the United States."

PATRIARCH'S STAND

Declaring that Maniu's peremptory demand for the overthrow of the Bratianu Ministry placed the Regency in the most awkard position, Patriarch Christea's secretary told the correspondent today that the Patriarch will gladly resign as a member of the Regency to escape the present dilemma, but that his sense of duty and patriotism held him to his post.

"The Regency desires sincerely to give the people the government best suited to their needs and aspirations but to intrust power to the inexperienced and untutored hand of the peasants would only throw the country into further confusion, hurting our prestige at home and abroad," he said. "At this moment, when our dynastic situation is so delicate, when Carol looms constantly on the horizon as a menace and when the country is faced with almost insuperable economic and financial problems, it would be a grave mistake for the Regency to change horses in the middle of the stream."

CAROL IN CUSTODY WILL HAVE TO QUIT ENGLAND

LONDON, May 8. (AP)—The Home Office in formally announcing today that former Crown Prince Carol of Rumania has been asked to leave the country said the matter had been placed in the hands of suitable authorities to see that the order is carried out. The Home Office gave no reason for the order.

It is understood that Carol will be given "a reasonable time" to arrange for his departure.

Carol's host, M. Jonescu later confirmed news that the official bolt had actually fallen.

"What is thought impossible in England' has happened," said Jonescu. "The Prince has got to leave."

He said that Prince Carol naturally had asked for an explanation, but that no reason had been given.

RUMANIA FIGHTING RUMORS GET BY CENSOR BUREAU

VIENNA, May 8. (AP)—The tenseness of the political situation in Rumania engendered by the demands of the Peasants' party that the government be turned over to a cabinet of their choosing, had not relaxed tonight. A strict censorship is being maintained, while government officials telegraphed brief assurances that the country is "perfectly calm."

In contrast to these official statements are unconfirmed advices from a dozen points in the Balkans which tell of several conflicts with pitched fighting between the peasants and government troops who sought to prevent their march to the capital to enforce their demands. Minister of the Interior Duca, in a telegram to the Associated Press bureau here did not amplify with any detail his statement that "the government has the situation under complete control."

DETROIT, May 8. (AP)—Henry Myers, former Circuit Court stenographer, sent to jail Thursday to stay until he completed preparation of certain court transcripts he was asserted to have neglected, was free today to finish his work outside of jail.

On the verbal order of Edward Pokorny, friend of the court, Myers was released from the County Jail.

CLOSE RACE IN INDIANA VOTE

latest reports received Hoover has won the State by a majority of at least 40,000.

Hoover headquarters were filled with Republican leaders, Representatives and Senators from many States, and they all conceded that if the full returns give the State to Hoover, as indicated by the first precincts reported, it insures his nomination at Kansas City on the first or second ballot. With the delegates already chosen favorable to Hoover and with the thirty-three from Indiana, he will have, with Maryland, New Jersey and Oregon and the nineteen he is sure to get from West Virginia, more than enough votes to clinch the nomination without counting any from Pennsylvania and Connecticut.

New York headquarters expect State Chairman Morris will issue a statement within forty-eight hours asking the entire State to support Hoover for the nomination and deserting Charles Dewey Hilles, who has all along been strong for drafting Coolidge and no one else.

On Saturday in Philadelphia the entire Republican organization will confer with the delegates chosen to Kansas City to elect new officers and may decide to go to Hoover in view of his victory in Indiana and the other States he has won lately.

Grade-Crossing Bids Planned

SACRAMENTO, May 8. (AP)—Calls for bids for five highway grade-crossing separations within the next sixty days were made possible today by conferences between representatives of the Southern Pacific and the State, B. B. Meek, director of public works, announced tonight. The separations involved are the Magra and Weimar crossings, Placer county, the Spence and Sargeant crossings in Monterey county, and that on the Monterey road below San Jose, Santa Clara county.

Sharing of the cost by the railroad and State has held up these improvements for several years, and this was the principal matter discussed at the conference, Meek said. The meeting worked out details, the nature of which he would not disclose, which indicated speedy construction and he anticipated it will be possible to ask bids within the next two months.

Regent Meeting Postponed Week

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8. (Exclusive)—Because of pre-commencement activities at the University of California, the monthly meeting of the Board of Regents, ordinarily held on the second Tuesday of each month, was postponed today until next Tuesday. One of the results was that the reconsideration of the location of the teachers' college at the University of California at Los Angeles gets another week of respite.

Reports setting forth the attitudes and arguments of those in favor and those against the separation of the teachers' college from the new Westwood campus are said to have been completed by President W. W. Campbell of the university, and William John Cooper, State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

AMBASSADOR MORROW OVER ATTACK OF GRIP

MEXICO CITY, May 8. (AP)—Secretary Allan Dawson of the United States Embassy today requested newspapers to announce that Ambassador and Mrs. Morrow would receive members of the American colony tomorrow evening. This was interpreted as meaning that the Ambassador had recovered from the attack of grip which kept him in bed for a few days.

UNITED CHURCH MOVE LAUNCHED

Methodist Conference Gets Plea for Merger

Presbyterian Meeting to be Approached Next

Difficulties Foreseen But Sentiment Strong

a committee for discussion probably Thursday.

Dr. Daniel Marsh, president of Boston University, where the church's largest theological school is maintained, led the group of singers who urged "that overtures be at once made looking for early organic union."

The two groups' purposes are alike and they work in much the same territory. Practically their only differences now are in details of organization.

"To be actually united would be to us a joy and inspiration. The churches should be united," the resolution said.

SOME SKEPTICAL

Some of the signers admitted there is no immediate possibility of such a union. It was pointed out that so far the Methodist Episcopal Church has been unable to unite with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Strangely enough the whole proposal came out of a movement among the students of Methodism's three largest theological schools, according to Dr. Eislen, and the resolution before the general conference is identically the one which the students themselves at Chicago, Boston and New York prepared and asked to have presented to the supreme body of the church.

The resolution, signed by more than 90 per cent of the students of each seminary, states that the divinity students believe "the time has come for a definite forward step toward organic union of the churches of the United States" and requests the general conference to "appoint a commissioner to consider organic union with the other denominations."

The program for initiating the union is then stated as follows:

"That the general conference extend to the Congregational Church, to the Presbyterian Church in the United States (Southern branch,) to the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America (Northern branch) to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and to any other denomination desiring seriously to consider organic church union, an invitation to choose like commissions respectively, and that from the commissions thus chosen a joint commission be formed for the purpose of recommending to the participating churches for their constitutional action a definite plan of union."

"The time is dead ripe for church union," said Dr. Eislen and Dean James in a joint statement today, "and if the various denominations proceed to it definitely and aggressively and with the sagacity with which business men unite in great business activities, the union can be brought about with swiftness.

"It is the hope of those sponsoring the movement in the Methodist Episcopal Church that the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church, meeting in Tulsa within the next ten days, will take similar action in the appointment of a commission for organic church union.

QUICK ACTION POSSIBLE

"Then if these commissions function with speed and efficiency, a plan for amalgamation can be reported out within a year or two. The Presbyterian general assembly meets every year, but the Methodist General Conference meets only every four years. However, if a sweeping plan of church union is pushed, it is possible to call a special meeting of the general conference in the interim and obtain action. If the various denominations really want union they can have it within a period of four or five years."

Another remarkable resolution suggesting union of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches has been submitted, signed by all the official editors of Methodism excepting one, by a number of Methodist college presidents and by many secretaries and leading pastors. This probably will be incorporated with the proposal of larger scope, but it is significant in showing the trend of thought.

Church union of all the larger denominations is rapidly coming to the fore as one of the major religious issues of the day, and in discussions is overshadowing domestic issues of Methodism. Leaders believe that a new epoch in American church life is at hand.

Ranchers Find Body of D. Goldberg in Oregon; Letters Reveal Sufferings

KLAMATH FALLS (Or.) May 8. (AP)—Starved to death in his remote cabin in Eastern Klamath, the body of D. Goldberg of Los Angeles, was found Sunday by a group of Klamath ranchers.

Attempting to make his way through a snowstorm to civilization for supplies Goldberg suffered frozen feet. He crawled back to his cabin on his hands and knees and several weeks later died. Two letters telling of the sufferings he had undergone were found.

added, "we are going to bear down now stronger than ever in our enforcement. Anyone caught driving faster than forty miles an hour will be cited by State men."

The section of the law setting up the conditions which Justice Church held covered Conley's case, Snook contended, was enacted several years ago and were intended specifically as a guide in reckless driving cases.

Snook also said he does not consider the Fresno case of sufficient importance to warrant an attempt to appeal it to the higher courts.

Only Four Vacant Flats in City; New Deputies Will Have to Sit Up Nights

PARIS, May 8. (Exclusive) So great is the housing shortage in Paris that it looks as though the 200 newly elected Deputies who want to come to the capital with their families will have to live in hotels.

The authorities of Palais Bourbon have undertaken a search of the city for vacant flats. They have found only four.

The 200 include only the new Deputies with their families, who have written asking for accommodations. There are 107 others who will have to find places to lodge for the next four years.

JAPAN-CHINA BREAK NEARS

and carrying on a fierce offensive. The Nationalists attacked in large numbers along the whole line of the railway.

Peking advices say that the battle was raging at 11 o'clock this morning, but details as to casualties are lacking.

From Shanghai came what is considered a reliable report that the overwhelming Nationalist troops had surrounded the Japanese, numbering 3000 or less, in the Shantung capital.

Coincidentally it is stated from Tien-tsin that the Fengtienites are rapidly moving northward, the bulk of this army having already reached Shih Chia Chuan (Chentow) in Chicli Province. The railways are congested and passenger traffic on the Pukow-Peking railway is stopped. Missionaries are evacuating Tsinangchow by road.

There is an immense concentration of Nationalists going on south of Tsinan.

Further word from Tokio was indicative of the significance attached to the serious situation in China, for Premier Tanaka invited the diplomatic missions of Great Britain, United States, France and Italy to the Foreign Office and made explanations of the dispatch of Japanese troops to China and conditions which necessitated this.

JAPANESE AMBASSADOR EXPLAINS TO KELLOGG

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP)—Ambassador Matsudaira of Japan called on Secretary Kellogg today and conferred with him on the situation in China.

The Ambassador is understood to have informed Mr. Kellogg that the action being taken by Japan in Shantung is entirely for the protection of Japanese nationals and Japanese property in that province. He presented the names of Japanese residents and soldiers who had been killed and wounded and a list of property damages suffered. The Ambassador said Japan is acting under the terms of the nine-power treaty signed at Washington, February 6, 1922. In that treaty the powers, including Japan, agreed to respect the sovereignty independence and territorial and administrative integrity of China.

SEIZURE OF TERRITORY IMPOSSIBLE UNDER TREATY

The assurance given Secretary Kellogg at Washington by Japan that she intends no violation of Chinese rights under the Washington treaty, refers to the treaty on Chinese policies between the United States, Belgium, Great Britain, China, France, Italy, Japan, the Netherlands and Portugal, which was ratified in March, 1922 by the Senate.

This treaty binds the signatories to "respect the sovereignty, the independence, and the territorial and administrative integrity of China" in one section, and, in another, "to refrain from taking advantage of conditions in China in order to seek special rights or privileges which would abridge the rights of subjects or citizens of friendly states, and from countenancing action inimical to the security of such states."

There is no provision for joint action of any kind, but one article which conceivably might be invoked provides for "full and frank communication between the powers concerned" whenever a situation arises which in the opinion of any one of them involves the application of the treaty. The treaty apparently will prevent Japan from making any permanent seizure of territory or property in China, limiting her to temporary occupation for the protection of her nationals.

The question of the Shantung Peninsula, from which Japan ousted Germany during the World War, was referred by the Washington conference to be settled between Japan and China, and in the Kiachow treaty of 1921 Japan conveyed the Kiachow concession and Shauntung railway to China and agreed to withdraw all troops and civil authorities upon the completion by China of payment of about $41,500,000 to cover Japanese expenses and investments. These payments have never been completed.

UNITED STATES MAY MEDIATE ON REQUEST OF BOTH SIDES

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP)—The State Department made it clear today that the United States could consider acting as mediator between Japan and the Nationalist government of China only if invited to do so by both sides.

This position was taken on the basis of press dispatches indicating a move was under way to ask the United States to mediate the difficulties of the two oriental governments as a result of the conflict at Tsinan.

The State Department today sent a dispatch to Ernest B. Price of Rochester, N. Y., American Consul at Tsinan, commending him for all actions taken by him during the recent fighting there between Chinese and Japanese troops.

The department informed him it is greatly relieved to receive his message of yesterday reporting the safety of Americans and the consulate staff Edwin F. Stanton of Los Angeles, whom Mr. Price relieved as Consul at Tsinan, also was in the city during the attack by southern troops and is reported safe. He is being transferred to Canton as Consul.

HOOVER SHOWN TEXAS FAVORITE

Seventy-two Counties Solid for Secretary

Dry Democrats in Lead at Day's Conventions

Californian Boosts Tilson for Vice-President

DALLAS (Tex.) May 8. (AP)—Returns from seventy-three Republican county conventions in Texas received by Republican State headquarters, indicated that 233 delegates from seventy-two counties pledged to support Herbert Hoover for President have been chosen, Leonard Withington, secretary of the R. B. Creager faction of the party announced tonight. Hoover lost Bexar county, Creager said.

The first thirty-five counties to report gave 152 delegates in the State convention to be held at Dallas on the 22nd inst., pledged to Mr. Hoover, and none for the opposition, which, led by Representative Harry Wurzbach of San Antonio, has sought an uninstructed delegation to the Republican National Convention at Kansas City.

The same counties also sent delegates instructed to support Creager of Brownsville for re-election as Republivan national committeeman from Texas.

Mr. Withington said he had unofficial returns from sufficient other counties to assure the Hoover-Creager wing 90 per cent of the strength of the State convention at Dallas on May 22.

At the State convention, Texas' twenty-six delegates to the Kansas City convention will be chosen.

DRY DEMOCRATS LEAD

The "harmony" faction of the Democratic party in Texas, which advocated instructions to the State convention delegation to stand strongly for prohibition and work for the selection of a Presidential candidate in sympathy with such a platform, had a good lead over other factions, when 188 of the 253 counties which held conventions today reported tonight.

The 188 counties will have 715 votes out of a total of 825 in the State convention, or about two-fifths of the entire vote.

Texas' forty delegates to the national convention at Houston will be chosen at the State convention at Beaumont on the 22nd inst.

HOW DELEGATES STAND

The reports came from all sections of the State, and include the eighty-six votes from Dallas county, the twenty-three from Harris, Tarrant's seventeen and Travis's fourteen.

The returns from the 188 counties gave the following distribution of delegates: Instructed for a prohibition plank and a candidate favorable to such a plank, 387; instructed to vote only for a candidate with a bone-dry record, 81; uninstructed in any way, 208; for Gov. Smith, 33; for Jesse Jones, 6.

TILSON BACKED FOR VICE-PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, May 8. (Exclusive)—Representative Charles F. Curry of Sacramento dean of the California delegation and California member of the House Committee on Committees, today came out forcibly for the nomination of Floor Leader John Q. Tilson of Connecticut for Vice-President at Kansas City. In his statement Curry gave many reasons for the concentration of support behind Tilson for the second place at Kansas City. Following Curry's statement a poll of the Republican members of the House from California showed that practically every one is favorable to Tilson's nomination as a running mate to Herbert Hoover.

SMITH FAVORITE OF DELAWARE DEMOCRATS

DOVER (Del.) May 8. (AP)—The Democrats of Delaware in State convention here today, elected six uninstructed delegates to the national convention, all of whom, according to Harry T. Graham of Wilmington, Democratic State chairman, favor the nomination of Gov. Smith of New York for the Presidential candidacy.

LEE NAMED PRESIDENT OF SOCIAL WORK BODY

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) May 8. (AP)—Porter Lee of New York was elected president of the National Conference of Social Work today. San Francisco was awarded the 1929 conference.

KANSAS CITY POLITICIANS IN KIDNAPING

Democratic Factional Row Results in One Slugged and Four Held Captive

KANSAS CITY, May 8. (AP)—A factional struggle for Democratic leadership in the First Ward, on the North Side, resulted today in the slugging of one and the kidnaping of four other leaders in the Pendergast faction of the party in connection with the municipal and county bond election. Thomas Pendergast, former wholesale liquor dealer, has for many years "bossed" the North Side politically.

Both factions favored the bonds and the abductions appeared only to involve the question of who would "run" the ward.

Anthony Bivona, former Alderman and now constable in the justice of the peace court of Frank Benanti, was slugged. He suffered slight concussion.

Justice Benanti was one of those kidnaped.

Others kidnaped were Joe Galucci, former member of the City Council and now an employee of the City Water Department; Marion Nigro, precinct captain, and Ben Ryan, city meat inspector. Angelo Gerard was missing and reported kidnaped.

There had been no arrests made tonight.

All of the kidnaped politicians were released near their homes about 8 o'clock tonight. Benanti was the only one injured. His face was powder burned when one of his captors fired a revolver as he tried to escape.

Justice Benanti said all were confined in a house "ten or fifteen miles away" during the voting. He said he did not recognize any of his captors.

HICKMAN TO GET DELAY

Court Asks for Law Brief

Defense Attorneys Assert Unconstitutionality of Insanity Law

Appointment of Judge and Selection of Jurors Also Attacked

SACRAMENTO, May 8. (AP)—Defense attorneys for William Edward Hickman opened before the California Supreme Court today their last court battle for the life of the murderer of little Marion Parker. They asserted a judge improperly appointed, a jury improperly selected, a criminal law which estopped their client from taking full advantage of his right to due process of law and refusal of the court to properly instruct the jury.

At the close of Hickman arguments the court gave ten days' time to Maj. Walter K. Tuller of Los Angeles as a friend of the court, to prepare a brief of the constitutionality of the law attacked and the same length of time to defense counsel to prepare a supplementary brief on new points raised in the reply brief of the prosecution. This means that at least another month must pass probably, before a decision is handed down.

PRINCIPLE URGED

Jerome K. Walsh, Kansas City counsel for the slayer, told the court that the name of Hickman is a mere incident to the hearing. Walsh declared that while it might be expedient to uphold the law under which Hickman was tried and sentenced, the rights involved were so precious the court must permit no encroachment upon them.

He informed the court that the common-law right to trial by jury cannot be whittled away in the slightest way without violation of the State and Federal constitutions. If the California statute were upheld, permitting separate hearings on crime and mental condition, it would be possible to split up other defenses. There might be an indefinite number of hearings over an indefinite period of time, he said. There could be hearings on presence at the scene of crime, hearings on identification, hearings on mental condition. Walsh quoted Webster to the court to the effect that everything that might pass the process of legislation is not to be considered binding law.

OPENING DEFENSE

Frank A. Sivers of Los Angeles, opening defense arguments, painted for the State's highest court the picture of a youth born of a mother with unsound mind, coming of a family in which mental weakness, uncontrollable temper and epilepsy were to be found and his own mind unhinged by defeat in a high-school oratorical contest. He sketched how, after years of perfect school records and admirable ways, the boy had become a wanderer and ne'er-do-well, and perpetrated at last the crime for which he has been convicted.

Then he addressed himself to the appointment of the judge and the failure of the trial court to permit challenging of the twelfth juryman.

STATUTE ATTACKED

Richard H. Cantillon, following Sievers, insisted that Hickman was not permitted to avail himself of the defense of partial insanity and was prevented by an ambiguous statute from entering the defense of not guilty. He said the trial court refused to instruct the jury that if it found any evidence Hickman was not capable of acting with malice, it could not find him sane.

Members of the court, questioning Cantillon, suggested that Hickman had deprived himself of the complete defense by failing or refusing to enter the plea of not guilty.

BECKER REFUSED

Tracy C. Becker, assistant District Attorney of Los Angeles county, was checked by the Chief Justice when he referred to Walsh, Hickman's counsel, as a "young Lochinvar out of the East" and characterized the defense counsel as his "enterprising young friends who were seizing every technical advantage on which they might lay their hands." In the course of painting a picture of publicity paraphernalia which, he inferred, had attracted these men to a trial that would otherwise have been left to a county defender, he was reminded sharply that the court did not care to go into that and was advised to keep to the briefs and the record.

Mr. Becker told the court that he could see no constitutional question in the Hickman case unless defense took the position a man cannot plead guilty to the crime of murder. He said, too, that "partial insanity" is not recognized by law.

The principal prosecution argument was made, however, by William F. Cleary, deputy Attorney-General, San Francisco, who called the "so-called insanity defense" a blasting tool in the hands of a skillful lawyer. He argued that determining a man's mental condition is important, not in fixing culpability, but in determining punishment merely and may properly be inquired into after the fact of crime has been established to show whether or not the criminal is amenable to punishment. The Legislature, he said, clearly has the right to remove the element of intent and malice during the determination of the facts of crime.

SOFT SEATS SEDUCE SHEKELS

Cushions Commended to Car Companies as Cash Collectors; P. E. Plans Putting Profits Into Pads for Patrons; Reduced Rates, Rapid Rolling Resolved

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8. (Exclusive)—Soft seats not only turn away the wrath of street-car riders, but tend to convert more pedestrians into riders. Inasmuch as increased patronage makes for more revenue, the admission was made today as an item of information to members of the California Electric Railway Association, in convention at the Clift Hotel. Its purveyor was A. W. Brohman, transportation superintendent for the Market-street Railway of this city.

He said that the company suffered a decrease in total revenue last month, but that on lines where cushion seats are in use, the earnings mounted. He followed his statement with the prediction that within a few years all California electric lines will come to the soft-seat era.

F. L. Annable, general superintendent of the Pacific Electric Railway Company, with headquarters at Los Angeles, presented a paper on "Demand and Necessity for Increased Speed and Difficulties Encountered in Its Accomplishment," in which he cited a recent experiment on one of the interurban lines of the company, whereby a lower fare and speedier service increased yearly patronage from 18,000 to 56,000, with a 6 per cent increase in revenue.

So striking was the success of the trial that he said it is likely similar service will be put into effect on the other interurban lines of the company.

Referring to the cushion seat discussion, he said the Pacific Electric system will spend nearly $1,000,000 in the next few months equipping its carriers in that manner.

Various other technical papers were presented.

Mexico Bandits Plunder Train

MEXICO CITY, May 8. (AP)—Travelers arriving from the State of Durango report that bandits on Friday, last, held up and plundered a local passenger train near the station of La Turissina.

After the train had been forced to stop because of obstructions placed on the track and the passengers intimidated by promiscuous firing through the windows, the bandits leisurely collected their plunder, including a shipment of silver from the express car, and escaped. The train carried no soldiers or guards.

Handful of Boys in Gray Convene

LITTLE ROCK (Ark.) May 8. (AP)—Sixty-three years after the war which ended in defeat for them, 3000 United Confederate veterans—but a mere handful of the number which made up Lee's army of the Confederacy—tonight opened their thirty-eighth annual reunion here.

Greeting the appearance of their present commander-in-chief, Gen. J. C. Foster of Houston, Tex., with wild cheering, the survivors of the southern army at the opening session of the four days' reunion heard several addresses of welcome.

ROYAL BULLDOG TAKES SCEPTER

First Bark of Marines' Pup Will Be Regarded as Ample Rite for Coronation

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP) Private Pagett, Jr., three-month-old son of Private Pagett, English bulldog mascot of the Marine Corps that died Saturday, will succeed his father to that post, but first must bark to establish his right.

The pup will be inducted into the service on the first day that he barks, say the Quantico (Va.) marines, custodians of the corps's mascot. The second mascot since the death of Sergt. Jiggs a year ago, Pagett, Jr., is one of seven sons of the late Pagett and Countess the Fourth, a registered English bull.

The death of the elder Pagett has been made known to his donors, the British marines, by the corps headquarters here.

FISH CREEK OFFERED TO MAKE STUDY

Theodore J. Hoover Will Give Estate for Survey on Shortage of Trout

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8. (Exclusive)—Theodore J. Hoover, dean of Stanford University school of engineering, today offered the use of his private estate in the Santa Cruz Mountains for the purpose of studying the rapid disappearance of steelhead and rainbow trout from California streams. The offer was made to a committee of the regional advisory council of the California Development Association.

Hoover said Waddell Creek, which passes through his property and empties into the sea, offers opportunity for research and experiment during the spawning season. He suggested that his place, which is equipped with laboratory, living quarters, racks and traps, be closed as a game preserve during the study period, which might be twenty years, if found advisable. The committee will vote on the offer later and if accepted will communicate its decision to the State Fish and Game Commission.

Dean Hoover is a brother of Herbert Hoover.

DEATH TAKES TALLEST ACTRESS OF BROADWAY

NEW YORK, May 8. (Exclusive) Broadway lost another of its beloved theatrical figures today with the sudden death of Miss Florence Morrison, 57 years of age, an actress. Known as the tallest and heaviest comedienne in the show business, Miss Morrison had the enviable record of having played on Broadway continuously for twenty years in various musical comedies. She created the part of the duchess in the "Student Prince" and last year closed with the "Circus Princess."

PHONE INCREASE SIFT ADJOURNS

Bay Cities Consider Move as Victory Omen

Parent Company Announces New Attitude

Officials to be Volunteers on Witness Stand

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8. (Exclusive)—Continuation until August 22, next, of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company's petition for a $7,000,000 increase in rates was granted by the State Railroad Commission today under circumstances considered significant and favorable by representatives of eight bay cities fighting the rise.

Announcement was made by James T. Shaw, vice-president and chief counsel for the company that executives of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, the parent body, and the Western Electric Company, manufacturing subsidiary, will appear voluntarily at the August hearing to present additional data. He named three, E. V. Cox, assistant vice-president and A. B. Crunden, assistant comptroller of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, and F. H. Leggett, general manager in charge of distribution for the Western Electric Company.

SIGNIFICANCE SEEN

The willingness of these men to appear is voluntary as Shaw explained, but the mere fact of their willingness is considered significant by those opposed to the rate increase because of previous hearings before the railroad commission.

As a matter of record, a petition from a citizen's committee was filed with the commission as an integral part of the rate rise procedure which declared the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company is merely a "dummy" controlled by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and demanding that the latter be made a co-petitioner. The Railroad Commission ruled, after several sessions, that the American Telephone and Telegraph Company need not defend itself, but made the ruling contingent upon subsequent developments, leaving the way clear to order American Telephone and Telegraph executives to the witness stand in the event it became essential. At the same time the commission broadly intimated that if it found conditions warranted the calling of such representatives and they refused to accede, it would feel justified in dismissing the rate application.

INEVITABLE FORESTALLED

Because of these things, contesting Bay City attorneys felt that the company had forestalled the inevitable, as well as a possible loss of its case, but persuading the American Telephone and Telegraph Company to take a hand.

Asked pointedly if the appearance of the American Telephone and Telegraph and Western Electric officials is an admission that the former will be a party to the rate rise, Attorney Shaw declared:

"Certainly not."

Widening the Telephone Horizon

IN THE memory of many now living, Alexander Graham Bell predicted that the day would come when we could talk to other countries, even across wide expanses of water.

Bell's vision was made a reality when in 1926 New York and London spoke together in two way conversation. Since then, this service has been opened to the public between any point in the U. S. A. and Great Britain. Mexico has been brought into speaking distance. Important cities of continental Europe have come within our voice horizon.

Even more important, the Bell System in the United States now embraces 18,500,000 telephones—a growth for the past year of more than 750,000.

This is measurable progress in widening America's telephone horizon.

KILL

Snails, Slugs and Other Garden Pests

THIS new, improved pest killer will save your plants from snails, slugs, cutworms, earwigs, sow bugs and grasshoppers.

Now is the time when these pests are most destructive. They work nights, unseen. In a few nights, they can ruin flowers, vegetables or lawns which have taken hours of labor and much expense to grow. Kill these pests before they kill your plants.

Sprinkle End-o-Pest on the ground under the plants. Snails, slugs and other damaging pests eat it and are quickly killed.

End-o-Pest never fails. It is the new, improved formula of A. D. Cardinet . . . nationally known specialist on the control of garden pests. He originally developed many of the pest controls on the market today. End-o-Pest is his own latest, improved method. Use no other.

Water does not harm End-o-Pest. Sprinkling your plants, or a heavy rain will not lessen its effectiveness.

Get End-o-Pest at your local DRUG STORE. It is sold in 1 lb. packages at 40 cents, 3 lb. packages at 85 cents, and in 15 lb. bags.

Candidates Questioned Over Campaign Funds

Senator Shows Anger Flare During Examination

Hoover Quizzed Today and Smith Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP)—Making a twin-city exploration, the special Senate Campaign Funds Committee today questioned two candidates for the Democratic Presidential nomination—Ritchie of Maryland, and Reed of Missouri.

From Gov. Ritchie at a forenoon session held at his executive offices in Baltimore and lasting only ten minutes, the investigators learned that he had spent no money to further his cause, had no organization working in his behalf, and does not expect to be nominated at the Houston convention.

Senator Reed, who was questioned at a half-hour session held at the Capitol, informed the committee that his organization had been formed voluntarily by his friends in Missouri, that his only personal expense had been from $1200 to $1500 for traveling expenses on his campaign tours, and that all details of the campaign financing could be obtained from the treasurer of his organization, Ed S. Villmoare of Kansas City.

SHOWS FLASH OF FIRE

Reed testified freely, as did the other candidates, speaking in a conversational tone except when Chairman Steiwer asked him whether he had made any promises of patronage distribution in return for support at Houston. Then he showed a flash of fire.

"Absolutely none," he said. "A man would be a scoundrel to do that. If anyone has made any promise on my behalf it was unauthorized and I would stake my life that none of those in my organization has done anything like that."

In more passive fashion Reed, responding to an inquiry by Senator Barkley, Democrat, Kentucky, said he had entered into no agreements whatever for a division of convention delegates or for a shifting of his strength at Houston.

A like reply was made by Ritchie to an inquiry by Senator Barkley, who has put the same question to practically all of the candidates who have appeared during the two days the investigation has been in progress.

ANGELENO MENTIONED

Asked by Barkley whether he knew of any large expenditures on behalf of any other candidates, Reed said he had heard rumors, but that he did not think it was fair to repeat them.

"I can't give the committee any information that would lead to any disclosures that it cannot get by questioning others just as you have questioned me," Reed said.

Turning to contributions to his own campaign, the Missourian said he personally had received only $250 and that this came from a man whose name he could not recall. He said the records would show that and all other contributions and that if Villmoare, who now is in Washington waiting to testify, could not give all the facts as to the expenditures in the California primary they could be obtained from Milton K. Young, Los Angeles attorney who was at the head of the Reed organization in that State.

FRIENDS GOT TOGETHER

Requested to make his statement in his own way, Senator Reed said there was no committee which he had created.

"A number of my friends got together on their own motion and organized. The chairman of the organization is W. Fordyce of St. Louis. This group of gentlemen got together and elected Ed S. Villmoare of Kansas City, treasurer.

"I told them that under no circumstances was any money to be received from any person or any interests of any kind that had any interest in legislation.

"I don't know how much money they have raised or from whom it has been raised except that I have been given to understand that some of it was given by political friends. This committee undertook to conduct the campaign in several States. My own efforts in this campaign have been in speech making."

HOOVER TO BE QUIZZED

The committee told Senator Reed they hope to examine Villmoare tomorrow after completing the questioning of Secretary Hoover. The investigators now plan tentatively to go to New York tomorrow night to take the testimony of Gov. Smith on Thursday. Returning here Friday they expect to examine Senator Watson of Indiana, and James W. Good, the directing head of the Hoover-for-President organization.

Early next week the investigators intend to question Frank O. Lowden, former Governor of Illinois.

CHILD RETURNED BY YOUTHFUL KIDNAPERS

INDIANAPOLIS, May 8. (AP)—Marguerite Keppel, 10 years of age, who was kidnaped by three youths while she was at play in a park, was returned to the same place later today by her kidnapers. Detectives hunted for the three men, said by witnesses to be about 18 or 19 years of age. The youths were said to have driven away from the park with the girl in a small car,

Cowboy and Veteran Finally Make Fight of It

Preliminaries Featured by Numerous Knockouts

BY PAUL LOWRY

Owld Mike McTigue and Cowboy Jack Willis waited eight rounds to make a fight of it at the Olympic last night, but when they finally got going there was excitement all over the place. Willis took the ninth round with a wild splurge of walloping which saw an old cut under McTigue's right eye opened and gushing blood. McTigue grabbed the tenth, and that made things even Steven, which was the way Referee Freddie Gilmore saw the bout.

MIKE McTIGUE

But, while Willis won the ninth round by a big margin, McTigue came back in the tenth, and with all the craft of his long career made a sucker out of his younger foe. Not only did Willis fail to touch the injured eye, but he found himself spinning crazily about the ring as he missed blow after blow.

WHAT? THE GOLF BOYS RAINED OUT IN MAY?

Sarazen and Smith Backed by Lakeville

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—Having arranged a match between McDonald Smith, its pro, and Archie Compston, British star, the Lakeville Golf and Country Club of Great Neck, Long Island, is prepared to back Smith and Gene Sarazen against any pair in the world for any amount up to $10,000.

The club proposes that the foursome, should its challenge be taken up, be a seventy-two-hole test.

Compston recently accepted a challenge to meet Smith in a seventy-two-hole encounter.

MISS RYAN IS CUT OFF YANK SQUAD

California Tennis Player Dropped from List Because of Residence Abroad

LONDON, May 8. (AP)—Tennis circles were surprised today, the Daily Mail says, to learn that the United States Lawn Tennis Association has notified Elizabeth Ryan, veteran American star, that she will not be wanted to play for the United States against Great Britain in the Wightman Cup tests at Wimbledon in June. The Mail says the association pointed out that Miss Ryan lacked residential qualification.

ELIZABETH RYAN

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—Although official confirmation still was lacking tonight, London dispatches announcing that Elizabeth Ryan, veteran California star, had been informed she would not be selected for the American Wightman Cup team this year created little surprise in tennis circles here.

Although Miss Ryan never has given up her American citizenship, it was pointed out her continued residence in England would make her selection for the Wightman Cup matches somewhat of an injustice to the young stars who make their home here. It was recalled that in 1926, the only year in which Miss Ryan has played for this country in the Wightman Cup matches. the Californian

McHugh is Second Among Amateurs With 157

SANDWICH (Eng.) May 8. (AP)—Six North American professionals and two amateurs qualified today for the British open golf championship, but the honors of the day went to South America. Wee Jose Jurado, Buenos Aires professional, compiled a sensational 69 on the royal St. George course to add to his 75 over Prince's yesterday and led the field home with 144 for the two days' qualifying play.

GENE SARAZEN

The players from the United States had no 69's in their bags but a majority slipped quietly inside the select circle of 110 to continue the quest for the title. Scores of 162 were needed to get under the wire with the low hundred and ties. Larry Nabholtz was the only pro to falter. The former Clevelander, who has been sick throughout the play, required 164 and was forced to join the gallery with Joshua Crane and Silas M. Newton, Boston and New York amateurs, who ventured into the 90's for a round and found themselves on the outside looking in. Crane needed 184 and Newton 169.

Jim Barnes and Gene Sarazen tied for low scoring honors among the representatives of the United States with 152 for the thirty-six holes. Walter Hagen had 153, Bill Mehlhorn, who led the field after the first day, 154. Tommy Armour, United States open champion, 156, and Bob Stupple, Chicago pro, 161.

MR. HUGH COPS SECOND

Johnny McHugh, San Francisco, was the second amateur in the qualifying list with 157, T. A. Torrance, the Scotsman, leading with 153. Douglas Grant, native of the

Mitchell Clouts Home Run, Double and a Single

BY BOB RAY

You'd think that Hollywood's Stars, who originally hailed from Salt Lake, where the altitude is high and the atmosphere is rare, would feel right at home on the top of the Coast League standings, now wouldn't you? But they don't.

JOHNNY MITCHELL.

The altitude got the Stars yesterday and, in their series opener with the Seattle Indians at Wrigley Field, they pulled up short of breath, runs and eventually their league-leadership laurels. In other words, Jimmy Middleton's lowly Tribe carried off yesterday's contest, 10 to 4, and the Stars dropped back into second place, yielding first place to the Sacramento Solons, who nosed out Los Angeles, 5 to 4.

Led by Johnny Mitchell, their Angel castoff shortstop, who clouted a home run, double and single, the Indians massaged the offerings of three Hollywood hurlers for an even dozen hits, which were bunched with dirty effect in the first, fourth and sixth innings. The Stars chipped in four errors to make it easier for the Tribe to make a successful local debut.

STAR HURLERS ROUTED

Curtis Fullerton and Hank Hulvey were both ineffective and the Indians clouted them for all ten runs before Phil Mulcahy came on the scene in the sixth and stopped the visitors' attack.

Gomar Wilson, the former Minneapolis southpaw, who started on the mound for Seattle, also failed to finish and was replaced by Ed Bryan in the fourth with men on second and third and none out. Bryan got out of the scrape with only one run scoring and held the Stars to one other marker during the rest of the contest.

It looked yesterday as though the Stars figured all they had to do was walk out on the diamond and the Indians would immediately fold up. However, Mr. Middleton's Redskins are

RAIN POSTPONES TITLE GOLF PLAY AT LAKESIDE

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

It was a great day for ducks, yachtsmen and other nautically inclined persons at the Lakeside Country Club yesterday, but the golfing gentlemen who came to battle for the twenty-ninth annual amateur championship of the Southern California Golf Association were rushed to the warmth of the locker room when the officials put their heads together end decided that it was entirely too moisty for the ancient Scottish pastime.

EVERETT SEAVER

The committee also elected to shove the tournament ahead a day with eighteen holes of medal play today, eighteen tomorrow, and the thirty-six-hole final Monday. The pairings and starting times announced yesterday will remain practically the same for today with a few revisions.

George Von Elm, last year's champion, is fortunately able to arrange his time to play through the qualifying round before leaving for Detroit. If yesterday's scoring can be taken as a criterion, the former national amateur champion is going to raise quite a rumpus in the golfing racket this sum-

PRESIDENT OF A. A. U. SAYS PADDOCK'S ACTIONS AROUSE MUCH UNFAVORABLE COMMENT

BY BRAVEN DYYER

Murray Hulbert, president of the American Athletic Union, has directed the attention of the Southern Pacific Association of that body to Charley Paddock's combined film and lecture tour of the East, pointing out that the famous sprinter's actions have aroused much unfavorable comment not only in the East but also from international sources. This information was revealed here last night, following published reports in the East that the A.A.U. had asked the Southern Pacific division to investigate Paddock's status in view of the rumors that he had received or was to receive money for his personal appearances and lectures with his film.

CHARLIE PADDOCK.

The eastern dispatch said that Dan Ferris, secretary of the A.A.U., had referred the matter of Paddock's status to the runner's nome body. Last night Weaver declared he had not yet received any communication from Ferris, but that he had heard from Hulbert.

The whole row centers around Paddock's picture, "The Olympic Hero," with which he is now making personal appearanees in the East. Rumors have it that Pad-

LOMBARDI NOT TO FORSAKE TRACK CAREER FOR BASEBALL

Frank Lombardi, sensational Los Angeles High School sprinter, will not play baseball this spring. The Roman rambler, who equaled the world's record of 9 3-5s. for the 100-yard dash last Saturday, decided yesterday that he would forget all about baseball and concentrate on track with a view to making the United States Oympic team. Lombardi is captain of the L. A. High nine and hated to decide against joining his mates, but came to this decision after a conference with Herb White, baseball mentor, who told Frank he ought to stick to his track work. Lombardi will probably run under the colors of the Los Angeles Athletic Club. He will not race at Claremont Saturday in the A.A.U. meet, preferring to rest for a few weeks following a strenuous prep career.

mer. In comparison with the majority of scores turned in his 35 for the first nine was phenomenal under existing conditions and he shot par golf for twelve holes, when the match was abandoned.

Everett H. Seaver, who paired with Elmer C. Henderson, also shot a 35 going out. The postponement, however, was the only fair way out. Willard George of El Caballero Country Club, plowed through eighteen inundated holes with an even 100 strokes. Chester Lyday, well-known secretary of the Southern California Golf Association, had a 92. A. J. Getz shot an 89, and Howard Hughes had an 81.

Dr. Paul Hunter, five times Southern California champion, turned in a card of 47 for nine holes. He played through the worst of the showers, however, and is certain to be up among the leaders. Jack Neville had a 41 for nine holes.

YOUNGSTERS PLAY TODAY

The majority of the youngsters, Harold and Russell Thompson, Fay and Lester Coleman, Charles Seaver, Winston Fuller, Allen Moser, Gibson Dunlap and a number of others, were slated to start in the afternoon, and did not get away. They will tee off today as originally scheduled.

Those golfers who were scared out by the rain yesterday forfeited their starting time and will have to tee off after 12 o'clock at starter's time.

BRITISH AMATEURS LOOK BAD; WILL NOT STAND UP AGAINST JONES, VON ELM, SAYS HAGEN

BY WALTER HAGEN
American Professional Golf Champion

Walter Hagen

SANDWICH (Eng.) May 8.—There are six of us from North America in the British open championship, but the big noise today was created by a South American, diminutive Jose Jurado of Buenos Aires.

A London newspaper man said to me today, "If it isn't North America, it's South America, you simply can't keep these Americans down."

Jurado played a great round of 69, equaling the the competitive record for Sandwich and with his 75 on Prince's course yesterday he led the field with 144. Americans left in the open are Gene Sarazen with 152, Jim Barnes, 152; myself, 153; Bill Mehlhorn, 154; Tommy Armour, 156, and the California amateur, Johnny McHugh, 157. I had an early start and played well for eleven holes. Then I visited the bunkers and finished with 77.

The championship starts tomorrow with eighteen holes, there will be eighteen more Thursday and thirty-six Friday, all within fifteen strokes of the leader playing in the final rounds.

PLAYS SAFE

I watched Jurado. He was paired with Harry Vardon. I picked them up at the fifteenth hole, which requires an exceptionally well-played second shot. It is guarded by traps directly in front of the green and at no time is the second stroke a pitch. It is at best, a long iron and often calls for wood.

Today Vardon played safe short of the traps, content to do five. It was very difficult to play a stroke long enough to carry the traps and with enough stuff on to hold the green, which was fast.

Jurado played it, and was not more than fifteen feet beyond the flag.

At the home hole he dropped a nice putt of twenty feet for three and his 69.

At the same time Harry Vardon was getting a 75 for a total of 159, thereby qualifying. At the short sixteenth, Vardon would most certained have holed in one had the pin been out for his ball struck it and stopped not three inches away.

Vardon, who played with Jurado both yesterday and today, told me that the South American played fine golf today without luck and that his 69 was "justified." This was praise, indeed, from Vardon.

This evening I had tea with Ted Ray and Jimmy Braid, and got their ideas on the championship. They seem to think Jurado too small to stand the gaff over a seventy-two-hole championship grind.

MITCHELL FAVORED

Ted fancies Abe Mitchell. He says Abe appears more "relaxed" than he has ever seen him. "Abe," said Ray, "is playing very well. I place my faith in him, and, of the other Britishers, in Arthur Havers. Of the Americans, I like Jim Barnes best."

Ted told me he didn't think I was in as good shape as in 1922 when I was fortunate enough to win. He placed my chances as second best among the Americans. He thinks Charley Whitcomb and Aubrey Boomer have a look in. Ted told me he hoped to make one more trip to America and that he would like to take Jimmy Braid with him.

Braid is the only one of the "old masters" of British golf who has not been to America.

I asked Jimmy why he had never made the trip. He said he was afraid his eyes would not stand the "hot climate." I explained that it was not always hot in America and urged him to make a visit.

One thing is certain. Jurado will return to Buenos Aires via North America and will surely be in Chicago for the American open.

The showing of the British amateurs here would interest America. Most of the candidates for the Walker Cup team have been playing badly. Nearly all were in the 80's each day and from the form they exhibited they will stand no show against Jones, Von Elm and our other men in Chicago. Several British golf writers told me the British Walker Cup team would not have a ghost of a chance at Chicago. I trust no one will misunderstand this statement. I am merely trying to report facts and what I hear from British experts. There is no reason, however, why the international match in Chicago should not be a big social success, which is more than half of it.

After today's play I talked with Jurado. He is 28 years of age and weighs 126 pounds. He won the professional championship of South America four times. The Argentine Golf Club decided he was playing so well that he should be sent to England and he left Argentina three days later. His club has 1200 members and is in Palermo, near Buenos Aires. Jurado was born in Argentina and learned his game as a caddy at the club he now serves professionally. The club was founded by the English.

This is a gala week for Sandwich and the Kentish coast and everything in connection with the open championship is being conducted along the most satisfactory lines.

FAVORITES COP IN GIRARD TOURNEY

First-round matches in the annual spring handicap at Girard Golf and Country Club over the week-end were all captured by the favorites, playing with handicaps of six or less, according to results furnished by Manager Perry Ferguson.

In the first flight, Eddie Moore defeated Percy Smith, 5 and 4; Jimmie Johns defeated Dr. Price, 7 and 5; Perry Ferguson defeated Gordon Sheaf, 2 and 1; Bill Jacks defeated Fred Olson, 2 and 1; Choedy Jennings defeated W. J. Snook, 4 and 3; Roger Eaton defeated Eddie Phillips, 1 up, and Bill Jelliffe defeated Stan Kertes, 3 and 2.

Ed Sanford, Doug Stahl, Ed Radcliffe, G. D. Harrington, Marion Kyle, J. R. Martin, F. D. Winne and Les Silvera were the winners in the second flight. Next Saturday and Sunday have been scheduled as official playing time for second-round matches in the handicap tourney.

Spirited play is expected next week-end when Eddie Moore is to come up against Jimmie Johns in one of the second-round matches and Bill Jelliffe is to play against Roger Eaton, champion San Fernando Valley golfer last year.

GATES COPS SWEEPSTAKES IN MONTE CARLO PLAY

S. Gates won the match play against par sweepstakes at the Montecito Country Club recently with an 81, being 2 down to par. A. L. Painter and Milton Wilson tied for second, both being 4 down. Painter shot a 79 and Wilson scored an 81.

GROOM COLTON TRACK FOR SUNDAY'S RACE

COLTON, May 8. — Intercity Speedways, Inc., tonight issued orders to pilots who will compete in the first dirt track championship race of the season next Sunday, that no practice would be permitted tomorrow on the Colton speedway and the oval would be turned over to workmen for a thorough grooming. Practice during the week has cut up the oval and the work tomorrow will prevent its slowing up the track for Sunday's program.

At the close of practice yesterday, Ernest Triplett, youthful Belvedere Gardens pilot, was installed a favorite for the Sunday race. He has been here since Tuesday and has not made a single adjustment or repair on his new Gibberson special. The way the car has been holding up in practice has been a big surprise to veterans of the roaring road who are here and has jumped the youngster into favor over Speed Hinkley and Francis Quinn, both of whom have been burning up the track in practice.

ITALY TAKES MATCH IN DAVIS CUP PLAY

GENOA (Italy) May 8. (AP)—Italy gained a two-to-one lead in its first round Davis Cup test against Australia today, when Caslini and Baron H. L. De Morpurco defeated the Australian doubles team of Hopman and Gerald Patterson, 6-3, 6-4, 1-6, 1-6, 6-2.

The match was to bitterly contested that Referee Bonacossa retired in favor of Serventi after a number of his decisions had been protested.

The two nations had split even in two singles matches on Sunday.

ITALIAN WINS LAP OF DERBY

Giusto Umek is First in Jaunt from Mishawaka to Ligonier

PETER GAVUZZI

LIGONIER (Ind.) May 8. (AP)—Giusto Umek of Trieste, Italy, traveled the forty miles between Mishawaka and Ligonier today in 5h. 59m. 4s., to lead C. C. Pyle's transcontinental derby contestants into the sixty-sixth control station. Umek held seventh place in the total standing with an elapsed time of 473h. 11m. 5s. for the 2549 miles traveled since the runners left Los Angeles.

Roy McMurtry, one-armed Indianapolis runner, finished second in 6h. 57m. 16s. to clinch fifteenth place in the standing. His elapsed time is 535h. 10m.

Peter Gavuzzi of Southampton, Eng., leader in the race, maintained his 6h. 9m. 23s. lead over Andrew Payne of Claremore, Okla., second-place holder, when the two leaders finished in a head heat for thirteenth place in 8h. 17m. 40s. Gavuzzi's total elapsed time is 414h. 31m. 42s. while Payne has an elapsed time of 420h. 41m. 5s.

Another Hoosier, John Stone of Marion tied with William Kerr of Minneapolis, for third place in 7h. 11m. 30s. Stone's elapsed time is 622h. 40m 40s., and Kerr's, 470h. 43m. 30s. Harry Sheare of San Francisco, was the fifth man to trail into this point, making the distance in 7h. 25m. 11s.; elapsed time 565h. 21m. 38s.

Frank Von Flue of Herman, Cal., finished seventh in 7h. 33m. 30s., elapsed time, 515h. 17m. 38s.

Others who trailed into Ligonier were Paul Smith, Gates, Or., and John Cronick, Saskatoon, who finished in a dead heat for eighth place in 7h. 48m. 36s. Smith has an elapsed time of 560h. 12m. 25s. Cronick, 482h. 42m. 24s. Allen Currier, Rogue River, Or., was tenth in 7h. 51m. 50s.—535h. 10m. 47s., in a dead heat with James Pollard, Reno, Nev., 538h. 44m. 18s. August Scherrer, Uster, Switzerland, was twelfth in 7h. 59m. 23s.—536h. 37m. 55s.

The ten finishers, including Gavuzzi and Payne, finished in a tie in 8h. 17m. 40s. The other eight were E. Phillip Granville, Hamilton, Ont.; Louis Perrella, Albany, N. Y.; Arthur Killingsworth, Somis, Cal.; John Salo, Passaic, N. J.; Mike Joyce, Cleveland; William Morady, Newark, N. J.; Seth Gonzales, Denver, and S. Stevens, Calgary.

FIRST HALF OF DECATHLON TRIALS TO BE HELD FRIDAY

The first half of the Southern Pacific A.A.U. decathlon tryouts will be held Friday afternoon at the Coliseum, according to an announcement by officials yesterday. The athletes will wind up competition with the other five events at Claremont Saturday. Jim Stewart, ineligible Trojan athlete, is favored in the event, with Chuck Lewis of the L.A.A.C. doped to place high. The Friday part of the contest starts at 3 o'clock.

ARGENTINE MITE MEDALIST IN BRITISH OPEN TOURNEY

United States but now living in London, qualified with 160.

J. H. Taylor, who has won the open five times since 1894, tied once and finished second four times, failed to qualify, taking 163. Great Britain's most famous player, now 57 years of age, has said for years that he would quit playing in championships if he ever failed to qualify.

Dr. W. Tweddle, amateur champion of Great Britain, and Robert Harris, former amateur champion, also failed to make the grade. Roger Wethered, another former champion, slipped in with 159.

Alex Herd, James Braid and Harry Vardon were safely in, Herd taking 157, Braid, 154, and Vardon, 159. Archie Compston, conqueror of Hagen, finished in a tie with his victim at 153. Abe Mitchell was a stroke back at 154. Thomas Barber checked in with 154, George Gadd with 157 and Jean Gassiat with 159. Aubrey Boomer took 155 and Arnaud Massey, 153, the score returned by Len Holland. Arthur Havers needed 156, as did C. A. and E. R. Whitcombe. R. A. Whitcombe was three strokes under the others of the name. Ted Ray scored 185.

H. C. Jolley, scoring 147; Bert Hodson, 148, and George Duncan, 150, followed Jurado to the wire.

JURADO SENSATION

The 28-year-old featherweight Argentine was the sensation of the second day's play. Jurado weighs only 126 pounds, and stands but six inches over five feet in his golf shoes, but today he banged some of his drives more than 300 yards over the windswept St. George's course. He played his irons with deadly accuracy and putted like Bobby Jones, taking only 34 for the round.

A famous master of the Old World, Harry Vardon, paired with the smiling youngster from the New World, saw golf played as he played it in his heyday. Sandwich cheered Jurado as only this ancient golfing community can hail a new star and surged about to study the source of his tremendous skill. The gallery finally decided that the answer lies in his powerful wrists.

Jurado is making his second invasion of Great Britain. He has never been to the United States, but plans to go back to South America by way of the States.

McHugh, the California youngster, played good golf under difficulties to take second place among the amateurs. His 80 with 77 yesterday qualified him with ease, but he had his troubles with the weather and an uninvited conversational companion.

OXY GRIDDERS FACE TWO WEEKS' WORK

Only two more weeks remain on the spring grid training period at Occidental College. Coach Eddie Kienholz has sent his prospective candidates for the 1928 Tiger eleven through four weeks of fundamental drills, signal practice and preliminary tackling, and will conclude his early training work with scrimmage play for the remaining few days on the calendar. From the talent reporting during this early grid training period Kienholz has formed two elevens. Many of the letter men, however, have failed to report, being tied up in baseball activities, or still in track work.

NICK LUTZE HEADS STAR MAT SHOW

Daro Signs Youthful Star for Main Event of Olympic Wrestling Match

NICK LUTZE.

Nick Lutze, the young Chicago mat star who has hopes of being the next world heavyweight champion, was signed by "Carnation" Lou Daro, wrestling promoter, yesterday, to appear in the main star mat show Lou is planning for the Olympic for next Wednesday night.

The selection of Lutze's opponent will not be until some time today, Daro reported. Lutze, he stated, will tackle any heavyweight picked for him. He has wrestled and defeated many of the best grapplers in the country and is out to firmly establish himself as the only logical contender for Ed (Strangler) Lewis's mat title.

His showing against Lewis here last week was a surprise to the 9800 fans who witnessed the bout, as well as the champion and his manager. Lutze was only a week in getting ready for the title-holder. His opponent for Wednesday night is expected to be selected from three heavyweights that have been under consideration for the past few days.

Jim Browning, the Wichita flying scissor expert, tackles Jack Washburn in the special event, Daro stated. Washburn put the fiery Tommy Draak away in less than twenty minutes here a few months ago. He injured his knee in his match with Pat McGill a few weeks later. He has completely recovered from his injury now and is ready to work himself into a main event.

YOUNG BROWN TO MEET BURNS IN RING

Young Brown makes his second start of his comeback career at the Main-street Athletic Club Saturday night against a rough, tough battler by the name of Frankie Burns. Brown, formerly one of the cleverest boxers in this section, just recently returned to the ring somewhat heavier than his former weight, but showed that he had lost none of his cunning or ability to hand out punishment as well as take what is tossed at him.

Promoter Carlos Curtis has lined up an excellent semi-wind-up between two light-heavyweights and as usual the balance of the card is of high order.

LARRY BETTENCOURT SIGNS AS CATCHER WITH ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, May 8. (AP)—The Browns will have an All-American battery if Larry Bettencourt, their latest acquisition, is assigned to catch Ernie Nevers, former Stanford fullback and all-star football selection in 1925. Nevers made the big jump from college to the major leagues. Charley Berry, an All-American end at Lafayette in 1924, is catching for the Boston Braves; Vic Hanson, another All-American wingman while at Syracuse in 1926, went south with the Yankees this spring but is now in the Eastern League.

CINCY TRIUMPHS

CINCINNATI, May 8. (AP)—Brandt's wildness was responsible for the wide margin in the Cincinnati Reds' 7-to-2 victory over Boston today. The Reds gathered four runs off two hits in the sixth when Brandt walked five men.

Crits hit a home run in the fifth. Boston scored twice on perfect hit-and-run strategy with three hits bunched in the sixth. Rogers Hornsby's only hit of the game scored Richbourg. Score:

SEXTET WALLOPED

ST. LOUIS, May 8. (AP)—Scoring nine runs in the eighth inning, the St. Louis Cardinals pounded six Philly moundsmen for thirteen hits and a 15-to-0 victory today. Frankhouse kept the Philadelphians' nine hits scattered.

Two more Cardinal players were added to the hospital list when Gus Mancuso reported today with a swollen hand and Walter Roettger was being bothered with his legs. Neither of the managers were on the bench, with McKechnie under suspension and the Philly leader ill with the flu.

High crashed through with a home run in the fifth, driving in Douthit before him. Score:

OPEN NEW PUBLIC GOLF COURSE SOON

SANTA MONICA, May 8. (Exclusive)—The introduction of the new municipal golf links at Clover Field on the 28th inst. will also serve as the means of bringing the ancient game to hundreds of sport-loving citizens of the community.

Preparatory to the opening of the fine new links, two professional teachers are giving novices advance tips already. The instructors are Lou Berrien and Clarence Manville, who are to be found issuing mashie advice inside of a well-known sporting-goods house here. With the actual opening but a short time off the present indication is that an actual storm of patrons will descend upon the links as soon as they are offered up to public use.

FORBES TO GET TEST IN ADAMS BATTLE

Frankie Forbes, local welterweight, will face the biggest test of his career tomorrow night when he meets Johnny Adams in the ten-round main event at San Bernardino.

Adams is doing a great comeback, recently battling to a draw with Bobby La Salle at Wilmington. If Forbes can get over the San Bernardino favorite in his battle Thursday night he will be in line for main events at the Los Angeles clubs.

Uhle Lets Down New Yorkers With Four Bingles

Herb Pennock Suffers First Defeat of Season

Athletics Chalk Up Fourth Straight Victory

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—The Cleveland Indians chopped a game away from the lead of the Yankees here today when George Uhle let the New Yorkers down with four scattered hits, two of which went to his pitching opponent, Herb Pennock. Cleveland won, 3 to 0, giving the Yankees their second coat of whitewash of the season.

Pennock suffered his first 1928 defeat. He pitched good ball, but the Indians bunched four hits and a sacrifice fly for two runs in the second. The third Cleveland run was added in the sixth on Lind's triple and Joe Sewell's single. The score:

JUNIOR ELKS CHALLENGED

SANTA MONICA, May 8. (Exclusive)—Anxious to pick off some of the glory which has been cast in the respective laps of Santa Monica Antlers on account of their unbroken string of victories, "Mancho" Donatoni, manager of the Santa Monica Giants' baseball team, has challenged the junior Elks to a three-game series.

MR. BUD LANDIS, the eminent Sport Cracker, seems to be enjoying himself immensely in the rural regions surrounding gay Paree. He reports by mail from the French capital, where he is enjoying his vacation like a scholar and a gentleman, that bull fighting is an old woman's game by comparison with sports in countries where the boys drink their "likker" raw and red. Mr. Landis's discourse is so interesting that it is being passed on for public consumption, incidentally saving the conductor of this column considerable time and labor in the research department. It runs as follows:

"Dear Paul:

"I have never seen a bullfight although I attended one just the other day.

"Down in the Basque country, which is to France and Spain what cheese is to a sandwich, the local idea of sport is to puncture a cow. It is from this section that Paulino Uzcudun hails. You will remember Uz as the guy who was shadow boxing recently at Wrigley Field when the shadow up and licked him.

"Anyway, while on a motor tour we stopped at a little Basque village which was clinging to the side of a rather large Pyranee. I speak several differents kinds of conversations so, upon deciding to see a fullfight, I said to the gateman:

"'Quanta costa a couple of tickets to the combatty de toro?'

"'Jenny say pa,' he replied, so I gave him the two dollars and we passed in.

"We sat for some time on bleachers, roughly speaking. At length they pushed the bull into the ring and leaned him against a fence.

"The bull himself was a delightful old creature, worn to the fabric in spots but possessing a shabby gentility, withal.

"Every precaution is taken for the animal's safety. You see, bulls are used over and over like a safety-razor blade. They come to know their audiences and will eat off anybody's hand. At the gong the bull gave what might be termed a nasal razzberry and lunged for his nearest competitor. He nosed a toreador all over the lot till finally, when it was becoming embarrassing, he was appeased with a lump of sugar.

"There was little about the whole affair that men could not take their wives and sweethearts, or both, to see. I did not remain for the picture.

"Yours truly,

"BUD LANDIS."

"They played the ball game and quit the golf. Now ain't that funny?" came the querulous voice of Attorney Pidge rolling through the sport sanctum yesterday. It is a bit unusual because generally speaking, no golfer, once he gets his knickers on and eases out on the course, ever quits until the haven of the nineteenth hole comes into sight. However, they say the Los Angeles River got to rolling around the course at Lakeside yesterday, and the powers that be considered it expedient to call off the Southern California championship festivities until today.

Perhaps nothing may come of the proposed match between Jack Sharkey and George Godfrey for these parts, but certainly the stage was set when the Boston heavy bumped off Jack Delaney in one round recently.

In view of their recent exploits the Messrs. Sharkey and Godfrey certainly have more right to fight Gene Tunney for the championship this summer than Tom Heeney. Uzcudun beat Heeney once and drew another time. Godfrey beat Uzcudun. Then consider Sharkey. He knocked out Delaney in a round after Heeney had barely been able to gain a decision in fifteen rounds.

PADDOCK PROBE LOOMING HERE

dock intends to accept money covering his enterprises but not until after the Olympic Games are over. This, it is said, is in direct conflict to Paddock's understanding with A.A.U. officials.

"Hulbert sent me affidavits which show that Paddock does not receive any money for his appearances with his film," said Weaver last night. "We must therefore give Charley the benefit of the doubt, having no proof one way or the other. Hulbert declared that Paddock's actions had caused much unfavorable comment abroad, particularly in view of what happened to Charley Hoff, the Norwegian pole vaulter. (Hoff was professionalized because he went on the stage in order to get something to eat.) Hulbert also stated that some of Paddock's newspaper articles had created criticism and said he was inclosing two or three of the stories. This he failed to do, however, so I can't pass on them."

Weaver said that he had turned the affidavits over to Owen R. Bird, chairman of the registration committee of the Southern Pacific A.A.U., and that this organization would have to rule on Paddock's status after word from Ferris had been received here.

SAYS PADDOCK WILL RUN

Weaver also reiterated his belief that Paddock would be on hand to run in the Olympic trials here June 16. "I think Charley is beginning to realize that he ought to come home and do the right thing by his own community and by the younger athletes who need the inspiration of his presence in their preparation for the Olympic Games," said Weaver in closing.

Paddock's amateur standing was questioned by the local A.A.U. almost a year ago, at which time he was engaged in making the picture which he is now exhibiting in the East. After considerable discussion Charley was given a clean bill of health by the local officials.

Brilliant Field of Athletes to Participate in Annual A.A.U. Meet Next Satur

STARS GATHER AT CLAREMONT

World-Famous Track Men to Display Wares

Pomona Officials Grooming Field for Meet

Athletic Club Favored to Grab Honors

CLAREMONT, May 8. (Exclusive) The most brilliant collection of track and field athletes ever assembled on historic Alumni Field, will clash here Saturday in the nineteenth annual A.A.U. games. Entries arriving here late today, and added to the long list already received, confirmed the belief of A.A.U. officials that this year's meet will be one of the most colorful and hard-fought ever staged. World-famous athletes whose names are practically certain to be ringing from the scene of the 1928 Olympic Games and lesser lights of athletic club, college and high school, are all entered in Saturday's meet.

For many of the athletes, the A.A.U. games will be a final workout before the Olympic trials, to be held in Los Angeles Coliseum in the next few weeks. Most of the boys are out to get their best times and distances, supposedly having by now reached the very peak of conditioning.

Contrary to the first announcement, the decathlon contest that has been added to the list of events, will not be held entirely on the one day. The first five events will be staged at the Los Angeles Coliseum on Friday, and the second five at Claremont on Saturday, as per the regulations. The strain of running all ten events on the same day would have been too much for the athletes, so the split was made.

Pomona College officials are at work grooming Pomona's track to the highest point of efficiency it has reached in a long time. Considered one of the fastest tracks in California, the Pomona oval has received a world of attention and ought to be in tip-top shape for the best efforts of the performers here Saturday.

The entry list shows practically the entire teams from the Los Angeles Athletic Club, and U.S.C. Scattering stars, unattached and from other places, are also entered. Glendale and Santa Ana High School have sent relay teams and it is possible that the world-championship Los Angeles High School team will be on hand. Individually and as a team battle, Saturday's meet looks like the biggest track and field event ever staged anywhere but in the Coliseum.

CORDOZA SUBS ON PROGRAM

Joe Takes Gill's Place on Hollywood Fight Card Friday Night

Joe Cordoza has been substituted for Eddie Gill in the semi-wind-up at the Hollywood American Legion Stadium Friday night. Cordoza is one of the coming welterweights of Southern California. The main eventers, Vigo Doman and Tony Fuente are in training for what appears to be a sensational heavyweight battle.

Tony Fuente, the big Mexican, is pleased to think he is getting a crack at Doman. If he wins from Doman the Mexican is going after some of the eastern fighters. He wants to get recognition from Tex Rickard and to do that he must accomplish something more than ordinary.

Hollywood regulars will string with Doman to beat Fuente. They like Doman at Hollywood, because the big fellow is game and carries a punch. If Doman can keep his chin out of harm's way Friday night he may score a knockout over Fuente.

Billy Lane and Joe Cordoza should put up a whale of a six-round fight. Cordoza has the ability to win, but he must show more aggressiveness than he did in his last start at the stadium. He beat Pete Myers, but by no means was it the best efforts of Cordoza that he showed the fans that night.

OBSERVATIONS

BY THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER
BILL HENRY

FAR be it from us to be suspicious of politics but look at this. The presence of Charles Willyum Paddock is regarded as essential to the raising of a large gob of cash money with which the A.A.U. plans to pay the expenses of athletes and officials to the 1928 Olympic Games. Mr. Paddock is in the East 3000 miles away from home on a mysterious "lecture tour" with a film in which he appears. He intimates that he doesn't intend to come home to help raise the said large gob of money with which to pay the, etc., etc., etc. as above. He gets some backing from Coach Robertson who appears to be more interested in having Paddock in condition that in having the large gob of money in the treasury. And what do you suppose happens?

The A.A.U., which has been sitting back and saying nothing and apparently greatly admiring the celluloid capers of Mr. Paddock and the dulcimer tones of his lecturing voice, suddenly becomes suspicious of his activities and orders an immediate investigation of Paddock's film and lecture tour by the S.P.A.A.U., which is not only 3000 miles away from the place where Paddock is touring but which also happens to be the organization which regards Paddock's personal appearance on June 16th as essential to the raising of the large gob of money with which to etc., etc., as above. Now, we ask you, will Mr. Paddock run in Los Angeles June 16 or will he not?

We aren't charging anybody with politics in this case because we don't know anything about it except what we read in the newspapers. In our estimation the National Olympic Committee "stung" Los Angeles with a lot bigger quota of Olympic funds to raise than was necessary but we believe that Los Angeles can raise it with or without Charley Paddock or Charley Borah or their celebrated race. Our guess is that the show planned for the Coliseum on June 16 is about the finest thing ever pulled in this country and that the populace will rise up and support the meet to the proper extent anyhow.

The show that has been lined up by Bob Weaver & Co. is something that can stand on its own feet and if the head coach of the Olympic team is really on record as saying he thinks it would be better for our Olympic chances if Paddock or Borah didn't return, our guess is that the meet can be a financial success without their loudly proclaimed duel. No loyal Los Angeles resident would fail to do his share toward setting our Olympic candidates off for the national trials in the right kind of fashion.

MISS GOLDA GROSS ARRIVES TOMORROW FOR NET PLAY

Miss Golda Gross, one of the leading and highly rated female racket-wielders of the State, is slated to arrive in the city during the early morning hours tomorrow. Miss Gross is one of the invading northern aces who will perform in the forty-third annual Southern California senior tennis championships, which open on the courts of the Los Angeles Tennis Club, Hollywood, Saturday morning.

The San Francisco star is an entry in the women's open singles; mixed doubles with Edward Berry, and also in the ladies' doubles, in which event her partner is as yet unknown. Miss Gross will do battle with Mrs. May Sutton Bundy, ex-world and national champion, Miss Midge Gladman, junior national champion, and other Southland satellites who are among the favorites for the championship crown.

Phil Neer, Portland ace, and Ben Gorchakoff, Occidental collegian star, along with Ralph Sindorf, Clif Herd and Eugene Warren, veterans of the Coast ranks, will head the men's singles division. A large number of candidates will vie for honors in this tournament event.

Entries close tomorrow night at 6 o'clock, it was announced by chairman Edward Berry of the Los Angeles club. Play starts early Saturday morning, and will continue throughout the week, with finals on the 20th inst., Sunday afternoon. Prizes and trophies are up for the winners in each of the events including men's and women's singles and doubles and open mixed doubles.

MAXWELL BEING GROOMED FOR TWO OLYMPIC EVENTS

Bob Maxwell, lanky Los Angeles Athletic Club hurdler, is being trained by Coach Boyd Comstock to try for the American Olympic team in the 400-meter hurdles as well as in the 110-meter high sticks. Maxwell will run both races when the Southwest Olympic finals are held June 16 at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Maxwell has won recognition as the fastest 220-yard low hurdler ever developed in the Far West. Last Saturday Maxwell broke his own Pacific Coast record by running the race in 23 1-5 seconds, only a fifth back of Charles Brookins's world record. Maxwell won the national low hurdles championship at Lincoln, Neb., last summer.

Combining perfect hurdling form with tremendous speed between the barriers and a world of endurance, Maxwell is regarded as a fine prospect in the 400-meter obstacle race. Maxwell has run many a quarter-mile flat race as member of the Pomona College or Los Angeles A. C. relay teams and has proven his ability to go the distance.

OAKLAND CLEANS HOUSE

OAKLAND, May 8. (AP)—The poor showing of the Oakland team last week, when six out of seven games were dropped to Sacramento, resulted today in a house cleaning that saw two regulars swept out into the cold. Cecil Duff, pitcher, and Leonard Metz, utility infielder, were the victims. Duff could have gone to Wichita of the Western League, but refused to report, and was given his unconditional release along with Metz. Both were with Portland last season.

Manager Ivan Howard also announced that Monroe Dean, rookie infielder from Seattle, would be retained as utility man. The youngster impressed his boss with a fine showing in the twenty-two-inning game Sunday, handling fifteen chances without an error.

Martin Dumovich, a left-handed pitcher formerly with the Chicago Cubs, was signed today, giving the Oaks four southpaws. The league is full of left-handed hitters so Manager Howard believes his heavy southpaw twirling staff will come in handy. For that reason, he is keeping Herman Sparks, young left-hander, who was slated to go to Ogden, Utah-Idaho League, this week.

SEATTLE GRABS SERIES OPENER

Sheiks Play Poor Ball and Drop 10-to-4 Contest

Fullerton, Hulvey Both Fail to Puzzle Invaders

a tough bunch to beat, despite their lowly place in the standings, and if the Stars don't start hustling, they'll wake up with a bruised chin.

One of the slimmest gatherings of the season was out for the contest, which definitely showed up the Stars as poor mudders. Yesterday's early downpour and the threatening weather kept a lot of fans away from the ball park.

MITCHELL HITS HOMER

Jimmy Mitchell, who has been playing great ball for the Suds, put the visitors off in front in the first when he hoisted one of Fullerton's offerings over the right-field screen for a homer. Bernie Neis drew a walk and then Jacobs smashed a double between Boroja and Twombly, Neis scoring. That was all for Fullerton, Hulvey coming on the scene. Jack Sherlock greeted Hulvey by slapping a single to left and Jacobs cantered home. Hank retired Olney and Muller to end the inning, but three runs were in.

The Stars got two of those back in the second on three hits and an error by Neis. Roth led off with a single and Wera skied to Neis. Heath forced Roth at second. Tony Boroja singled to left and so did Sam Agnew, Heath and Boroja scoring on the latter's hit when Neis let the ball get by him.

Hollywood's defense blew up in the fourth and three errors and a couple of hits gave Seattle another trio of runs. Muller drew a walk for a starter and scampered to second when Agnew's throw to pick him off first was low, among other things. Schmidt bunted down the third-base line and got a single when Wera slipped as he fielded the ball. The Star third sacker threw the ball while sitting down and it sailed over Heath's head, Muller scoring on the error. Wilson fanned and Wolfer popped to Lee, but Mitchell dropped a double on the left-field line, putting Schmidt on third. Wera fielded Neis's grounder and then heaved high to first, Schmidt and Mitchell scoring on the wild throw.

When Wilson walked Roth to open the Hollywood fourth and Wera followed with a double to center, Middleton decided that it was time to change pitchers, so he sent in Ed Bryan, who was recently obtained in the trade with the Missions. Heath's sacrifice fly to Wolfer brought Roth home, but Bryan prevented any more scoring in the inning.

HULVEY BLOWS UP

Hulvey blew up in the sixth and the Indians sewed up the struggle by putting across four more markers. Bryan opened the round with a double to right and Wolfer bunted him to third. Mitchell's single to center scored the Seattle hurler. Neis was hit by a pitched ball. Mitchell moved to third on Jacobs's long fly to Roth. Neis and Mitchell then essayed a double-steal that worked because Hulvey made a balk, Mitchell scoring. Sherlock walked and then young Bill Olney doubled to center to score Neis and Sherlock. Mulcahy relieved Hulvey and fanned Muller for the third out.

Mulcahy scored the Stars' final run in the seventh when he tripled to center and scored on Lee's single to right. Score:

FAIR PASADENANS SEEK OLYMPIC TRIP

They Form Women's World Record Relay Team

Here they are, Misses Nellie Doerschlag, Anne Vrana, Ethel Nichols and Lillian Copeland, who hold marks for the 400 meters and 440-yard relays. Mrs. Aileen Allen, who coaches the quartet and other Southern California aspirants for the United States women's Olympic squad, is the starter.

BY OLIVE HATCH

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA'S fair athletes have an excellent chance to win the first women's track and field championships in the history of the modern Olympiads, according to Aileen Allen, women's 1928 Olympic chaperon and coach of the Pasadena Athletic and Country Club women's team.

Up to the present time, women's events in the Olympic Games have been a rather hit-and-miss affair, consisting chiefly of tennis, swimming and ice skating, but the 1928 Olympiad promises a full program for the fair sex, with half a dozen track and field contests in which Southern California's contingent will be duly represented, aside from the host of other women's events on the calendar.

One of Aileen Allen's proteges, Lillian Copeland, has already placed herself on the international team due to excellent past performances in the shot put, discus and javelin. But there are four other Amazons who have made a possible place for themselves on the American team this summer.

Four of the fastest women relay runners in the world are members of the Pasadena team, and they hold records in the 440-yard and 400-meters relay. The first world record was established by this squad of phenomenal ramblers in 1926, when the 440-yard mark was set at 52.1s. Another world's record was recently established in the 440-yard relay at 50s. flat by Misses Nellie Doerschlag, Anne Vrana, Ethel Nichols and Lillian Copeland.

Individual stars are also conceded points in the track events this summer at Amsterdam. Anne Vrana, joint holder of the world's fifty-yard dash record, will probably take part in the 100-meter international event. She is credited with 11 3-5s. for 100 yards, just 2-5 seconds from the world's record held jointly by Rosa Gross and Fanny Gruenfeld of Toronto. Nellie Doerschlag and Lillian Copeland are also fast in the century, but should make the team on other merits.

The only possible Olympic contender from the Pasadena squad in the grueling 800-meter grind is Rayma Wilson, who after a few months of training has equaled the world's record of 2:36 for that event, according to Mrs. Allen. However, her performance in the Coliseum June 16 will tell the tale.

In the discus throw, Lillian Copeland stands ahead of Sara Isber, a newcomer, who has done consistently around 85 and 90 feet. If she can throw it 94 feet, she will make the international team, as few American contenders equal that mark.

LOUGHRAN FAVORS MANDELL TO KEEP TITLE IN M'LARNIN GO

BY TOMMY LOUGHRAN
Light-Heavyweight Champion of the World

(Copyright, 1928, in all countries by North American Newspaper Alliance.)

NEW YORK, May 8.—Next week the first championship fight of the outdoor season will take place when Sammy Mandell and Jimmy McLarnin meet for the lightweight title now in Sam's possession. McLarnin started as a bantamweight and grew through the classes, getting more successful every year. Most of his fights were on the Pacific Coast. He was pretty nearly an unknown in New York when he was matched with Sid Terris.

Terris had lost a bit of his great speed and run into some husky thumps, but he was still regarded as the best man of his weight in the East. Though McLarnin was recognized as a hard hitter, most of the experts figured Sid would keep the pace too fast for him.

What happened?

The baby-faced Irishman knocked the Jewel of the Ghetto out in one round. It turned him from an unknown into a ring idol overnight. It won him the championship shot with Mandell, and for a while the fans around New York talked about what he would do to the champion when he got him into the ring.

THINK IT OVER

They've begun to think things over since then. I hear the odds are 8 to 5, with Sammy the favorite. This is perfectly sensible. There's a saying about stringing along with the champion if you want to win. The finish comes for everyone, of course, but a champion has proved himself or he wouldn't be where he is. The challenger is usually in the to-be-proved class.

I've seen Mandell fight a number of times. He's a good man, a darned good one. He can box and hit, has lots of speed, and is game as a pebble. Don't forget he fought Terris twice when Sid was at the peak of his speed. Once he beat Sid and the other time it was called a draw.

With a break of luck, Sammy would have won the lightweight elimination tournament staged after Benny Leonard retired. He was winning easily from Jimmy Goodrich when he accidentally struck a low blow, and lost on a foul. So he had to wait until Goodrich lost to Rocky Kansas before getting a shot at the title, and winning it.

It looks as if Bruce Flowers would be challenging the winner of this bout between Mandell and McLarnin, and with every right on his side. He has been winning steadily, and when he knocked out Stanislaus Loyaza he took a place right close to the head of the parade. Flowers is a good boxer and a sharp hitter. He followed the excellent plan of fighting anyone and everyone until he had established his position among the lightweights.

OPPORTUNITY COMES

If he doesn't get his chance this year he is certain to next, for no one has come along faster among the little fellows. He is really the first outstanding negro lightweight since the Old Master, Joe Gans, passed out of the picture.

However, it was McLarnin who stirred up the first real interest the class has had in some time. If he should happen to beat Mandell he would make a very popular and no doubt a capable fighting champion.

BUSINESS SHYSTER FLAYED AS CHAMBER CONVENES

Opening National Session Applauds Plea That Industry Purge Self of Unscrupulous

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP)—After keynote addresses on teamwork between business, labor, agriculture and government as a basis for prosperity, the 2000 business men attending the sixteenth annual meeting of the United States Chamber of Commerce here launched today into their three-day discussion of foreign trade, power, transportation and other economic problems.

The opening general session received with an ovation an appeal made by Judge Parker, chairman of the German - American Mixed Claims Commission, that American business "put the ban of outlawry upon those who have a contempt for the public interest," just as the legal profession disbars "shysters."

DRUNK WITH POWER

"The recent conspicuous examples of individuals, prominent in business," he said, "becoming intoxicated with power and involved in transactions tainted with fraud and corruption, and violating every principle of sound business conduct, have made it essential that the stockholders in the companies of such men publicly repudiate their offending representatives."

He argued that only such "organized self-regulation of business" can save it from governmental intervention and legislative restriction.

"Business, which lately has been defined as 'the oldest of the arts and the newest of the professions,' must, in order to maintain its professional status and to reap the unquestioned advantages of group action, scrupulously discharge its group responsibilities."

PLEADS FOR CURB

Among these he placed first the curbing of ruthless and selfish initiative "in the public interest and in the interest of legitimate business."

"The present concern of business is to cast the beam out of its own eye; to purge itself of those corrupters of public servants whose moral turpitude in making possible the betrayal of a public trust is even greater than that of those whom they would debauch; and to put the ban of outlawry upon those who have a contempt for the public interest, those who have a contempt for the government that affords protection to them and to their property, and those who have a contempt for our institutions of justice."

Not only the principal offenders, but those whom the speaker placed in the "twilight zone between acts which are illegal and criminal on the one hand and acts which are simply unmoral on the other," came under his denunciation. He branded these as "social outlaws."

CONSCIENCE DORMANT

"We are here concerned in awakening the seemingly dormant business consciences of many of the stockholders of corporations, who, through nonaction, impliedly place the seal of their approval on the acts of their offending agents," he declared, adding:

"All such owe it to themselves, to the profession of business, and to the government, publicly to repudiate those who misrepresent them. They cannot accept the profits flowing from corruption and escape the moral stigma which inheres in such profits. Neither can they permit those who act for them personally, to profit through corrupt corporate transactions or shield others who do."

Turning to unemployment, he said it is up to business to find work for those released through mechanical improvements and seasonal industries.

"Business," he added, "cannot stop to contemplate with satisfaction the products of its invention, but must press forward to provide employment for the victims of its invention. Irregularity in employment is another serious problem, one which calls for a maximum of teamwork between business and labor."

FOREIGN TRADE NEEDS

Addressing the foreign trade group meeting, former Secretary of Commerce Redfield urged American export producers to adapt their products to the needs and tastes of foreign markets, and Dr. Julius Klein, director of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, forecast the increased development of large buying and selling combines such as the international "cartels" now so prominent in Europe.

Opposing measures now before Congress that "would put the government into the electric light and power business," speakers before the group meeting on natural resources attributed the "huge development" of the industry from 1920 to 1928 solely to the confidence and support of the American investigating public.

CAPITAL DOUBLED

The fixed capital of the industry increased during that period from $4,000,000,000 to $8,000,000,000, said R. E. Norton, vice-president of the C. H. Geist Securities Corporation of Philadelphia, as a result of the investor's "belief in the integrity and the future of power and light development."

All efforts toward government intervention in the industry were classed as Socialistic by R. F. Pace, vice-president and general manager of the Northern States Power Company, Minneapolis.

Addressing the transportation group meeting, Samuel Dunn, editor of the Railway Age, predicted that American railway service within a few years will become thoroughly inadequate and unsatisfactory unless Interstate Commerce Commission regulations are altered to permit at least 5 3-4 per cent earnings on valuation, instead of only 4 2-3 per cent, as at present.

Ensign Jailed in Panama Riot

PANAMA, May 8. (AP)—Ensign Frank J. Donohue, a native of Milwaukee, attached to the United States cruiser Rochester, has been sentenced by a police magistrate to serve sixty days in the Panama Jail by a police magistrate following a fight.

The story was told that Donohue had resisted the efforts of a policeman to make him pay a fare demanded by a "jitney" driver.

J. J. Wazenics, a sailor of the United States navy boat Nitro, who was stabbed during the riot the argument precipitated, is alive today but his case is believed hopeless. Others injured in the affair are said to be out of danger.

AIR RECORD HOLDER OFF TO MEXICO CITY

MEXICALI (Mex.) May 8. (AP)—Capt. Luis Farrel, Mexican army flyer, left here early this morning on a three-stop flight to Mexico City in a Tia Juana-built monoplane. Farrell is the only pilot ever to have successfully completed a flight from Mexico City to Mexicali.

FEDERAL TRADE BALANCE GAINS

Contiguous Countries Show Buying Increase

South American Purchases Reach New Peak

National Automobile Export Totals Mount

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP)—Increased buying of United States products by neighboring countries such as Canada, Mexico and Cuba was noted today in Commerce Department figures for March.

North American countries increased their purchases from the United States during the month by about $9,000,000 over March last year.

March exports to Great Britain were $70,527,168 against $72,790,651 in the same month a year ago. During the same month Great Britain sold goods worth $32,945,322 to the United States against $33,860,154 in the same month of 1927.

EUROPEAN TRADE

Exports to Germany were $35,058,022 against $36,984,836, while imwere $12,292,499 against $14,067,279 against $16,386,004. Exports to France were $18,693,049 against $17,268,982, whereas imports from France were $12,292,499 against $14,067,025.

March figures again demonstrated the capacity of Canada to displace Great Britain from its traditional place as the best customer of the United States, since March exports to Canada were $73,013,384 against $65,944,841 last year. The exports to Canada for two months have now been greater than those to any other country.

AUTO EXPORTS GROW

Incident to the figures, the Commerce Department noted that the growth of American automobile exports is setting new records with each month. This country exported in March 40,181 passenger cars, and the total value of all automotive products was $49,954,163. This was about 26 per cent more than the value of the same products shipped during March, 1927.

For the first quarter of 1928 automobiles and trucks shipped abroad numbered 115,986, or nearly 18 per cent more than during the same quarter last year, while the shipment of all automobile products was valued at $118,547,682 as compared with $102,125,528 in the same quarter of 1927.

Canada, Argentina, Australia and Belgium in the order named were the best market for American automobiles, although Brazil and British Africa were leading markets for American trucks. The change in the character of the trade noted has resulted in Sweden becoming a very important market for American passenger machines.

A railroad just opened between Manizales and Buenaventura, Colombia, is giving the first rail communication between Manizales and the Pacific port.

INDIAN GIFT APPEAL SUIT DISMISSED

Baptist Society's Fight for Barnett Donation Lost in Federal Court

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—The appeal of the American Baptist Home Mission Society from the decision of Federal Judge Knox setting aside a gift of $550,000 to the society by Jackson Barnett, aged Indian, was dismissed by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals today.

The appellate court entered an order of dismissal because the Equitable Trust Company, which had been made a trustee in connection with the gift and was a party defendant in the government suit to set aside, failed to join in the appeal and the time limit for taking such action had expired.

Barnett, who lived in extreme poverty until oil found on his reservation land made him a millionaire, made the gift with the approval of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, but the government sued to set aside on the ground that Barnett was not competent.

Chief of Police Ordered to Jail

EL PASO, May 8. (AP)—Chief of Police Tom Armstrong was held in contempt of court today by District Judge W. D. Howe, who sentenced him to serve two days in jail and pay a fine of $100. Charges against the official grew out of his failure to deliver to Los Angeles authorities two prisoners and $9000 found in their possession.

Armstrong was relieved from duty pending outcome of an appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals for a writ of habeas corpus.

The prisoners, Eugene Brignola and William Cardone, with Mrs. Cardone, who later was released, were arrested on a charge of swindling A. Cucio of Los Angeles out of $11,000. All of the money was found in their possession and the court ordered the money and prisoners returned to officials in Los Angeles.

Brazil Sticks to Resignation from League

GENEVA, May 8. (AP)—Brazil has declined a recent invitation of the League of Nations to cancel her resignation, which shortly will go into effect.

In an answer made public today Brazil proposes collaboration with the League and says that if in the future she finds it possible to return she will have ground for rejoicing.

FORD RETURNS FROM ENGLAND

Believes Business Will Stay Good Despite Election

Admires British Because They Let Him Alone

Leads Ship Square Dances; Tips Blow to Stewards

NEW YORK, May 8. (Exclusive) Henry Ford returned today on the White Star liner Majestic after a three-weeks visit in England, with the statement that he thought business for the whole country would continue to be good despite the fact that this was a Presidential year.

He attempted to avoid saying anything at all and only the good offices of a secretary finally succeeded in winning an audience for a solitary reporter who had to act as spokesman for all. On the voyage over he mixed with the passengers, leading them in square dances in the social hall and chatting with all he knew or met. But when he saw reporters and photographers waiting for him near his suite, the most expensive on the ship, he lost his democratic bearing.

He even said he found the English people charming because "we were not disturbed there at all—came and went as we felt like it, for the English are gentlemen."

TIPS DISAPPOINTING

The stewards of the ship joined with the passengers in calling Mr. Ford democratic, but they found difficulty in believing that he is reputedly the world's richest man. When it came time for them to get the tips that passengers give, each one was sadly disappointed over the amount he received. From the bedroom steward to the men who served him in the Ritz restaurant—he did not eat the food served all passengers—all were dissatisfied.

The only excitement Mr. Ford showed during his interview was when he discussed aviation. He feels the industry is but in its childhood and that the future will produce machines as yet undreamed of.

He said:

"We, who are working at this thing will yet build a machine which will equal manufacturers' imaginations; we have only begun on aviation. Yes, sir, we have only begun. Whenever man imagines a thing he can sooner or later produce it. That's what I think. It will be an airplane that won't have to go ninety miles an hour to rise or the same to land. It will settle down quietly and in a small space and it won't be dangerous. It will come but, of course, there will have to be a lot of changes. We may not be near the idea yet, but it will come."

When asked if Charles Lindbergh is to be taken into the Ford airplane business, Mr. Ford said that information on that would have to come from his son, Edsel. He also was silent regarding the rumor that Prof. Hugo Junkers of Germany, designer of the trans-Atlantic Bremen, was to join forces with Ford.

LEADS SQUARE DANCES

The automobile manufacturer said the sale of his cars was going ahead in Europe, but he was not supplied with figures to go into detail regarding the growth of trade over there. When asked about his attempt to regain the English business he has lost, Mr. Ford said:

"I am well enough pleased with what is happening there."

Regarding general business conditions he said:

"Business prospects are all right. I feel cocksure about it. Yes, sir, I feel cocksure about it. I am sure that the Presidential election has nothing whatever to do with business. Business will keep on being good in spite of the elections."

Mr. Ford is still in favor of Hoover for the Republican nomination and seemed rather proud of the fact that he was one of the first to suggest the Cabinet member as a candidate for the Presidency.

The social life on the dance floor on the Majestic, was revolutionized by Mr. and Mrs. Ford, who insisted, as they did on the way across, on having plenty of square dances. Mr. Ford never missed any of them and frequently led them. Only once, according to a lounge steward, did he attempt the fox-trot and then it was with Mrs. G. G. Coolidge.

The Fords stopped overnight at the Ritz Hotel and expected to leave for Detroit tomorrow.

TIN PLATE KING HELD DRUG USER

Assertion Made in Suit by Lawyers for Reid

Multimillionaire Revealed as Fighting Habit

Last Years Overshadowed by Narcotic Ills

NEW YORK, May 8. (Exclusive) That Daniel G. Reid, the "tin-plate king" and pioneer in the field of America's present-day monopolies, was a drug addict during the last four or five years of his life, is indicated in a suit filed here which came to light only today.

WORTH $40,000

The financier, whose wealth at one time was estimated at $40,000,000, became a slave to a narcotic during his later years and spent large sums in an effort to cure himself of the habit, to which his eccentricities, during the five years preceding his death, which puzzled and at times alarmed his friends and Wall street associates now are attributed, according to papers in the action filed against the executors of Reid's estate—his daughter, Mrs. Rhea Reid Topping, and Roberts Walker.

The founder of the American Can Company and chairman of its board of directors, spent much of his time in his declining years in a sanatorium and under the care of physicians for the morphine habit, it is charged.

In the action, Charles S. Thornton, former corporation counsel of Chicago and his law partner, Justus Chancellor and Justus Chancellor, Jr., once attorneys for Reid, are seeking $35,560.44 with interest from January 2, 1923, from his estate. This money is due them, they declare, for professional and personal services in Reid's behalf for the period beginning on April 2, 1922, to the above date.

DETAIL SERVICES

These services consisted mainly, they assert, in caring for the financier at the instance of Dr. J. Gordon Bonine of Cassopolis, Mich., after the capitalist became a drug addict, in getting him into the Phipps Sanatorium, in Baltimore, with the aid of the late Senator H. A. Du Pont of Delaware, and for arranging for his care subsequently in a private home in Cleveland, O.

After Reid's death on January 18, 1925, here, the Chicago lawyers filed their claim against the estate. It was rejected by the executors and the suit resulted.

REPUBLICANS DEFEND TAXES

Democratic Onslaught Fails to Slash Schedule

Senate Passes Bill Which Almost Frees Theaters

Operas and Expensive Shows Must Continue to Pay

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP)—Senate Republicans successfully defended their $200,000,000 tax-reduction plan today against the opening attack of Democrats for larger reductions in line with their $325,000,000 program.

On almost straight party divisions the Republicans restored the 10 per cent club dues tax to the revenue bill which the House had voted to cut in half and which the Democrats sought first to cut in half and then to repeal. On another party line-up the proposal of Democrats to repeal the 10 per cent admission tax was rejected in favor of the Republican plan to increase the exemption from the tax from 75 cents admissions to those of $3 and less.

INCREASES FEARED

The Republican victories, which were regarded as test votes on the Republican $200,000,000 plan and the Democratic $325,000,000 program, came soon after it was learned that President Coolidge believes that unless Congress slows up on its appropriations an increase rather than a reduction in taxes will be necessary.

The President regards as appalling the number of proposals calling for special drains on the Treasury. He has noted two items in particular, one calling for an increase in pay to postal employees and another for a reduction in postal rates. It was said both bills, if enacted, would cost the Treasury $58,000,000 in addition to the regular postoffice deficit.

The $200,000,000 limitation on tax reduction has been declared necessary by the Treasury, which complained of the $290,000,000 measure passed by the House. Democrats, however, insist in view of past mistakes made by the Treasury in estimates that a larger reduction can be made, pointing to the $400,000,000 estimated for this year by the administration.

TIE FORCES ACTION

Republicans have only a majority of one in the Senate and today on the first roll call on repeal of the admission tax, proposed by Senator Simmons of North Carolina, ranking Democrat in the Finance Committee, a tie vote of 40 to 40 resulted. Because Vice-President Dawes declared the amendment lost without casting his vote, another roll call was taken and the Republicans defeated the amendment, 42 to 39.

Senator Bruce of Maryland was the only Democrat who bolted party ranks today on the admission-tax and club-dues proposals. Senator Steiwer, Republican, Oregon, was the only member of his party who voted with the Democrats against restoration of the 10 per cent club-dues levy. Senator McNary of Oregon left the Republicans to vote with the Democrats for repeal of the admission tax, but on the second roll call voted with his party.

WESTERN REPUBLICANS FIRM

Western Republican independents, who have declared against any tax reduction, lined up solidly with their party in favor of the minimum reduction, and if the Republican ranks hold intact, leaders are confident of holding the $200,000,000 program in the bill.

The House voted to increase the exemption on the admission tax from 75 cents to tickets of $1 and less, but the Senate's action today removes the tax from all admissions of $3 and under. Approval also was given to increasing to 25 per cent the levy on prize-fight admissions, which the House voted. This increase in exemption was estimated to mean a loss of $17,000,000 in revenue.

SPOKEN DRAMA FREED

Democrats pointed out that complete repeal of the tax except on admissions to prize fights would cost the government only $1,000,000 in revenue annually. Senator Smoot, chairman of the Finance Committee and leader of the Republican forces, said he favored the $3 exemption to aid the spoken drama, but he said there was no reason why the tax should not apply on tickets of more than $3 because it would affect only those going to the grand opera and similar performances.

Senator Simmons fought hard for both complete repeal of the admission tax and retention of the House reduction of 5 per cent in the levy on club dues. Senator Barkley, Democrat, of Kentucky, moved to repeal the club dues tax after the Senate had voted to increase the rate from 5 to 10 per cent. His motion lost, 40 to 33. The increase from 5 to 10 per cent was voted, 38 to 35.

Tomorrow the Senate expects to act on the other rate provisions of the bill with the fight centering on the corporation tax, which the Republicans would cut from 13 1-2 per cent to 12 1-2 per cent. Democrats will seek an 11 per cent rate, and, if defeated on that, an 11 1-2 per cent rate as voted by the House.

Five Trapped as Car Overturns

TONOPAH (Nev.) May 8. (AP)—A party of five women returning to their homes here from Las Vegas, where they had attended a lodge meeting, narrowly escaped serious injury when the automobile in which they were riding left the highway five miles south of Beatty, Nev., and capsized.

The driver, Mrs. Clori Spiers, and her guests, Mrs. Hugh McCloske, Mrs. James E. Marten, Mrs. W. A. Kervin and Mrs. Anna West, were held in the overturned car until passing motorists released them. They escaped with a few bruises.

BODY OF MISSING REDDING MAN FOUND

REDDING, May 8. (AP)—The mystery of the disappearance of Clarence Kelly two weeks ago was solved today with the finding of his body near Montgomery Creek, eight miles from his home. What appeared to be bullet and knife wounds in the body led the authorities to believe that Kelly had been slain.

ROAD FUND BILL WINS IN SENATE

Colton Measure Carrying $2,000,000 for California Ready to be Signed

WASHINGTON, May 8. (Exclusive)—The Senate today passed the Colton bill, sent over from the House, authorizing appropriation of $14,000,000 in three equal yearly installments for construction of links in major Federal-aid highways through "unappropriated or unreserved public lands, nontaxable Indian lands, or other Federal reservations."

The authorization is supplemental to the national forest highway appropriation and is more flexible, in that the latter applies only to forest reserves.

Virtually all the $14,000,000 will be spent in California, Nevada, and the other so-called "public-land States" of the West. California, which has the most public domain of any State, stands to receive approximately $2,000,000 of the appropriation.

The roads are to be constructed under the direction of the Federal Bureau of Roads.

The program is said to have the approval of the President and the Budget Bureau and it is expected the actual appropriations will be authorized in a deficiency bill prior to spring adjournment of Congress, so that the first $3,500,000 will be made available for the fiscal year, starting July 1.

NEW MATE NAMED AS KIDNAPER

First Husband of Indian Heiress Sues Successor in Marital Status

TULSA (Okla.) May 8. (AP)—Kidnaping charges have been lodged by Earl E. Gordon of Tulsa, former husband of Maude Lee Mudd, wealthy Indian girl, against her new husband, Joe Wilson and three other Miami (Okla.) persons, it was revealed here today.

Gordon's complaint names Wilson, his parents, Vic Wilson and Edith Wilson, and Charles Wilson. It alleges that the Wilsons abducted the girl, February 12, 1927, and took her out of Oklahoma.

The charges are virtually the same as those brought by Gordon in Kansas last year, on which efforts at extradition were unsuccessful.

Maude Lee Mudd eloped to Council Bluffs, Iowa, in June, 1925, with Gordon, then a Miami automobile salesman. She obtained an annulment of this marriage in Florence, Ariz., May 12, 1927, and married Wilson in July of the same year.

While on her honeymoon with Gordon in California Maude Lee fled, leaving him waiting for her in a theater. She later said she hurried back to her mother in Oklahoma.

Maude Lee's wealth, which is lead and zinc property, has been estimated at $3,000,000.

International Conference on Cancer Called

LONDON, May 8. (Exclusive)—The international conference on cancer will be convened here on July 16 and will remain in session four days.

Doctors, surgeons, pathologists and radiologists from all branches of medicine dealing with cancer will attend, while the British Royal Society and all the principal universities and medical schools and scientific bodies in this country have already selected delegates.

The Duke of York, president of the British Empire cancer campaign, and the Duchess of York will receive all the delegates at a reception at Lancaster House on July 16.

Cashier Forced to Help Bandits

ANGOLA (Ind.) May 8. (AP)—The First National Bank here was robbed of $15,000 today by five men who escaped in a touring car.

The robbers appeared at the home of E. S. Cruxton, the bank president, about 3 a.m. They bound his wife and then escorted Cruxton to the bank and forced him to open the door. The robbers then sought to have him open the bank vault, but he convinced them of his inability to do this.

The bandits and their victim then waited in the bank until 8 o'clock when the cashier arrived. They forced him to open the vault.

HARDWARE SALESMAN KILLED WITH RIFLE

NOGALES (Ariz.) May 8. (AP)—The asserted accidental discharge of a rifle killed J. T. Heins of Phoenix, traveling agent for a St. Louis hardware company, late today as he was removing the gun from the rear of his automobile in a storage garage.

SPEAKER HEARS PLEAS FOR DAM

Swing Herds Thirty Into House Conference

Chamber Leaders Offer No Assurance of Action

Observers Believe Hope for This Session Dead

WASHINGTON, May 8. (Exclusive)—Representative Phil D. Swing of El Centro, this afternoon rounded up approximately thirty members of the House, including most of the members of the California delegation, and herded them into the Speaker's office for a group appeal to Speaker Longworth and Representative Tilson of Connecticut, Republican floor leader, for House action on the Swing-Johnson Boulder Dam bill.

There was no definite result, and after the conference was over there was just as much reason to doubt, as before, that the Boulder Dam measure ever will reach the floor of the House at this session of Congress.

Newspaper correspondents were barred from the Speaker's private office where the meeting took place but Swing and other spokesmen for the Boulder Dam group and Longworth and Tilson all agreed afterward as to what occurred. The common statement was that Longworth and Tilson listened attentively to the arguments advanced for speedy action on the Boulder Dam project and denied there was any concerted, determined effort on the part of House leaders to prevent passage of the bill, but gave no promises or assurances of any kind as to when the legislation may be allowed to come before the House.

PROGRAM CROWDED

"This really is the first opportunity we have had to consider Boulder Dam," Speaker Longworth said he told the group of Representatives, adding that the legislative program up to date has been crowded with matters demanding attention ahead of the Colorado River bill.

Tilson told correspondents after the meeting that he had stated at the conference that there was no possibility of the Swing-Johnson bill being taken up until the emergency officers' retirement measure and reapportionment have been disposed of. The first of these is scheduled to come up Thursday and probably will take the rest of the week.

Representative Snell of New York, chairman of the Rules Committee, which thus far has refused to grant a rule for consideration of Boulder Dam, was conspicuous at the conference in the Speaker's office today by his absence. It was Snell who yesterday suggested to Swing and other proponents of the legislation that they see Longworth, Tilson and the House Steering Committee and make them assume "some of the responsibility" for the fate of the Boulder Dam bill.

MIRACLE NEEDED

With adjournment of Congress now pretty definitely set for the 26th inst., only a miracle such as seldom happens on Capitol Hill can bring about complete passage of the Swing-Johnson bill this session. It may possibly pass the Senate, or it may possibly pass the House, but hardly anyone, even among those chiefly interested in its enactment, now feels there is anything but a frail chance that it can pass both houses. The indications are it will not get to a final vote in the Senate and not even be taken up to the House.

Other Congressmen who accompanied Representative Swing to the Speaker's office today included Arentz of Nevada, Taylor of Colorado, Morrow of New Mexico, Free of California, Evans of California, Welch of California, Dallinger of Massachusetts, Kelly of Pennsylvania, Dickinson of Iowa, Allen and Reid of Illinois, Howard of Oklahoma, Robison of Kentucky, Langley of Kentucky, Garner of Texas, Smith of Idaho, Lankford of Georgia, White of Colorado, Guyer of Kansas, Crail of California, Summers of Washington, Beedy of Maine, McClintic of Oklahoma, Hawley of Oregon, Hadley of Washington, Rathbone of Illinois and Simmons of Nebraska.

Swing left it to two Democrats—Garner of Texas and Taylor of Colorado—to make the principal statements for the Boulder Dam bill. Smith of Idaho, chairman of the Irrigation Committee, Swing and Arentz also argued for consideration of the bill.

Norbeck Renews Hoover Attack

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP)—Assailing Herbert Hoover again today, Senator Norbeck, Republican, of South Dakota, declared in the Senate that the Secretary of Commerce "has given notice to Congress and to the farmers that if he is elected President they need not apply to him."

Norbeck, who has been outspoken in his opposition to Hoover's candidacy, had read a telegram from the Cabinet officer to John Brown of Nonon, Ind., stating that he favors farm-relief legislation along lines advocated by President Coolidge, but expressing opposition to any measure calling for government price fixing or sale of farm commodities.

Norbeck contended that Hoover's statement is positive as to the many things he does not want and is vague as to what he favors."

RUPERT HUGHES ATTACKS STAMP SHOWING WASHINGTON PRAYING

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—The New York World today quotes Rupert Hughes, Washington biographer, as protesting against a stamp showing the first President kneeling in prayer in the snow at Valley Forge. Such an issue of 2-cent stamps goes on sale the 26th inst. in commemoration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the wintering of Washington's army at Valley Forge.

"While I was not at Valley Forge with Washington," Hughes wired from Hollywood, "and cannot disprove the fable that, instead of praying decently in his own hut, he went out and shouted aloud in the snowy wood lot, there is no proof that Isaac Potts, who started the tale, was there either."

Hughes asserted the story is discredited by all critical historians and "reflects both on Washington and the power of prayer, because heaven certainly never relented toward the pitiful sufferers."

FLOOD CONTROL BILL SAFE

House Adopts Amended Measure, Senate in Line; Best Congress Can Do, Says Coolidge

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP)—The Mississippi flood-control bill neared the end of its legislative journey today with adoption by the House of the conference report smoothing out differences with the Senate.

One last lap remains before the measure goes to the White House—adoption of the report by the Senate. That is expected to come tomorrow and President Coolidge soon afterward will have on his desk the bill with which he and Congress have struggled for many months.

NOT GOOD BUT PASSABLE

It developed today that the President regards the measure as not completely satisfactory but he believes it is the best that can be obtained from Congress.

The conference report as approved by the House effected a number of changes in the bill to meet specific objections raised by the President. These differences were ironed out yesterday at a White House meeting and the conference report then was revised.

REID'S WORK DONE

Chairman Reid of the Flood-Control Committee, who has piloted the measure through its stormy legislative voyage in the House, encountered no difficulty today in obtaining approval of the agreement. About fifteen minutes were spent discussing the recently effected changes and two members—Representatives Garrett of Tennessee, the Democratic leader, and Denison of Illinois, a Republican—expressed some dissatisfaction with two provisions affecting the sections of their respective States.

Representative Frear of Wisconsin, a Republican on the Flood-Control Committee, who vigorously fought the bill during its initial consideration by the House, said that he approved the revisions and now regarded the bill as "very satisfactory."

Reid answered a few questions from other members and then moved the adoption of the report. The motion carried without a dissenting vote.

OPPONENTS SILENCED

House Republican leaders, who vigorously but unsuccessfully strove to prevent original passage of the bill until it had been revised to meet Mr. Coolidge's objections, took no part in the proceedings and thereby indicated that they were satisfied with the changes as agreed upon.

In view of the recent White House conference there was practical unanimity of opinion among House members that the President would sign the bill after Senate action.

SUSPECT IN ROBBERY OF TRAIN SLAIN

Police Believe Gangster Found Dead by Car Killed by Pals in Hold-up

CHICAGO, May 8. (AP)—Willie Jackson, 28 years of age, sought by police and Federal authorities as a suspect in the recent Evergreen Park train robbery, was found shot to death beside a new automobile early today. His identity was established by fingerprint experts.

There were no marks of identification on the body, and police at first believed him to be a victim of a bootlegging feud. His car carried a New York State registration plate.

Three members of the train-robbery gang now are awaiting trial and the authorities are of the opinion that Jackson may have been slain for not playing square with the gang.

Charles Cleaver, at whose home part of the plunder of the $133,000 train robbery was found, and William Donovan and Frank Meccia were indicted for the robbery and are in custody. Jackson was indicted, as was Virgil Litsinger, still at large. The police started a new search for Litsinger.

Jackson was shot through the back of the head. Police believe he fled to New York with his share of the robbery, later returning here only to be slain by members of his own gang.

Aerial Record Try Abandoned

LEBOURGET (France) May 8. (AP)—The Arrachart brothers, Ludovic and Paul, who took off at 6:30 a.m. today in an attempt to establish a world duration flight record, landed at 6:49 this evening, after twelve hours and nineteen minutes in the air. After being in the air twelve hours they dropped a note stying that there was a high wind and that conditions were bumpy. On landing they said that weather conditions had been growing more and more unfavorable.

NAVY MEN URGE SAN DIEGO WORK

Admirals Tell Committee of Appropriation Need

Housing for 200 Planes at Station Necessary

Docking for 117 Destroyers Also Held Important

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP)—The House Naval Committee continued today with its consideration of a bill proposing improvements at the San Diego naval station and at the Puget Sound navy yard.

Rear-Admiral Luther E. Gregory, chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks, testified in favor of the expenditure of $425,000 to provide docking facilities for small craft, particularly seventy-eight destroyers now in decommissioned staus at San Diego. He said that in addition there were thirty-nine destroyers in commission docked at the station and that additional facilities were needed.

Rear-Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics, urged appropriation of $130,000 for metal aircraft structures and a shop and another appropriation of $275,000 to provide seven land-plane hangars. He said that facilities for housing land planes at San Diego are inadequate and that it has been necessary during air concentrations to leave some planes in the open.

Admiral Moffett added that with the increased number of planes now operating with the fleet there would be an increase in the number of naval aviators stationed at San Diego and it was possible during prospective maneuvers that as many as 200 planes might be in San Diego at one time. He did not go into the discussion, however, of prospective maneuvers.

Both he and Admiral Gregory also urged appropriation of $150,000 to provide a gymnasium and welfare building for the station. Admiral Gregory likewise urged appropriation of $1,310,000 for accessories and a crane at Pier No. 6 at Puget Sound navy yard and further appropriations of $100,000 for an equipment house and $125,000 for a paint and oil storage house. He urged that these expenditures were necessary for the station.

FRUIT-BASKET BILL PASSES TO SENATE

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP)—The Perkins bill to fix standard sizes for fruit and vegetable baskets and hampers has been approved by the House and sent to the Senate.

House Approves Aviators' Bill

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP)—A bill which was indorsed by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh—the Furlow measure to create a separate promotion list for the Army Air Corps flying officers—was passed by the House yesterday and sent to the Senate.

Without debate or a record vote the measure was adopted in only a few minutes, although considerable controversy has raged about it in and out of army circles. The lack of a separate list was one of the chief criticisms of the Army Air Service voiced by Col. William Mitchell, former assistant chief of air service.

Ship Bill Goes to Conference

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP)—After studying the House changes made in its government ownership shipping bill, the Senate Commerce Committee today decided to ask for a conference between the Senate and House to work out the differences.

Upon receipt of the shipping bill from the House the Senate ordered it sent to conference. Senators Jones, Washington; McNary, Oregon; Johnson, California, Republicans, and Fletcher, Florida, and Ransdell, Louisiana, Democrats, were named conferees.

NEW GOODYEAR STOCK LAUDED

Exchanges All Handle It, Secretary Says

Plaintiff Rests Case in Refinancing Suit

Issue May Go Up to Court This Afternoon

CLEVELAND, May 8. (Exclusive) The present financial strength of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company as a result of a reorganization last year is evidenced by the fact that its first preferred and common stock is handled by every major stock exchange in the United States, Frederick A. Wahl, assistant secretary of the company, testified today in Common Pleas Court.

Wahl, the only witness called thus far in the suit brought by Kent P. Johnson, Kenton, O., a minority stockholder, to enjoin completion of the refinancing plan, was on the witness stand all day and will be called again tomorrow morning.

ALL OVER WORLD

Under questioning by Attorney Joseph C. Hostetter, who with Attorney Newton D. Baker is representing the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, Wahl said that "preferred stock of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company (of the new issue) is all over the world."

"What are some of the stock exchanges that handle Goodyear first preferred and common?" Hostetter asked.

"They are handled by stock exchanges in New York, Cleveland, Cincinnati and other cities," Wahl replied.

"Are there any important stock exchanges that do not deal in Goodyear stock?"

"There is no major exchange in the country which does not deal in Goodyear first preferred and common."

Wahl testified that 96.3 per cent of the old preferred stock had been exchanged for the new issue under the refinancing plan of last year.

This is the same refinancing plan that plaintiffs in the present suit seek to have made void.

PLAINTIFF RESTS

Attorneys Robert H. Roehm and John A. Cline of Cleveland and Smith W. Bennett of Columbus, representing Johnson, rested their case at noon today and Wahl remained on the stand as a defense witness.

It is believed the case will be in the hands of Common Pleas Judge Will P. Stevenson, assigned here from West Union, O., for decision late tomorrow afternoon.

Roehm said he is relying on the defense to prove the contention set forth in the plantiff's petition.

The minority stockholders' suit charges that directors of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company arranged the new financing plan to escape making cash payments on $16,000,000 of accrued dividends on the old preferred stock which has been replaced by the new.

Five Indicted in Mail Fraud

PORTLAND (Or.) May 8. (AP)—Charged with using the mails to defraud through mine-stock selling, five men have been indicted by the Federal grand jury here. Following arrest of Dr. H. P. Collins at Phoenix, Ariz., Federal officers today divulged the names of other men involved in the case. They are:

W. C. Gunther, president of King's Food Products Company; E. R. Anderson of Vancouver, Wash.; A. E. Downing, civil engineer; William O. Ruess of Bunker Hill, Ariz., and Dr. Collins. Gunther, Anderson and Downing were arrested today. Ruess is being sought by Federal officers.

The indictment charged that the promoters used an alluring circular promising wealth to investors who bought shares in a mine near Las Cruces, N. M., whose value was misrepresented. Asst. U. S. Dist.-Atty. Littlefield said that 200 individual sales of stock have been traced.

CALIFORNIA RANKED FIRST IN EDUCATION

SCHOOL COSTS HERE HIGHER THAN IN OTHER STATES, SAYS STATISTICIAN

BERKELEY, May 8. (Exclusive) While assembling data for the benefit of Mexican educators who have been visiting institutions of learning in the Bay District and now are en route to Southern California, Prof. Fletcher Harper Swift of the University of California, found that California leads the United States in the amount of money spent on the education of its students.

"In the year 1925-1926," said Prof. Swift, "California spent $176 for each pupil in average daily attendance; a larger expenditure per child than that of any other State in the Union. Wyoming and Nevada ranked next in this respect."

Prof. Swift also found that California is third in the amount of recompense paid its instructors. In this respect, he said:

"New York and the District of Columbia were the only two divisions of the Union paying teachers a higher annual salary, and the higher salary is more than offset by the higher cost of living in those places. California ranks first among all States in the salaries it pays teachers in rural communities."

SERVICES CONDUCTED IN FLYERS' MEMORY

ETRETAT, SEINE-INFERIEURE (France) May 8. Angelopolitano que Muere de Inanición en su Choza

KLAMATH FALLS (Oregon) 8 de Mayo.—Un grupo de rancheros de esta región encontró el domingo pasado el cuerpo de D. Goldberg, de Los Angeles, que pereció al parecer, de inanición, fuera de todo auxilio humano, en una pobre choza. Parece que Goldberg trató de ir a buscar viveres a un lugar habitado, en medio de una furiosa tempestad de nieve, pero sus pies se le enfriaron y no pudo proseguir. Se arrastró entonces hasta su choza, y semanas más tarde murió. Se encontraron dos cartas en que relataba lo que había sufrido.

Hughes Ataca la Idea del Sello que Representa a Washington, Orando en la Nieve

NUEVA YORK, 8 de Mayo.—El World de esta ciudad comenta las declaraciones de Ruperto Hughes, biógrafo de Washington, acerca del proyecto de publicar un sello con la efigie de Washington, en actitud de orar en la nieve, en Valley Forge. El sello se venderá en 2 centavos desde el 26 del corriente mes, en conmemoración del centésimo cincuénta aniversario de haber acampado su ejército en Valley Forge, en nivernada. "Aun cuando yo no estuve en Valley Forge con Washington", dice su biógrafo, desde Hollywood, "ni puedo probar que es falsa la fábula, creo firmemente que Washington no cometió la ridiculez de arrodillarse en la nieve para orar, sino que lo hizo, con toda seriedad y circunspección en el interior de alguna casa".

Prensa Amordazada en la Crisis Polaco-Rusa

VARSOVIA, 8 de Mayo.—Algunos periódicos de los principales han sido confiscados por la policia de Varsovia hoy, por imprimir informes sensacionales acerca del conflicto existente entre Polonia y Rusia, que podría traer consigo una seria ruptura de relaciones, entre ambas naciones. Polonia está haciendo desesperados esfuerzos para suavizar la tirantez de las relaciones actuales, causadas por un atentado contra el ministro de Rusia, llevado a cabo por uno de los fanáticos emigrados. El enviado ruso, señor Bogomolow escribe en una nota al gobierno polaco, que se han llevado a cabo tres atentados después de aquel que fué dirigido contra uno de sus antecesores. "Mi gobierno", dice, "informó a ustedes de la existencia de un hombre peligroso, en Junio de 1927. También dimos noticia de las actividades terroristas de organizaciones de Rusos Blancos, a las cuales pertenecia este individuo. El último atentado contra mi persona que sólo alcansó a herir a mi ayudante, prueba que el gobierno polaco no se ha preocupado en lo más mínimo en prevenir el mal, con ninguna medida enérgica. Los representantes diplomáticos de Rusia se sienten mal protegidos en sus personas, a pesar de que el gobierno sabe el peligro en que están. He pedido instrucciones a Moscú sobre este asunto y espero que remitan una segunda nota de protesta", añadió el Ministro.

Nueve Personas Ahogadas en un Canal

NUEVA ORLEANS, 8 de Mayo.—Nueve personas, todos miembros de dos familias, a quienes se había echado de menos desde el domingo, fueron encontradas hoy muertas en un canal del camino cerca de Ruddock, así como el automóvil en que habían salido de Hamand, Louisiana, en viaje de placer y que se volcó pereciendo todos ahogados. Los buzos que descubrieron los cuerpos prisioneros debajo del automóvil, hicieron una descripción horripilante de la situación en que se hallaban. Entre las personas que murieron de muerte tan horrorosa se hallaban algunos niños.

Brasil se Retira de la Liga de las Naciones

GINEBRA, 8 de Mayo.—Brasil acaba de declinar una invitación reciente para dejar sin efecto su renuncia como uno de los miembros de la Liga. En la respuesta dada por el gobierno del Brasil, que fué hecha pública hoy, recomienda que todo el mundo preste su colaboración a la Liga, y que espera, por su parte, estar pronto en actitud de poder regresar de nuevo al seno de ella apenas las circunstancias lo permitan.

Politico que se Liberta de sus Captores

CIUDAD DE MEJICO, 8 de Mayo.—En una gira politica el diputado Leopoldo Zincunegui Tercero fué capturado por un grupo de rebeldes católicos en Indaparapeo, Estado de Michoacán. Tuvo la fortuna de poder escapar de sus captores y se unió a un grupo de agraristas con los que atacó a los rebeldes, y los derrotó. En la escaramuza que hubo entre ambos grupos el secretario del comité local agrario, Leocadio Reyes, fué muerto.

New key-opened coffee can!

—with entirely new and different features

The key is embedded in a patented key-groove that protects it from loss in transit and enables you to grasp it easily and to remove it with two fingers.

The lid fits inside the top of the can. It is not necessary to span the can with the hand to pull off the lid. Simply place both thumbs under the edge of the lid and exert a slight lifting pressure—the lid will open easily.

M·J·B Coffee is now packed in a key-opened vacuum can. More important still, it is packed in an entirely new type of key-opened vacuum can with striking new features.

The new M·J·B key-opened vacuum can is entirely devoid of sharp or rough edges, insuring you against cutting your fingers.

The new M·J·B key-opened vacuum can has a tight cover that fits inside the body of the can, making an exceptionally tight seal to keep the coffee fresh after the can has been opened.

For some time, we have packed M·J·B Coffee by our own patented vacuum process adopted because of its overwhelming supremacy in producing the highest and most uniform vacuum commercially attainable. This process brings the coffee to your kitchen as fresh as the minute it was roasted. And now, better to preserve the coffee after you have opened the can, we have developed this key-can with a cover that can be replaced to make a tight seal.

M·J·B Coffee is blended of only the world's finest full-bodied coffees and has been known for years for its unquestioned superiority of flavor. It is characteristic of this flavor that it is always in the cup, whether you drink M·J·B mild, medium, or strong.

There are no rough edges anywhere on the M·J·B can to cut your fingers. Both the edge of the can and the edge of the lid are rolled into smooth surfaces. No matter how you grasp them or how hard you press or rub your fingers against them, there is nothing to cut or injure you. Most women will find this the greatest feature of all.

Because the lid fits inside the can, it is easily replaced. More important still, the new type of top makes a tight seal. This protects the coffee after the can has been opened and keeps it fresh to the last spoon-full.

JUDGE STUDIES WATER RIGHTS

New Legal Tangle Submitted in Kern County Court

Issue Involves Election of Canal Company Board

Los Angeles' Right to Own Stock Under Fire

BAKERSFIELD, May 8.—Legal smoke of battle has cleared, but neither side in the fight between Owens Valley residents and the city of Los Angeles knows at this time which has won the latest skirmish over water rights as Judge R. B. Lambert announced today that he will not make a ruling on the Owens Valley Canal Company demurrer for a week or ten days.

Los Angeles, in this action, is suing the Owens Valley Canal Company, asking a court order to call an election of directors. The canal company is reported to have refused to call such election and has demurred to the complaint of the city of Los Angeles power board.

Throughout the hearing here, attorneys representing Los Angeles and the canal company argued the merits of their legal theories and developed so many ramifications that Judge Lambert said he wishes to clarify the issues in his own mind before making his ruling.

It was asserted by Attorney W. J. Little, a young lawyer, who has led the fight in several water-rights battles, that Los Angeles has a controlling interest in the stock of the canal company. He argued his demurrer to the complaint of the city on the legal theory that a city has no right to own stock in a private company.

Attorney F. M. Borttorff, appearing for Los Angeles, interposed a defense to the demurrer based on the theory that the defendants have no right to raise the issue of a city's right to own stock in a private company; that the right to raise such an objection is invested in the State itself under which corporations are formed, and for which the State forms its own laws subject only to the question of the Attorney-General or taxpayers.

OPPOSITION TO WATER STORAGE REPORTED

BAKERSFIELD, May 8.—Believing that the sentiment of land owners in the area is generally unfavorable toward the Kern River Water Storage District project as it stands, the Kern County Land Company, with a controlling vote of 43 per cent in the district, also is opposed to the district, according to a reported statement by F. T. Elsey, vice-president of the land company with headquarters in San Francisco.

The statement was quoted at a meeting today of the storage district board of directors when a special committee, appointed last week to confer with officials of the land company, made its report. On the committee were Directors H. G. Hull, James Curran and G. W. Parrish.

Vice-President Elsey offered a suggestion, according to the report, that the present plan be abandoned and that the sections in the district now efficiently watered by canals remain as they are and that the district merely take over control of the canal system.

Defendants in Gin Club Case Deny Guilt

FRESNO, May 8.—Pleas of not guilty were entered in the Federal District Court today by six defendants indicted yesterday by the Federal grand jury on charges of conspiracy to violate the Volstead Act in connection with the asserted operation of Fresno's "Gin Club." Their trials were tentatively set for Thursday by Judge McCormick.

Defense requests for delay in the time for pleading and continuance of the date of the trial were denied by Judge McCormick. The defendants are A. G. Leverson, A. M. Springer, H. E. Boyle, Carl Appicello, Zone Kirkorian and Ralph Kirkorian.

Buckingham Palace Reception Lacks Regal Splendor of Old as 700 Meet Royal Pair

LONDON, May 8. (AP)—The first of a series of five courts was held in Buckingham Palace tonight and lacked something in the regal splendor which always is associated with these functions. In accordance with the custom of long-standing, the diplomatic corps, the representatives of overseas possessions and of foreign countries, especially were invited to this first court of the season.

Approximately 700 presentations were made in the throne room. The debutantes had had a day of long ordeal, first waiting to be photographed in their court gowns at fashionable photographers, and then running the gauntlet of thousands of admiring eyes of the populace while waiting in a queue in the mall for the palace doors to open.

The royal circle assembled in the throne room included besides the King and Queen, the Prince of Wales, Princess Mary, the Duke and Duchess of York, and Prince George. The room was a blaze of lights playing over the beautiful flowers plentifully displayed while the uniforms, jewels and gowns fully maintained the brilliancy of the courts of former years.

The Queen wore a dress of cream and gold lace, hand embroidered in cut crystal and diamante and with a train of Irish point lace, lined with gold chiffon tissue with a design of gold leaf. She wore a diamond crown with the lesser star of Africa and her diamond ornaments included the famous Kohinoor.

COSTLY TO KILL BANDIT IN CHICAGO

Detective Sergeant Who Shoots Escaping Thief Must Pay Damages

CHICAGO, May 8. (Exclusive)—Policemen of Chicago who shoot down criminals do so at their own risk. The city is not responsible, according to an opinion given today by Corporation Counsel Ettleson. As a result Detective Sergeant McFadden is out of luck and probably will have to pay $3000 out of his own pocket.

Recently McFadden saw a uniformed member of the police force pursuing a negro who had been detected stealing automobile tires. McFadden joined in the chase and the thief was cornered in a blind alley. While the policeman went to call the wagon, the thief broke away from McFadden and started to run. The detective sergeant shot him. The negro died a few hours later in a hospital.

The mother of the slain negro brought suit for damages before Judge David and a judgment of $3000 was awarded by the jury despite the fact that the police showed the slain negro was a thief and a menace to the peace of the community. McFadden also paid out $300 in court costs, but his attorney failed to ask for an appeal. It was a case of settling or going to jail, as the matter had passed into the hands of the Sheriff's office.

McFadden staved off action by paying the mother of the slain negro $500, but the city today refused to reimburse him for money expended or to help him in any other way. Which leads to the conclusion that it is dangerous and costly to shoot a criminal in Chicago.

FIRST ROUND COUNTED IN BANK CLASH

Sartori Company Victor in Set-to With Giannini Over Name of "Security"

SACRAMENTO, May 8. (AP)—Banking organizations of A. P. Giannini and J. F. Sartori clashed in Supreme Court here today and the Sartori company won the first passage at arms, the right for its attorneys to represent Judge James L. Allen of Orange county in the hearing which will be had tomorrow.

Boiled down to lay language, the Sartori company, Security Trust and Savings Bank of Los Angeles, objects to the Giannini company using the name United Security Bank and Trust Company. After months of argument with Giannini, it obtained from Judge Allen a temporary order restraining his company from further expansion under that name. Giannini's counsel retorted by getting a Supreme Court order prohibiting a permanent order on the part of Judge Allen.

A brilliant array of talent assembled for the argument between banks, Garrett McEnerney, Cushing & Cushing and Le Roy Edwards appearing on behalf of the Giannini group, former Chief Justice Myers, former associate Justice Olney and Oscar Lawler, assistant Attorney-General under President Taft for the Sartori group.

The Giannini bank claims right to use the word "Security" through an order from Will C. Wood, State Superintendent of Banks, which it asserts is not reviewable by the Orange county court.

Lawyer's Fees Asked in Suit

HANFORD, May 8.—The suit of H. D. Egan on an assigned claim of Vincent W. Hallinan against Jennie Laura Brown and John H. Tipton for $25,000 claimed to be due for legal services assertedly rendered in the defense of Tipton in the Camp murder case, and $1070 costs, has been transferred from San Francisco to Kings county for trial.

Tipton, uncle of Mrs. Brown, was a co-defendent with her and Fred Mills at the trial for asserted conspiracy to murder Lee Camp, Mrs. Brown's foster son, who carried heavy life insurance in her favor, and who was found at the base of a windmill on the Brown ranch with a fractured skull from which he died.

The first trial resulted in conviction of the defendants of murder in the second degree, but on reversal and retrial in Madera county, Mrs. Brown, Fred Mills and John H. Tipton were all acquitted.

CARAVAN ON SAN JOAQUIN TOUR TODAY

Motor Cavalcade Makes Trip Under Auspices of Tourist Association

CALIFORNIA HOT SPRINGS, May 8.—People from all parts of California are expected to join the Southern San Joaquin Valley tour, sponsored by the San Joaquin Valley Tourist and Travel Association, which will start at Fresno tomorrow morning on the first lap of its itinerary, reaching here Thursday evening. Dancing, swimming, skating and other entertainment features will be enjoyed here.

Leaving here Friday morning, the third and last day of the tour, will carry the party over the orange belt highway in eastern Tulare county. A civic luncheon will be held at Porterville. Stops will also be made at Springville, Lindsay, Exeter, Visalia, Dinuba, Reedley and other points on the way back to Sanger, where the party will disband following a banquet in the evening.

Tulare county points to be visited on the Golden State Highway include Tulare, Tipton, Pixley, Earlimart, Delano.

FETE FOR CARAVAN AT WHITE WOLF GRADE

BAKERSFIELD, May 8.—With civic and service clubs of Bakersfield sending large delegations and participating in the program, the Bear Mountain Boosters' Club of Arvin will be host to the entire county and to members of the San Joaquin Valley Tourist and Travel Association's scenic caravan tomorrow evening at White Wolf Grade, east of Arvin.

The celebration will be the official welcome of both Bakersfield and Arvin to the motor cavalcade and also will mark dedication of the new White Wolf Grade road connecting Arvin with the Tehachapi highway route to Southern California.

TRIAL COURT EXONERATES MRS. LLOYD

Charges of Misconduct Expurgated from Records in Husband's Will Fight

MENOMINEE (Mich.) May 8. (AP) Charges that Mrs. Margaret Isadora Lloyd was guilty of misconduct were expunged from records of the trial of her suit for a widow's share in the $2,000,000 estate of Marshall Burns Lloyd today as the arguments were started before Circuit Judge Frank B. Bell.

The court ordered the charges expunged from the answer filed by the eighteen defendants in the Los Angeles woman's suit for $1,000,000 of the wealth of the Menominee inventor, manufacturer and philanthropist.

Her attorneys successfully contended that no testimony had been introduced by the defense to substantiate the charge that Mrs. Lloyd's conduct with other men in Menominee resulted in her leaving home voluntarily.

Trial of the suit, which opened Monday, reached the argumentative stage today.

In opening the argument for Mrs. Lloyd, who was divorced in 1920 on a charge of desertion and forgotten in the will of her former husband, Michael J. Doyle, 74-year-old dean of the Menominee county bar, attacked validity of the divorce.

Doyle charged that Mrs. Henrietta Lloyd, whom the millionaire married in 1922 after a brief courtship, could never claim she was his wife, Mrs. Lloyd, the third, is one of the defendants in the suit.

ENCIRCLER OF WORLD IN BAY CITY

Japanese Admits Defeat in Cross-Globe Contest With Countryman

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8. (Exclusive)—Ryukichi Matsui, Tokio-to-Tokio westbound globe girdler, arrived here today approximately a week behind the schedule he hoped to maintain but determined to finish in the best time he can despite his seeming impossibility to beat his eastbound competitor, Tachiro Araki. Matsui was greeted enthusiastically by members of his race and will sail at noon tomorrow for Yokohama aboard the Tenyo Maru.

He explained that he lost eight hours in New York on the Aquitania because of fog, the eight hours preventing an airplane connection that would have taken him out of Vancouver several days ago.

It was a condition of the race that none but commercially available transportation could be used so Matsuit was prevented making up his lost time by engaging a special airplane for a forced flight that would have caught the ship departing Vancouver.

"Although the race is lost I must do the best I can," he commented upon arrival.

The best time to date for globe encircling is that hung up by Edward S. Evans and Linton Wells in 1926 of twenty-eight days, fourteen hours, thirty-six minutes.

Bar Association Considers Special Grand Jury

CHICAGO, May 8. (AP)—Disappearance of four important witnesses subpoenaed by State's Attorney Crowe to appear before the regular county grand jury today caused postponement of an investigation into primary election violence which included one slaying. The grand jury was summoned and when the prosecutor called for the four witnesses his investigators informed him they could not be located.

Meanwhile a special grand jury with a special prosecutor was being considered by the Chicago Bar Association, as the agency to investigate primary day violence.

A Coroner's jury yesterday recommended a special grand jury to investigate conditions, after a hearing regarding the death of Octavius Granady, negro Republican leader allied with the forces of United States Senator Deneen, who opposed the Crowe-Mayor Thompson-Gov. Small faction.

Carl P. Latham, president of the bar association, described the grand jury plans of Prosecutor Crowe as a "mock action to head off a real investigation."

The witnesses who disappeared are said to be C. R. Hanson of Cicero, and Morton Perlman, who were kidnaped and held captive because they were poll workers on election day, and two others.

ARMOUR'S DEBTS SETTLED

Wife and Relatives Liquidate Obligations of About $18,000,000 by Stock Transfer

CHICAGO, May 8. (Exclusive)—Final settlement of the obligations of the late J. Ogden Armour, which at one time were reported to exceed $50,000,000, was effected today by Mrs. Armour and her daughter, Mrs. John J. Mitchell, and other relatives.

The settlement consisted of liquidation of a debt of about $18,000,000 to Armour & Co., packers, through the transfer of the securities that Mr. Armour and his relatives had pledged. This debt was incurred by Mr. Armour in promoting his various vast enterprises, including the 55,000-acre Sutter Basin land-reclamation project in California.

The final settlement was made possible by the bondholders of the Sutter Basin Company in accepting the plan of reorganization proposed when interest in the $7,132,000 bonds was defaulted on February 1, last. These bonds had been guaranteed as to principal and interest by Armour & Co., and, therefore, the bondholders had a claim against his estate, although the estate consisted principally of securities pledged with Armour & Co.

RELIEVED OF OBLIGATION

By the Sutter Basin reorganization, the estate, Mrs. Armour and her daughter, and Armour & Co. are relieved of any obligation. In return Mrs. Armour will turn over to the new Sutter Basin Company about $6,000,000 of warrants against the Sutter Basin land. Mr. Armour had paid these warrants, but had pledged them with Armour & Co. for loans.

Mrs. Armour will redeem them and donate them to the new company, together with Mr. Armour's holdings of Sutter Basin Company stock. The latter, however, is of doubtful value.

As the result of today's double settlement, Armour & Co. will be able to dispose of Mr. Armour's collateral, which is understood to include 1,000,000 shares of Class B stock and 300,000 shares of Class A stock of Armour & Co. Contingent on today's adjustments, the company had given an option to buy 600,000 shares of Class B stock at $6.50 a share to a syndicate of wealthy Chicago men headed by Arthur W. Cutten.

NEW PLAN OPERATIVE

At the same time Ralph M. Shaw, a member of the Sutter Basin bondholders' protective committee, announced that the Sutter Basin reorganization plan has been declared operative.

Almost 95 per cent of the outstanding bonds were on deposit tonight in assent to the plan, and one of the depositories in Los Angeles still remained to be heard from. Therefore, the committee adjudged that the requisite 95 per cent has been received. Mr. Shaw said other bondholders may assent to the plan up to the time the new company formally forecloses on the property, which probably will be around June 30.

With today's settlements, Mr. Armour's estate practically is wiped out. In fact, his heirs and relatives are called on to make considerable financial sacrifices.

JURY DISAGREES IN KNAPP CASE

Talesmen Discharged When Verdict Fails

Indictment Charged Misuse of Census Funds

Counsel Says Openness Bars Indication of Fraud

ALBANY (N. Y.) May 8. (AP)—The jury in the case of Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp, former Secretary of State, reported tonight that they had been unable to agree and were discharged. Mrs. Knapp had been on trial since last Wednesday charged with grand larceny.

The indictment charged misuse of a 1925 State census pay check for $2875.06 in favor of her stepdaughter, Clara Blanche Knapp.

In the summing up in her behalf by Patrick C Dugan, Mrs. Knapp heard herself described as an intelligent, cultured woman of excellent repute who had acted during the 1925 census only in accord with her legal rights and in an open, frank manner. The very fact that there never was an attempt to conceal the transactions covered by the prosecution indicates the absence of any fraudulent or criminal intent, he said.

Local Stock Mart Sponsor of Employees' School

Workers in Banks, Broker Houses May Attend

Project Booked for Opening by September 15

Formation of a training school to be known as the Los Angeles Stock Exchange Institute, for employees of member brokerage houses and other allied financial institutions, was approved yesterday by the board of governors of the exchange. The institute, it is expected, will be organized during the coming summer and be in operation by September 15.

Classes will be conducted by the best educational talent obtainable, it was stated. It will treat of such subjects as commercial law, business economics, investments, brokerage practices, business statistics, financial statements, brokerage accounting, public speaking and business letter writing, etc.

The underlying purpose of the organization is to inculcate and maintain high standards of commercial integrity and promote equitable principles of trade and business. At the same time it is designed to serve the educational needs of everyone connected with the exchange. To this end the institute may co-operate with other organizations.

The board of governors feels that, through the operation of the institute, a better personal relationship in the investment and banking field will be fostered. The personnel of instructors is now under consideration and will be announced at a later date, it was stated.

The proposed institute is in line with the Stock Exchange Institute, conducted by the New York Stock Exchange, the curriculum of which was materially enlarged last year. The theory of brokerage practice, money and banking is made a part of the regular training of the New York Stock Exchange employee. The San Francisco Stock Exchange, last year inaugurated a similar institute.

April Sales of Safeway Chain Grocery Gain

Total sales for the Safeway Stores, Inc., system for the month of April amounted to $7,421,973, as compared with $5,923,059 in April, 1927, a gain of $1,498,914, or approximately 25 per cent, Edward Dale, vice-president of the Southern California division, announced yesterday.

Sales for the first four months of the year aggregated $30,121,350, as against $21,635,300 for the corresponding period of last year. This is an increase of $8,486,050, or more than 39 per cent. The Safeway system now operates 967 grocery stores, 240 meat markets and six bakeries in the territory west of the Mississippi River and in which Wichita and Hutchinson, Kan., are the farthest eastern points to be opened up. In Southern California the company operates 472 stores and fifty-seven meat and fruit markets.

In accordance with the profit-sharing policy inaugurated January 1, last, distribution of commissions amounting to $242,829.64 was made to store managers in the three months ended March 31, last. Of this amount, $78,000 was paid to managers in the Los Angeles division. Last week the company announced plans for the building in Los Angeles of the largest candy-manufacturing plant in the West.

NEW CONSTRUCTION AWARD INCREASE

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—Construction contracts awarded last week in thirty-seven States east of the Rocky Mountains totaled $195,526,800, an increase of almost 25 per cent over the week before, bringing the total this year to the 4th inst., up to $2,240,867,000, F. W. Dodge Corporation reports. The daily average was $21,341,600 against $20,444,100 in the first five months last year. The week's largest award was for a $10,000,000 bank and office building in Chicago.

POTATO SHIPMENTS FOR 1927 REPORTED

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—Carload shipments of white potatoes in the United States in 1927 were 251,211, about 7200 cars above the annual five-year average ending with 1927, the Bureau of Railway Economics reports. Maine shipped 41,751 cars, about 17 per cent of the United States' total. Minnesota, Virginia, Idaho, Wisconsin, Colorado, New York and Michigan.

NEW BUILDING OFF SAYS BRADSTREET

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—Bradstreet's reports new building fell notably in April, a total of $277,696,276 for 177 cities against $317,426,409 in March and $322,338,954 in April last year. New York City's total dropped to $81,984,782 from $107,171,125 in March.

Bank Speculation Shifts from Merchants'; Holding Company Rumor Actively Circulated

BY EARLE E. CROWE

After having pulled and worried with Merchants' National until the stock was lifted to the equivalent of $1200 on the old par value, the highest prive ever touched by a Los Angeles bank stock, the restless speculators seem to have turned most of their attention to Los Angeles-First National. Stories are freely circulated mentioning several likely mergers and naming prices that ordinarily would be considered fantastic.

Technically, the recent major rise in Los Angeles-First National is probably due chiefly to the shifting of the bulk of speculative interest from Merchants' National, rather than to any widespread belief in the merger supposition. The traders, however, are willing to help the rumors along, and are still convinced that the big profits are in the bank stocks.

CHASE STILL FIGURES

Trailing along with the speculators, nevertheless, is a group that does believe firmly in the story that negotiations looking toward a consolidation are under way. The most popular conjecture along this line is the one that accredits the Chase National Bank of New York with a plan to join with the Los Angeles-First National and the American Trust Company in the formation of a holding company to control a chain of banks. This yarn is not new, yet it persists in staying in circulation.

Yesterday the rumor was amplified to include another bank in San Francisco and two more in Portland and Seattle. The Chase interests, it was said, were accumulating both Los Angeles-First National and American Company, holding unit for the American Trust, and would announce the formation of the company at a later date. It was assumed in the rumors that Henry M. Robinson and John S. Drum of the Los Angeles and San Francisco banks were active in working out the project with the Chase interests.

While this set-up possesses many logical points, the groups involved have all, at various times, issued denials. Mr. Robinson is now in the East, but the same statement was made yesterday by his associates in the bank. Nothing of an official nature has ever been said to lend any degree of substance to this conjecture.

DEVELOPMENT LOGICAL

The most reasonable angle in the whole picture is the possibility that some day, one or two of the Wall-street banks will attempt to discount the possible amendment of the bank laws to permit nation-wide branch banking. This is what the Giannini interests are doing, and it is just as reasonable to believe that the ground work for a rival system should be laid by eastern bankers.

Nation-wide investment banking is already practiced by the National City Bank, and recently the Chase National also launched on a similar program. Perhaps these developments indicate that the Wall-street bankers are feeling their way to national commercial bank operations, but are now yet ready to take the decisive step.

No matter what the plans of the Chase National, the Los Angeles-First National and the American Trust are, the speculators are not hesitant about stating their position. When the value of transactions in a single stock amounts to more than $2,600,000 in one session of the Los Angeles Exchange, the chances are that some group, or a large number of people, are convinced that their position is right.

Charles H. Tucker has been chosen president of the recently formed California Building and Loan Reserve Corporation, according to an announcement made yesterday by the California Building-Loan League. State Senator Herbert C. Jones was elected vice-president, and Milo R. Robbins was named secretary-treasurer. Announcement of the board of directors was made recently, and a statement naming members of the board of trustees will be made shortly, it was stated.

Richfield Oil to Construct Seattle Base

Richfield Oil Company of California closed yesterday with the Port Commission of Seattle, Wash., for a marine site at Smith's Cove, where a marine gasoline storage base will be constructed to contain 200,000 barrels at an estimated cost of $250,000, according to an announcement made yesterday by C. B. Garretson, assistant general sales manager.

When completed this will be the largest marine gasoline storage base on the Pacific Coast, it was stated. Construction work on the project will begin immediately, although no definite date has been set for its completion.

Products will be shipped from Los Angeles to the Seattle terminal from which they will be reshipped by tank car to points in the State of Washington. A pipeline will also be constructed to run from the terminal to the distributing plant in Seattle.

APRIL REVENUES OF UNION PACIFIC UP

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—April gross revenues of the Union Pacific were close to $700,000 ahead of last year and net operating income was about the same, Carl R. Gray, president, reports. May loadings are ahead of last year. The crop outlook, he said, was as good as last year at this time. There has been some winter killing of wheat in Western Nebraska and Western Kansas, but the outlook in Washington, Oregon and Idaho was promising. General business in California, Oregon and Washington was good and the wheat acreage in the road's territory would be about as large as last year.

EXPORT FIGURES ON GRAIN SHOW GAIN

SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8. (AP)—Kolster Radio Corporation featured the trading on the San Francisco Stock Exchange today, opening at 56⅞, then slumping to 54½, where it recovered, and under hectic buying soared to a new all-time high at 61½, closing strong at 61⅝, a net gain of 7⅝ points, on a turnover of 52,000 shares. The rights rose 5⅝ and closed up 1.15 at 5½. Magnavox Company was active and strong and sold from 2.50 to a new peak at 2.80, gaining 40 cents. Caterpillar Tractor opened at 76 and sold off to 75⅛, later recovering and closing at 76½, losing ½. Paraffine ranged from 1.04 to 104½, gaining ½. Byron Jackson Pump was in good demand and sold from 38 to 38½, closing up ½.

The bank stocks were weaker. American Company opened at 189¾ and sold off to 183, later recovering to 191 and closed down 6 points at 184. Bancitaly Corporation sold from 218½ to 217½, closing at 217¾, off ½. Bank of Italy opened at 307 and climbed to 308, later receding to 305 and closed down 2½ points at 305½. Richfield Oil touched 45¼ and closed at 45, off ¼. Union Oil of California opened at 52½ and sold up to 52¾, closing at 52¼, losing ⅜. Union Oil Associates ranged from 54 to 53⅝, gaining ⅝. Standard of California opened at 61¼ and sold off to 60½ at the close, losing 1½ points.

Total sales: Bonds, $8000; stocks, 210,499 shares of $13,059,503 market value.

KRESS SALES GAIN

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—Sales of S. H. Kress Company for four months this year moved to $17,557,833 from $15,085,621 a year ago, a gain of 16.4 per cent.

BANK ISSUE SETS TRADING MARK

First National Turnover Shatters Record for Single Stock

Stock of the Los Angeles-First National Trust and Savings Bank shattered all records for trading in a single security on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday. Sensational buying caused a turnover of 16,185 shares, valued at $2,642,241.

The previous record was established April 24, last. Merchants' National Trust and Savings Bank upset all former records on that date, with total sales valued at $2,344,760.

BANK ISSUES SUMMARY OF APRIL TRADE

First National Review Says Volume Continues to Show Moderate Gain

Although trade activity in the Pacific-Southwest territory in the month of April after allowance for seasonal changes held to the level of the previous two months and was in line with the general moderate improvement since the turn of the year, the situation presented a more pronounced mixed tendency, according to the monthly summary of conditions issued yesterday by the research department of the Los Angeles-First National Trust and Savings Bank.

Trading at retail and wholesale has been at about the same rate as a month and a year ago and strenuous sales efforts have been exerted. Bank clearings and check transactions, however, registered a less than seasonal decline from March and showed gains of 6 to 13 per cent over April 1927, partially due to the high rate of stock exchange operations. The summary continues in part:

Industrial operations have shown a moderate growth. Automobile-tire plants are operating at capacity. Motion-picture production and Petroleum refining are recovering from the low winter levels. Petroleum output has increased materially at the Long Beach field but this gain has been offset by additional shut-in volume at other fields. Employment has improved with resumption of spring operations. Harbor commerce has been large with foreign trade showing the greatest development.

The citrus fruit situation is excellent with shipments large, quantity good, and prices considerably above a year ago. The deciduous fruit outlook is unpromising in Southern California but is good in the San Joaquin Valley. Indications point to a heavy yield of grapes. The walnut crop will be less than last year.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—Reports of improving weather conditions in the South led to rather sharp reactions from an early advance in the cotton market today and, after showing net gains of about 23 to 30 points, prices were 10 to 15 points lower. The decline brought in renewed buying promoted by complaints that low temperatures had caused a further delay in the new crop start and the market steadied up again. Midafternoon prices were about 18 to 20 points net higher.

AMERADA IN POOL WITH RYCADE OIL

Amerada Corporation has made an agreement with Rycade Oil Corporation by which the leaseholds controlled by each company in the Roberts field in Howard county, Texas, aggregating 720 acres, will be pooled. The Rycade Oil Corporation contributed 480 acres and the Amerada Corporation 240 acres, the latter company having undertaken to drill immediately two wells free of cost to the former.

COWIE RETURNS TO CITY

Alex S. Cowie, assistant vice-president of the Citizens' National Trust and Savings Bank, returned yesterday from an extended trip to Mexico, the Southern States and the annual convention of the Foreign Trade Council at Houston. Conditions in Mexico, he states, show considerable improvement and there is a general feeling of confidence that business will progress.

CORPORATE EARNINGS GAIN

Group of 150 Reports Reveals Increase of 10 Per Cent Over Similar Period in 1927

BY PAUL WILLARD GARRETT

[Copyright, 1928, by New York Evening Post, Inc.]

NEW YORK, May 8.—Enough first-quarter earnings statements now have come to light to show that back of the 1928 stock market is an improvement in corporate profits broader than early conclusions indicated.

A canvass of the 150 corporations whose first-quarter earnings have been published reveals that these enterprises at least, made 10 per cent more in the first three months of 1928 than in the corresponding months of 1927. If the earnings of the country's two giant industries, General Motors and the Steel Corporation, be deducted from the list an early 1928 gain of 7 1-2 per cent is revealed.

Without ignoring the fact that the best reports usually come in first, the conclusion is warranted that America's industrial enterprises on the whole, are earning more this year than a year ago. At first that generalization may not seem so significant, since, as everybody knows, the late 1927 reports were not brilliant. Last year's decline in earnings did not begin until the second and third quarter, however, so the early 1928 figures here are set in comparison to the very best 1927 quarter.

Doubtless, the introduction later of companies not in so prosperous a condition will cut down the general gain of 10 per cent now indicated, but no subsequent reports can change this fact—150 companies already have reported and they did 10 per cent better than last year.

In times past the balance of current earnings has often bettered the previous year only by the aid of sharp gains contributed by General Motors and the Steel Corporation. Significant is it that in the early 1928 tabulations at hand improvement has been general. An advance in profits is shown even with the two giant earners left out of the comparison.

Easily the outstanding contribution to the general gain shown by the 150 companies came from the seventeen motor enterprises included in the list. These reported net profits of $90,000,000 in the first quarter of 1928 as against $73,000,000 for the same months last year. Henry Ford's earnings, of course, are not given, and doubtless, the handsome profits ground out by other motor makers in part may be explained by his tardiness in reaching maximum production this year.

Nobody will contend that the advance in stocks represents solely an increased earnings position for companies. Stocks have risen faster than earnings. It is nevertheless important to note that 1928 to date has brought a fairly pronounced turn apparently in the earnings trend.

Noon Hours to Be Taken From Stock Brokers

Trading hours on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange will run continuously without interruption for the noon recess, upon the installation of the post trading system, the 21st inst., Norman B. Courtney, secretary and manager of the exchange, declared yesterday.

Under the new system, trading will run from 9:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. instead of the present hours, which are from 9:30 to 11:15 a.m. and from 1:45 to 3 p.m. This will result in a five-hour continuous session in place of the present two daily sessions totaling three hours.

During recent peak sessions orders have accumulated so rapidly that traders found it impossible to secure executions, according to Mr. Courtney. Another advantage lies in the fact that the market will be operating simultaneously with the San Francisco Stock Exchange.

HAY MARKET STEADY

Prices Reported Holding Firm and Offerings Lighter

Hay markets held practically steady for top grades which were in active demand during the week ending the 4th inst., according to the weekly hay market review of the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Alfalfa markets continued firm with top grades of very leafy alfalfa quoted at $33 to $38 in middle-western markets. Demand from the southern consuming areas was rather dull as local supplies were expected to be soon available at prices below the shipped-in hay. Kansas City reported an excellent demand from both local and outside milling interests but the dairy inquiry appeared to be slackening somewhat. The quality of offerings was reported to be unsatisfactory to buyers. Additional offerings of Arizona alfalfa were received during the week and trade reports indicate an early arrival of Oklahoma hay.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—Increase in the call money rate prompted profit taking on the curb market today and gains recorded in a bullish demonstration which began with the market opening were reduced or canceled. Some industrial specialties such as chain stores, mining shares and artificial silk issues resisted selling but the general list closed lower. Total sales reached 1,350,000 shares, the second largest day in market history and 735 different issues were traded in. Some $5,261,000 of bonds changed hands, the abbreviated system of recording liens enabling the ticker to keep within fifteen minutes of the market most of the day.

Aluminum Company of America, Dominion Bridge, Fulton Sylphon, Rubberoid, Singer, Hugo Stinnes and Wheeling Steel were among industrial specialties which closed with gains of 3 to 10 points. British Celanese, Ltd., and Celanese again touched new highs, but slumped under profit-taking. Consolidated Copper Mines and Newmont Mines reached new high territory, while United Verde Extension gained more than 3 points net on buying encouraged by favorable metal prices. Newmont closed off nearly 4 points.

Announcement of a 100 per cent stock dividend created heavy demand for Marion Steam Shovel, which soared more than 8 points to a new high at 28 3-4. Many chain-store issues were strong. Mercantile gaining 10 points net. Melville Shoe, Neisner Brothers, Consolidated Retail and Southern Groceries A reached new peaks. Fox Theaters A continued in demand and moved to a new top at 27 3-8, accompanied by National Theater Supply, which established a new high of 11½. Deere & Co., Marvel Carburetor and Lehigh Coal and Navigation sagged.

Most utilities resisted profit taking. Central States Electric was a feature, soaring more than 11 points to a new top at 100. Cities Service Power, Buffalo, Niagara and Eastern preferred and Middle West Utilities also established new highs.

Most of the oils were in supply and prices sagged under selling inspired by reports of greatly increased production. Leonard moved against the trend, touching a new top at 9 3-8.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as the high.

BIG STEAM TURBINE

What is said to be the largest steam turbine constructed on a single shaft is about to be assembled at the Long Beach steam plant of the Southern California Edison Company. This is the first of eight additional 125,000-horsepower units which the company plans to install at this plant, which, when completed, will have a total capacity of 1,250,000 horsepower.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—The listed bond market with a relatively small volume of business and an easy trend, was overshadowed today by the ready reception given the new issue of Australian 4½s placed before the public today. The bonds, $50,000,000 of which were marketed, were priced at 92½ and their offering had only moderate effect on existing 5 per cent obligations of the commonwealth which changed hands in fair amounts but at slight variations in price.

Rather heavy losses were sustained by several of the semispeculative issues which have been popular for weeks. Heaviness in this division was largely in reflection of selling of stocks on the big board following a material tightening of call money rates. Andes Copper 7s and Kayser & Co. 5s, both convertible, lost more than a point each.

Profit-taking sales were rather large in the New York traction group, which recently were stimulated by court ruling favoring an increased fare. Realizing also reduced quotations on the adjustment 5s of the St. Paul Railroad.

Trading in high-grade mortgages continued of a nominal character, presumably due to a lack of certainty over the future trend of the money market. Although time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged from Monday's figures, a firmer undertone was indicated by the tightening of call loans. Chesapeake Corporation 5s advanced fractionally to 100 1-4, their previous year peak.

A few industrial and miscellaneous bonds followed a strong course, notably International Railways of Central America 5s, which sold up 5 points to 90½, a new high for the year. Good support also was given Consolidated Coal 5s. Hudson Coal 5s apparently were not affected by announcement that they will not be retired with part of the proceeds of Delaware and Hudson's sale of its Wabash and Lehigh Valley securities. Their recent rapid advance had been attributed in part to expectations that such an action might be taken.

Further selling of Treasury issues gave an easy tone to the entire Federal government list. The 3 3-4s and 3 3-8s were under heaviest pressure.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in the order given. To expedite transmission, the close is omitted when the same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

Preferred as to assets to $100 per share plus accrued unpaid dividends in involuntary dissolution, and to $105 per share and accrued unpaid dividends in voluntary dissolution, over the Second Preferred and Common Stock. Dividends exempt from present normal Federal Income Tax. Both Preferred and Common Stocks are fully paid and non-assessable.

Transfer Agent: THE EQUITABLE TRUST COMPANY OF NEW YORK
Registrar: THE CHASE NATIONAL BANK OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK

Mr. John Nickerson, President of the Corporation, has summarized in part his letter to us regarding this offering, as follows:

History and Business: Guardian Investors Corporation, incorporated in Delaware in 1925, has been (including its predecessor) in continuous and successful operation since 1913. The Corporation may acquire, hold and sell securities and obligations of a diversified nature, both domestic and foreign, and participate in underwritings. The primary purpose of the corporation is to provide investment safety based upon broad diversification of security holdings and safeguarded by constant watchfulness and in addition to afford to its security holders a means of participation in profitable underwritings to an extent and in a manner not ordinarily available to the individual investor.

Assets: With investments carried at cost, (which was less than their market value on that date), the balance sheet as of April 16, 1928, after reflecting the proceeds of all recent and proposed financing, including this issue, shows total net tangible assets after deducting all liabilities including Debentures outstanding at par before reserves for Federal and State income taxes, equivalent to $162 per share of First Preferred Stock to be outstanding.

Investments: The Certificate of Incorporation contains no restrictions on the choice or amount of Investments. As of April 16, 1928, the investments were approximately 30% in bonds and 70% in preferred and common stocks. This ratio is constantly changing. It has been the policy of the management, however, to secure a well balanced portfolio by maintaining a substantial investment in fixed income bearing securities and will be its policy to invest not more than 5% of its funds in any one issue. It is estimated that over 90% of the Corporation's present investments are in readily marketable securities.

Earnings: Earning power of the Corporation is directly dependent on the amount of assets invested and available for investment. Such amount upon completion of recent and proposed financing, including this issue, will exceed $8,700,000.

The average amount invested and available for investment during the calendar year 1927 was $809,107.48 on which the Corporation reported net earnings after all expenses but before reserves for Federal and State income taxes of $127,406, equivalent to 15½% on the amount invested and available for investment during said year.

A net return of less than 5% will be required on the amount invested and available for investment upon completion of proposed financing in order to pay interest charges, Federal and State income taxes (at prevailing rates) and all dividends on First Preferred Stock to be outstanding upon completion of proposed financing. Net earnings of the Corporation and its predecessor from 1922 to 1927 inclusive averaged over 13.4% annually on the average amount invested and available for investment during that period.

Management: The direction of the Corporation's affairs is under the same management which was responsible for the successful growth of the Corporation and its predecessor. It is closely identified with John Nickerson & Co., Incorporated, which has placed at the service of the Corporation without cost its investment research and analytical staffs with a trained personnel familiar with investment values and markets.

Wheat Futures Turn Up After Weak Opening

CHICAGO, May 8. (Exclusive)—Wheat showed an easy undertone early as the result of a recession in prices in Liverpool and on local pressure, but buying of July by houses with New York connections and of September by the Northwest brought about an upturn of 2⅝@3⅜c from the bottom. The close was at net gains of ⅝@1⅜c, the latter on September. Corn was dull and finished 1⅛@1⅜c lower, while oats showed independent strength and closed ⅜c higher. Rye was up 1⅛@1¼c.

There was a material contraction in outside interest in the wheat market, with the general disposition to go slow until after the government report was out of the way. Locals sold wheat early, but when the eastern buying appeared they started to cover and found offerings light. Dry weather and dust storm reports came from the Dakotas and Minnesota and attracted considerable attention, as did the political situation in the Orient. There were also claims that rain would shortly be needed in the Southwest and Central West.

A bullish government crop report was generally expected by the trade and local bears were less confident of their position. Export demand was slow and no activity is expected until after the report is out of the way. Liverpool was 1⅛@1⅜d lower, with pressure of Argentine offers a factor, although private cables reported the Argentine dock strike as spreading and this was expected to hamper clearances. Broomhall's foreign crop summary was generally favorable. There was some buying toward the last on reports that winter killing in Germany had been the heaviest since 1924.

Corn prices held within a range of around 1c, with the strength in wheat bringing in a little buying, but trade as a whole was slow and market easily influenced. Weather over the belt was favorable for planting, which is making rapid progress. Country offerings were small and are expected to remain so until after planting is out of the way.

Cash interests absorbed the scattered liquidation in May oats, with the deferred deliveries taken by commission houses, and the market showed independent strength. The seaboard reported numerous bids for American white oats close to a working basis. Crop comments were mixed. Rye was easier early on profit-taking, but firmer later in sympathy with wheat. Export demand was slow.

A fair trade was on in lard and bellies, with selling scattered and well taken by shorts and commission houses. Hogs were 10@25c higher and arrivals light. Lard prices advanced and closed at the top, with net gains of 7½@10c.

Bellies gained 10@15c and short ribs were 5@12½c higher, with May leading.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Los Angeles-First National Continues to Top List; Market Closes Irregularly

Los Angeles-First National Bank was again the feature of trading yesterday on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. The stock added 10 points to its 5-point rise and record price of the previous session to strike a new mark at 164, closed at 163¼. Although several additional record prices were established throughout the market earlier in the day, the close presented an irregular appearance and for the most part was off fractionally.

Merchants National earlier in the session spurted 12 points to touch 293 and at the end of the day closed at 285 for a net gain of 4 points. Citizens National added 10 points to set a new peak at 560. California Bank dropped 2 to 165 and Bank of Italy, 1 to 307. Bancitaly also lost 1 point and closed at 218½.

Rio Grande, which set a new top at 33 in the oil division Monday, added ½ for a record at 33½. It closed, however, at 32 for a net loss on the day of ½. Richfield was firm at 44 5-8. Shell Union touched a new peak at 29 3-4 and closed steady at ½. Republic Petroleum set a new mark at .60 and closed firm at .58. Standard of California dropped 1 3-8 to 60 5-8 and Union of California, 5-8 to 52 5-8.

American Company, in the unlisted division, added 10 points to a 7½-point rise on Monday and established a new record price at 188, where it closed. Bank of America, opening at 317, jumped 8 points to 325 and in the afternoon closed down to 315, off 6½ points from the previous close. Pan-American Western closed off 1 1-4 to 23 3-4 and Electrical Products, 2 to 148.

Stock transfers totaled 166,547 shares. Bond transactions amounted to $55,000.

PRODUCE MARKET

(By U. S. Bureau of Markets)

Trading was slow Tuesday morning on most fruits and vegetables. The market was weak on Central California asparagus. Cantaloupe supplies from Imperial Valley increased and prices declined slightly. Cherries sold well. Coachella onions dropped sharply. Peas held firm and green beans were easier. Tomatoes were steady and there was a slightly better demand for good lettuce. A few figs arrived.

APPLES — Northern, Yellow Newtowns, unclassified, best, 4.25@4.50; poorer, 3.50@3.75 cwt. Idaho, Washington, Winesaps, extra fancy, 3.25@3.50; fancy, 2.90@3.25 box; loose, unclassified, 4½@5 pound; Romes, extra fancy, 3.25@3.50; fancy, 2.90@3.00. TIGHTER MONEY HALTS ADVANCE disposal would be made of the $63,000,000 received by the Delaware and Hudson Railroad for the Wabash and Lehigh Valley stocks sold to the Pennsylvania.

Selling pressure was particularly effective against General Motors, which broke nearly 5 points to 204 and Wright Aeronautical which closed at 159, off 4½ points net after touching a new peak at 165. Curtiss Aero soared nearly 12 points to 134½ and then slipped to 130 3-4. New York Tractions fell 1 to 3 points on indications that a long time may elapse before the Interborough will be able to put into effect the 7-cent fare provisionally authorized by the Federal statutory court. Substantial losses also were recorded by such issues as Case Threshing, Commercial Solvents, Coty, Dupont, Electric Auto Lite, United Fruit, United States Cast-iron Pipe and Warren Brothers.

NEW HIGH SCORED

Among the many industrial issues to reach new high ground were American Mosch Magneto, American Chicle, Canada Dry Ginger Ale, Coca Cola, Chandler-Cleveland Motors common and preferred, International Combustion, Jewel Tea, Otis Elevator, Savage Arms, Standard Gas and Electric and Victor Talking Machine.

There were several points of interest in the railroad group. Canadian Pacific and Union Pacific advanced to their highest levels in fifteen years at 223 3-4 and 204½, respectively. Rock Island touched a new top at 119 and Norfolk & Western at 193½. Wabash ran up 5 points to 92, or within a fraction of the year's high, and Reading climbed more than 5 points to a new peak at 117 7-8. Delaware and Hudson and Chesapeake and Ohio were heavy.

Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

A sharp advance of more than 50 points in coffee futures featured the mixed commodity markets. Cotton lost an early gain of about 50 cents a bale and wheat prices improved fractionally. Sugar quotations held steady.

A precipitous decline of more than 50 points in Japanese yen to 46.13 cents, the year's low, on selling inspired by China-Japanese troubles, was the outstanding development in the foreign exchange markets. With the exception of a 10-point jump in Spanish pesetas to 16.84 cents, most of the European currencies were slightly reactionary. Sterling cables were quoted just about $4.48.

ICE CREAM AND SUCH

Sixty million tons of ice cream was consumed in the United States in 1927, or 1040 pounds for every person in the country. This means that in the decade from 1917 to 1927 the per-capita demand increased more than forty-six per cent.

BY HOWARD C. KEGLEY

One of the most interesting wells in Southern California from the viewpoint of the geologist who always has an eye out for prospects and indications of prospects, is the deep well of the California Well Drilling Company, frequently called the Moss well, between the Dominguez field, and the Long Beach fields. The two interesting features of this test are the unusual depth at which it found showings, and the fact that these showings are found sufficiently far from any producing area to absolve them from the suspicion of being stringers from another field, leaving the possibility that they may be stringers from a field yet undiscovered.

The Moss well is making a production test, which is showing mud and water, together with some oil and considerable gas with a strong odor of gasoline, according to reports from the field. Bottom of the well is at 7550 feet, making it the deepest wildcat in the State, and it is understood that the bottom 200 feet of the hole was drilled through sand and shale showing some saturation of oil, and a little gray sand. The well set a combination casing on the bottom, cementing through perforations at about 7350 feet, and made a swabbing test from 4800 feet.

The showings in the California Well Drilling Company's project are not regarded by most oil men as promising much in the way of production for this particular well, but are taken quite seriously as a possible indication of near-by producing territory. The well is located almost exactly between the Signal Hill and Dominguez fields, which would place it right in line with the chain of fields lying between Newport and Beverly Hills. The distance between the Dominguez and Signal Hill fields is sufficient for a possible uplift between the two, which might be the source of another field, and this is the possibility that is intriguing the interest of Southern California geologists.

Gets New Well

The Chanslor-Canfield Midway Oil Company has brought in its Hobson C. No. 1 well in the Seacliff field for an initial production of 730 barrels a day, according to reports from the field. The well was completed at a depth of about 3200 feet, with a penetration of about ninety feet of oil sand. The yield is practically clean, it is said, the cut being less than 2 per cent.

An interesting feature of the completion is the fact that it is the farthest west of all the C.C.M.O. wells at Seacliff, and also the most productive of the recent completions in the field, indicating that the productive area is likely to continue for a considerable distance west of the present proven area.

Miley Getting Deep

The Miley Oil Company is getting down toward 4400 feet in its No. 1 well in the Seacliff field, and is still getting promising oil showings, according to reports from the field. The last cores were taken at about 4350 feet, and still showed a well-saturated oil sand, it is said.

The Miley No. 1 has become one of the pivotal wells of the field, and other Seacliff operators are watching it with deep interest because of its bearing on the rest of the area, barrels of Diesel, 385,287 barrels of about 3950 feet, and so far has about 400 feet of oil-bearing formation. A test was made at 3950 feet, which did not show much in the way of production, but with the additional penetration, there is considerable hope that it may make the best well in the field if water trouble does not crop up.

Down 2500 Feet

W. W. Stabler is drilling ahead in conglomerate formation at about 2500 feet in his wildcat well at Comanche Point, according to field reports. Stabler had some showings of tar sand higher up in the hole, but there has been nothing of importance in the last few hundred feet of drilling, it is said.

O'Donnell Shut Down

James E. O'Donnell has shut down his wildcat well at Greenfield temporarily, according to unofficial reports. The well was drilled to 4060 feet when the shutdown was ordered. The shutdown is only temporary, it is understood, and it is planned to resume work in a few days. The well has had some promising showings of gas, it is said.

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, May 8. (AP)—New Mexican wools are coming into the market in moderate quantities. Sales are being closed at 1.06@1.10, scoured basis, for original bag lots of bulk French combing and clothing wools. Inquiries for medium grade domestic wools are being received from mills, but arrival of medium quality wool from the new clip continues small. A spotty demand is being received for woolen wools. Limited stocks restrict trading in some lines but in the lines available prices are showing a strengthening tendency.

LONDON, May 8. (AP)—A large number of home, continental and American buyers attended the opening of the third series of wool auction sales here today. There were 9060 bales offered, including 3600 Punta Arenas. Bidding was fair, but prices generally favored buyers. Owing to the high limits, withdrawals were frequent, mainly among the best crossbreds.

RUBBER MARKET

NEW YORK, May 8. (Exclusive)—Much speculative buying in London tended to bring the price of rubber back to its previous final after it had reacted earlier in the day. London spot closed at 8¾d. The outside crude rubber market witnessed another day of steadiness, closing ⅛c higher after it had remained at its prior level during the first two hours of trading.

VISALIAN TAKES FIRE TO FIREMEN

VISALIA, May 8.—Visalia firemen are expressing their appreciation of the thoughtfulness of one citizen of this city, who saved them a run by bringing his blaze to the fire station to be extinguished.

The man, according to Fire Chief H. G. Williams, pounded on the door of the fire house in the evening and asked the firemen to come out and "put out my fire." Dashing out they found a small automobile, smoking furiously. A hand chemical extinguisher was brought into use and the motorist soon went on his way rejoicing.

Standard Oil to Erect Three More Beacons

Three additional high intensity aviation beacons are to be installed immediately by the Standard Oil Company of California—at San Diego, Portland and Seattle. The company recently put into operation a 10,000,000 candlepower beacon at Mt. Diablo, and another in the Merced Hills, near Los Angeles.

The beacons now operating have proved most successful. The Diablo light has been seen from the air 150 miles, from the ocean eighty miles, and from the ground at Sutter, 100 miles.

The new lights have the approval of the airways division of the United States Department of Commerce. Experts of the department shortly will visit the three cities concerned and will designate the actual sites for the beacons, selecting points where the lights will be of the greatest use to night-flying aviators.

Murder Attempt Charge Filed

LOMA LINDA, May 8.—A charge of assault to commit murder was filed against Cliff Mackrill of Forest Home in the court of Judge A. B. McCrary today after he paid a $50 fine on a charge of disturbing the peace.

The second charge was sworn by B. V. Williams, who told the court that Mackrill had made an attempt on his life Saturday night during a quarrel at Forest Home. Judge McCrary issued the warrant for Mackrill's arrest. Deputy Sheriff T. L. Carter arrested Mackrill and swore to the complaint charging him with disturbing the peace Saturday night.

POLICEMAN ACCUSED OF HOUNDING YOUTH

Complaint by Mrs. W. B. Washington, of 1506½ Griffith avenue, against Officer George Slaughter, asserting he is hounding her son, Leon Griffin, was referred to Chief of Police Davis for investigation by the Board of Police Commissioners yesterday. Mrs. Washington charges that the officer takes a shot annually at her son.

THE STOCK MARKET

BY CHARLES A. DICE,
Professor of Finance, Ohio State University

NO. 7—PRIVILEGES OF PREFERRED STOCK

NO. 8. DEBENTURE STOCK

The term "debenture stock" is not in common use in the United States and, therefore, no well-defined meaning for it has developed in this country. Perhaps the best way to indicate the use of the term is to give the characteristics of the two outstanding issues of stocks of this type—those of the General Motors Corporation and of E. I. Du Pont De Nemours & Co.

During the depression period which followed the World War the General Motors Corporation issued a 7 per cent cumulative debenture stock, a 6 per cent cumulative debenture stock and a 6 per cent cumulative preferred stock. These three issues shared in any dividends declared up to certain stipulated rates, and in case of the liquidation of the corporation were entitled to share on equal terms in the assets ahead of the common stock. The consent of 75 per cent of both issues of debentures was required before the directors might place a lien ahead of the debentures. A default of dividends for six months gave the debenture stocks sole voting power, and if in any years the earnings should drop below 9 per cent the debenture stocks were to have voting power jointly with the common stock. The preferred stock acquired no right to vote.

E. I. Du Pont De Nemours & Co. authorized 6 per cent cumulative debenture stock to the amount of $160,000,000, of which only $10,000,000 has the voting privilege. The two classes of debenture stocks are identical in having preference over the common stocks as to assets and dividends. The consent of 75 per cent of both classes of debentures is required before any lien, except for purchase-money mortgages, may be placed ahead of the debentures. In case of default of dividends for six months the nonvoting shares acquire voting power and, with the voting debenture shares, assume sole control of the company to the exclusion of the common stock.

From the above examples it is evident that debenture stock is simply a special form of preferred stock.

In England the term "preference stock" is used instead of "preferred stock." In this country "prior preference stock" usually refers to stock that is put ahead of preferred stock already outstanding at the time of a reorganization.

VARICOSE VEINS REDU

Leg Troubles Healed by New Meth

A famous varicose vein specialist has given to the world a [illegible] for the care and treatment of varicose veins of the leg. [illegible] varicose veins, avoid the pains, cramps, itching and [illegible] the blood circulation with Viscose Method.

The just reason for providing yourself with this care is to avoid the ultimate ulceration of the leg. Ulceration begins when the diminished blood circulation fails to nourish the leg.

You can heal and prevent these ulcerations of the leg without being laid up.

Bulged or varicose veins of the leg, with or without any of these symptoms, can be reduced quickly and permanently by ambulatory absorption treatment. This is accomplished without hospital surgery. [illegible]

CITY HALL'S LOST FINERY DISCOVERED

Sky-Blue Uniforms Worn at Dedication Just Props, Rented for One Gala Day

The young fellow who rents a dinner coat, vest and trousers to make a hit with his best girl had nothing on the City Hall elevator operators and information men who wore sky-blue uniforms with light blue trimmings during the three days' celebration of the dedication of the new municipal building.

After the celebration the uniforms mysteriously disappeared and the elevator operators and information men have been wearing ordinary street clothes ever since.

Sleuths who have been working to trace the cause of the disappearance of the municipal magnificence and to learn why the employees no longer look like they just arrived from a motion-picture lot, learned the secret yesterday. The uniforms were rented!

'Tis a pity, but 'tis true, and in the interest of truth, the facts must be told, even if they become known to the mayors and city officials of other cities who were guests of Los Angeles during the celebration.

Building Manager Rodgers is hopeful that in the budget for City Hall maintenance for the fiscal year beginning July 1, the Mayor and the eagle-eyed Budget Director Knox will not discover and slash out an item from which he intends to purchase a full set of uniforms for his staff of elevator men and information directors.

YOUNG COOL IN REPLY ON CAR FARES

Council Laughs at Snub Implied in Having Plea Answered by Secretary

The City Council yesterday received a cool letter from Gov. Young's secretary in answer to the Council's red hot resolution asking the Governor to intercede with the Railroad Commission to postpone the taking effect of the new Pacific Electric fare schedule until further hearings could be held and the Supreme Court had acted on the application the city proposes to file, asking for review of the Commission's rate order.

The Governor's secretary said that the Council resolution "had been referred to the Railroad Commission." The Councilmen laughed in derision when the letter from Sacramento was read.

A protest against the new Pacific Electric rate schedule was filed with the City Council yesterday by W. W. Workman, particularly as applying to the fares in the Florence and Watts districts.

AIR LAW BEFORE COUNCIL

Ordinance Designed to Protect City Against Junk Planes and Incompetent Pilots

The City Council's Finance Committee at its meeting this afternoon [illegible] to consider the draft of the proposed air-regulation ordinance designed to protect the public against danger and property damage [illegible] operations of "death-trap" airplanes and incompetent aviators. There have been a number of accidents at local fields due to asserted [illegible] operation and unsafe airplanes which experts declare should [illegible] have been permitted to fly. It is believed that these accidents [illegible] the adoption of the ordinance. The city of Los Angeles in [illegible] adopted its first aircraft-regulation ordinance, but it has not [illegible] enforced owing to technical [illegible] in the measure.

[illegible] LAW BASIS

Under the ordinance prepared by [illegible] Attorney Stephens and which [illegible] before the Council committee, [illegible] the Federal Department of Commerce aircraft regulations are [illegible] included as the basis of the city's aircraft law. The local ordinance declares that it shall be unlawful for any person to operate any aircraft over the city of Los Angeles or land or fly from any part of the city unless in conformity with the Federal regulations. Then follow the city's detailed regulations which require that any person flying an aircraft locally must have a Federal license or certificate as to the airman's fitness and experience. It is to be unlawful for any aircraft to be flown in Los Angeles unless the airplane has been registered with the Federal government and has obtained a rating as to air worthiness.

It shall be unlawful, the ordinance says, for any person to fly acrobatically over Los Angeles unless the operator has obtained a permit from the mananger of the Los Angeles Municipal Airports.

Acrobatic flying is defined as intentional maneuvers not necessary to air navigation.

FIELD PERMITS REQUIRED

No flying-fields can be operated in Los Angeles unless permits for the fields have been received from the City Council. The annual charge for these permits is $100 a field. Applicants for these flying-field permits must file applications with the City Council, the city then posts notices announcing the hearings to be held on the applications, and the Council is given the right to reject applications for flying-field permits at its discretion in the interest of protecting the safety, health and general welfare of the people of the city.

By this control over flying-fields the City Council can put out of business by revoking permits, any fields where flyers have been careless or where there have been accidents due to carelessness or unairworthy airplanes.

Violation of the provisions of the ordinance is punishable by a fine of $500, imprisonment for not more than six months or both.

SHOWERS LAVE SOUTHLAND

Intermittent Local Rainfall Leaves Seasonal Below Average by Nearly Thirty Per Cent

Intermittent showers yesterday added another .25 of an inch of rainfall, making the season's total in Los Angeles 9.73 inches. Normal total at this time of year is 15.32 inches. Last year at this time the total was 17.76 inches. The forecast for today calls for partly cloudy weather with moderate temperatures.

The center of the weather disturbance hovered over Southern California yesterday, showing little inclination to move one way or another.

HEAVY AT SANTA MONICA

The beach district reported somewhat heavier rainfall, particularly in the Santa Monica Bay district, where .41 of an inch fell yesterday.

In the Santa Clara Valley the rainfall amounted to more than half an inch. Around Oxnard the precipitation amounted to .85 of an inch. But little damage was expected to hay already cut but considerable benefit would accrue to uncut hay, it was stated. The beet-sugar fields will be benefited.

BAKERSFIELD DRENCHED

From Bakersfield came reports of rain reaching cloudburst proportions in some districts, particularly in the Kern River oil fields. In some places telephone and light wires were down and scores of automobiles temporarily were stranded. The rain followed three days of wind and dust storms and was accompanied by heavy lightning and thunder.

The watersheds in the Los Angeles county flood control district received considerable rainfall. Opid's Camp reported .90 of an inch of rain. Other points reporting rain, according to County Flood Control Bureau are: Crag's Country Club, .99; Switzer's Camp, .54; Mt. Wilson, .65; Alta Canada, .47, and Englehart, .74.

HAWTHORNE ANNEXATION SUPPORTED

Council Approves Plan Despite Lone Opposition Voiced by Alber

"The city of Los Angeles should not adopt children until it knows that it can provide for them," declared Councilman Alber at yesterday's session of the Council in opposing headlong action inviting Hawthorne to annex. "Let's see what Hawthorne needs first," continued the Hollywood Councilman, "before we authorize the circulation of a petition there for consolidation with Los Angeles, or we may have district needs for Hawthorne far beyond the increased taxes we receive."

Assistant City Attorney Whitehead informed the Councilman that the people of Hawthorne could go ahead and hold an election to annex without asking Los Angeles for permission and that the only purpose of the resolution was to prevent another adjacent city giving Hawthorne permission.

Councilmen Colden said that consolidation of city and county governments is on the way, and these annexations are a step in the right direction. Authority finally was given for the Hawthorne annexation resolution, Councilman Alber alone voting "no."

LEMONS TO EXPERIENCE GOOD YEAR

Growers in All Districts Experience High Market for First Half Season

"It is not often that California lemon growers in all producing districts experience as good a market as the first half of the 1927-28 season has provided for them," T. H. Powell, lemon sales manager of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, said yesterday. "In fact," he said, "it is many many years since comparable prices have been received on a normal crop of fruit.

"The exchange is showing a 10 per cent shipping increase to date over last season. There is about a normal supply of fruit to go the balance of the season. Due to dry weather there probably will be more small sizes than the markets would like to have. Quality promises to continue good, so that cullage will be relatively light.

"Shipments for the month of May will fall below the average quantity supplied the markets during the past four years. There has been no restriction of shipments for almost a year."

OHIOANS WILL PICNIC

Former residents of Zanesville and Muskingum county, Ohio, now residing in Southern California will hold their spring picnic at Brookside Park, Section G, Pasadena, Sunday, it was announced yesterday by Z. L. Synder.

ORATOR OFF TO ENTER FINALS

Zone Decision Will Select Washington Entrant

Schoolmates Applaud Youth on Great Adventure

Principal Expresses Hope of Great Victory

Cheers from his schoolmates that could not be subdued by a drenching downpour of rain yesterday morning sent Harold F. "Jack" Pettee, Jr., of Whittier Union High School on his way to a possible national oratorical championship.

Accompanied by his mother and his coach, Miss Jennie B. McGregor, Jack left on the Southern Pacific's crack train, the Apache, for Oklahoma City, where he will compete Friday night in the western zone finals with the winners of seven other newspaper oratorical contests on the Constitution. If successful he will go on to Washington to participate in the national finals the 26th inst.

The Whittier boy was showered with gifts from the band of rooters from his own community as he stepped aboard the train, and if he comes back a champion he will not be greeted by a more enthusiastic group than that which yesterday braved the rain to see him off.

RIVAL SPEEDS TRIP

Among congratulatory messages received by the Whittier orator on the morning of his departure, which he prized highly, was one from Jack Schwartz of San Pedro High School, wishing him success at Oklahoma City. Schwartz was one of the boys defeated by Pettee at South Pasadena in the group elimination meet just before The Times grand finals.

"It was certainly mighty fine of Jack to send me that telegram," he said. "I don't know of any message that I have received that made me feel quite as good as that one did."

The Times winner has almost entirely recovered from the cold that hampered him last Friday in delivering his oration in the Shrine Auditorium.

FEELS HOPEFUL

"I'll have that completely cured by the time we reach Oklahoma City," his mother said confidently at the depot.

Among those present yesterday morning was Principal O. C. Albertson of Whittier Union. He expressed confidence in Jack's success at the zone meet.

"Realization that he now is representing the Pacific-Southwest as well as his own school is going to inspire him to put forth his best effort," he said. "I am confident he will be a credit to everyone of us."

Jack will arrive in Oklahoma City Thursday afternoon and will be met by Herbert C. Henderson, contest director of the Daily Oklahoman.

ORATION MISS HEARD BY KHJ AUDIENCE

Miss Mary K. Morris of Fallon, Nev., who placed third in The Times' grand finals of the Fifth National Oratorical Contest last Friday, last night delivered her oration, "The Significance of the Constitution," over KHJ. She will leave for her home in Nevada today and is looking forward to competing in the contest again next year.

Miss Morris is only a junior and is eligible to enter the contest again next year. She formerly made her home in Los Angeles. Oddie Wright, Long Beach Polytechnic sophomore, who placed fourth in The Times' finals, will deliver his oration, "The Bedrock of Our Power and Happiness," over KHJ at 7:30 p.m. tonight.

EDGEWATER BEACH CLUB TO BE SOLD

Pretentious Enterprise to Go Under Hammer by Court Order to Pay Debts

The Edgewater Club on the ocean front at Pico Boulevard, Santa Monica, one of the most pretentious places of its kind on the Pacific Coast, will be sold at public auction on the [illegible] inst. The sale will be conducted in the office of W. H. Moore, trustee for the United States District Court, 836 Board of Trade Building, at 11 a.m.

Announcement of sale to the highest bidder marks the end of a two-year financial struggle to keep the club open. Originally, the Edgewater Club was organized by a promoter, and when it opened in June, 1926, it was said to have 2500 members.

Financial difficulties, however, soon beset the organization and it finally was forced into bankruptcy. About a year ago it was sold by Federal Referee Irwin to the Winter Construction Company, one of the largest creditors, on the condition that the members of the club have the right to buy it back. The club members, however, did not buy it, and eventually, the construction company, according to Moore, did not keep up contract payments and the club reverted to the receivers.

The club still is in operation and the trustees who, in addition to Moore include E. A. Lynch and Paul W. Sampsel, hope to sell it with the proviso that the original memberships remain intact. The cost of the club, according to the trustees, was $1,700,000. Its liabilities now amount to $1,200,000.

SCREEN ROMANCE BECOMES REAL ONE

CUPID'S AIM GOOD WITH FILM PAIR

Ethlyn Clair Expected to be Tom Tyler's Leading Woman for Life

Five weeks ago Ethlyn Clair was engaged as leading woman for Tom Tyler, western hero of the screen.

TOM TYLER

Yesterday her friends in Hollywood said this meeting five weeks ago has developed into an interesting romance, which may end in her signing as his leading woman for life.

Miss Clair, a titian-haired beauty, was asked about it. She would neither deny nor affirm the reports, but indicated there is a possibility of their being engaged.

"It's a little too early to say anything definite," Miss Clair said. "Tom and I are very dear friends, but that is all I can say at the present. You had better see me sometime later or ask Tom." Tyler couldn't be located for his version.

Miss Clair came to Hollywood sometime ago and played in Century comedies before graduating to Universal as a leading woman. At the expiration of her contract she went to F.B.O., where she already has completed two pictures as Tyler's leading woman.

OFFICERS TO BE INSTALLED

The annual meeting of the Joint Technical Societies of Los Angeles will be tomorrow noon in the dining-room of the Engineers' Club, 833 South Spring street. Officers to be installed include: Chairman, Charles F. Plummer; vice-chairman, Frank Van Gilluwe; secretary-treasurer, J. C. Gaylord; assistant secretary-treasurer, Carl Johnson. Los Angeles Section, American Society of Civil Engineers, will present a speaker on regional planning. Beginning tomorrow, the meetings will be held at the Engineers' Club.

CLUB VICTORY FORECAST

Los Angeles District Leaders Confident Federation Convention Will Vote Reapportionment

BY MYRA NYE
"Times" Staff Representative

SAN DIEGO, May 8.—Confidence of victory in the fight for just reapportionment was expressed today by Los Angeles district leaders before the opening of the twenty-seventh annual convention in this city of the California Federation of Women's Clubs. These leaders included Mrs. Howard U. Sherwood, first vice-president; Mrs. John Stearns Thayer and Mrs. Charles McKelvey representing the district on the State revision committee.

Before the formal opening, however, Russ Auditorium convention hall was a scene of subdued agitation. Propaganda was circulated in the form of a magazine called the Modern Club Woman. By default in distribution it had missed circulation in the Los Angeles district but was given to every delegate of the other five regions. In the magazine is an article by Lillian Pray Palmer, past State president, the only member of the State revision committee turning in a report against the proposed revisions.

DELEGATION SMALL

Mrs. Palmer made the address of welcome. Not for ten years has there been so small a representation to hear the opening address from the Los Angeles district, depleted by the loss of delegates from Friday Morning Club, Los Angeles Ebell and the Woman's Club of Hollywood. The credentials committee report by Miss Benita G. Eadie, newly elected vice-president-at-large of San Diego County Federation, also shows smaller representation.

Mrs. W. W. Green, State president, after formally opening the convention made an apology for the distribution of the propaganda in credentials envelopes and asked that copies of them be removed from delegates' envelopes.

Voting on revision takes place Thursday morning and a lively session is anticipated. Los Angeles leaders say the struggle to gain reapportionment has nothing whatever to do with State division. They ask not for control, says Mrs. Sherwood, but merely for better representation. The first feature of the program was a symposium on "Conservation of Human Life," scheduled to be led by Dr. Bertola and to be participated in by a representative of every district. For the first time in the history of State conventions, the program failed. Every member was absent when Mrs. Green announced her subject with the exception of Dr. Etta Gray, representing Los Angeles district, who spoke ably on "public health."

The simple way to world peace, that of intelligent education, was depicted today by Kathleen Norris, novelist, to an audience which numbered by the time of her appearance 1500 clubwomen.

"A war to end war" was denounced by Mrs. Norris as a criminal and imbecile phrase.

PEACE TO END WAR

"Women's wars are fought in the only intelligent way," according to the novelist, "slowly, tirelessly, through the hearts and minds of our people, by a process of education and conversion. Suffrage was one of these bloodless wars.

"There might be a peace to end war, a resolute, informed, deliberate peace, maintained by 10,000,000 women.

"Four million women are already enlisted and organized in clubs, parent-teacher associations and peace societies. The other 6,000,000 will come from the homes and churches.

"America is in a strategic position to lead this movement for peace. American friendship and dollars can pull struggling Europe to her feet. Nothing else can do it."

A peaceful boycott might be a powerful weapon, according to Mrs. Norris, who said that if the American woman withdrew her sym-

QUAKE RATE CUT TO BE EXTENDED

Insurance Drop Due on All Classes of Structures

Move Follows Refuting of Seismic Dangers Here

Erection of Larger Buildings Expected to Increase

A 42 per cent reduction in earthquake insurance rates in Los Angeles, announced by the Building Owners' Federation of Mutual Fire Insurance Companies, which became effective yesterday, is expected to be followed within a week by a general readjustment of underwriters' rates not only on Class A buildings, to which the reduction applies, but also to all others in the Los Angeles area.

A new rate schedule, which provides for reductions ranging from approximately 40 per cent on Class A buildings to about 15 per cent on frame dwellings, has been sent out by the Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, which includes most of the companies doing business on the Pacific Coast, and is expected to be put into effect about the 15th inst. by local members of the board.

BOOK BOOSTS RATES

Earthquake insurance rates have been excessive in this area since the publication of a book by Dr. Bailey Willis, a geologist, in which he declared the district was subject to seismic disturbances. Rates have been increased several times during the last three years.

The recent announcement of Dr. Robert T. Hill, internationally known geologist, that Dr. Willis's predictions were practically baseless, since the conclusions of the Coast and Geodetic Survey on which the theory was founded had been found erroneous by later calculations of that bureau, has done much to restore the confidence of underwriters in the seismic stability of the Los Angeles area, the more so since it is borne out by the fact that no major shock has occurred here during the 150 years of the city's history.

Since the publication of Dr. Hill's book, local building owners have fought for a modification of the excessive earthquake insurance rates.

WILL BOOM BUILDING

The announcement of the reduction was made by the Los Angeles Building Owners' and Managers' Association, following the receipt of a letter from James S. Kemper, manager of the Building Owners' Federation. The new rate is subject to the same dividend savings as are paid by the federation on fire insurance.

According to those in touch with the situation, the announcement will stimulate greatly local building construction. This is particularly true, it is believed, in the larger building class, where, with the assurance that they need pay no more for earthquake insurance than builders in other cities, local builders can proceed with their programs knowing that ample coverage will cost no more here than elsewhere.

PURCHASING AGENT'S MEET

The Los Angeles Purchasing Agents' Association, an organization whose members annually direct the expenditure of approximately $600,000,000, will elect officers for the 1928-29 term and choose a delegate to attend the Fourteenth International Convention of Purchasing Agents in Kansas City at its monthly dinner meeting tomorrow night, in the Chamber of Commerce Building.

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

GENE TUNNEY, the champion pugilist, has considerable going on under his hair.

In a remarkable interview with the Associated Press he tells of what seems to be exclusively a present-day tragedy . . .

The tragedy of disillusion. The tragedy of the young man who gets to the top and finds he has everything; and that everything is nothing.

AND WHAT THEN?

I often wonder that a boy like Ramon Novarro has the courage to go on.

It is as though Providence brought to him all of life's rewards on a platter—like French pastry:

"What would you like, young man . . . wealth, fame, good looks, the love of women? . . . All right; you need not struggle for them; here they are—all; done up in a package for you."

Hollywood's tragedy lies in this: That at 26 or 27 these boys and girls have accomplished the goal that a normal man sets for himself at 60 or 70; and so, where is there left to go?

Gene Tunney is a gentle, quiet boy of simple tastes. He can lick anybody in the world; but he doesn't want to lick anybody. He has a lot of money and nothing to do with it.

AMUSING THEMSELVES

It is a good thing that Congress and the Trade Commission are making an intensive investigation of "block booking" in the movies; it keeps them from other mischief—even if it never gets anywhere.

They can legislate from now till kingdom come, but there will always be block booking. Block booking means that in order to get the frosting and the candied cherries you have to buy the cake.

FREE INFORMATION

A gentleman writes to me in a state of towering indignation. He had asked me who paid for Will Durant's education; and I did not answer.

I have a brilliant idea in this connection: Write to Mr. Durant; I bet he knows. Certainly I do not.

Further, I don't know where you can send your manuscripts to be read; I don't know what's the matter with editors; I don't know how many times John Gilbert has been married, or why; I don't know Greta Garbo's real name; I don't know why the City Engineer has dug up the pavement in front of somebody's house on Umpty street.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE

Senator Tom Heflin seems to be running dry of outrages.

The best he could do in the Senate yesterday was to rumble about the "Pope's flag" having, by a hideous conspiracy, been raised at Navy mastheads over the Stars and Stripes.

The flag in question is the chaplain's flag, which is the only bunting ever to fly above the national standard—indicating that we place God above patriotism. Somebody ought to give Roaring Tom a dictionary with the flags and things printed in colors on the back page.

Better still, if somebody would only toss the lad a real good lusty outrage to get his teeth in!

CLARA PHILLIPS DENIED SUPPORT

More Opposition to Plea for Parole Takes Form

Sheriff's Office Not to Back Plan for Freedom

Neither Will 'Tiger Woman's' Efforts be Fought

Additional opposition to any effort to obtain a parole for Clara Phillips, hammer murderess, now serving a ten-year to life sentence at San Quentin for killing Alberta Meadows, developed yesterday as county law enforcement officials took cognizance of the reported plan of friends of the convicted woman to ask the State Prison Board to rule on a petition at the June meeting.

From members of the Sheriff's forces it is learned that no support may be expected from that organization to aid in procuring the freedom of the "tiger woman" under the 1927 act, which may make her eligible for parole next month, with a minimum of five years served. Atty.-Gen. Webb is expected to give a formal ruling on the provision of the legislative act of last year, which reduced the penalty for second-degree murder to five years, and which may be retroactive in the case of those prisoners who were incarcerated at the time of its effective date. Under new law in effect in June, 1923, when Clara Phillips was sent to San Quentin, she would not be eligible for parole consideration until the June calendar, 1933.

Undersheriff Biscailuz, who returned the murderess from Tegucigalpa, Honduras, following her escape from jail here in December, 1922, yesterday in explaining the attitude that will be carried out by the Sheriff's office, said that no support of the parole move will be tendered, and neither will he offer opposition.

"At the time Clara Phillips was brought back from Honduras," Biscailuz said, "there were no promises of aid should she be convicted and eventually ask for parole. But in view of her agreement to return to Los Angeles for trial, it was tacitly agreed, following her promise to come back without extradition papers, that I would not offer objections to a parole petition when, and if, she should ever become eligible.

"I carefully pointed out to the escaped prisoner that it was my duty to return her to California for trial, and that any efforts her friends might make to procure her freedom on parole would be without the province of the Sheriff's office. She was told that no opposition would be made to her parole move, but that she could not expect any suggestion of approval. It was with this understanding that she returned to this country without formal extradition papers."

HOSPITAL DAY PROCLAIMED

Mayor Cryer yesterday issued a proclamation calling attention to the nation-wide observance next Saturday of National Hospital Day, to acquaint the public with the work American hospitals are doing. The Mayor in his proclamation said:

In compliance with the solicitation of the American Hospital Association, and in keeping with the action of the city executives throughout the United States, I hereby proclaim Saturday, May 12, 1928, as National Hospital Day.

The object of this procedure is to encourage the public to visit some hospital on May 12 so that they may become acquainted with the methods of conducting such institutions, the curative, educational, and research activities, and to dispel the old-time fear of the hospital in so far as possible; and to register the conviction that the modern hospital of today is a most important and essential public utility and a vital link in the public health and welfare program.

SPUR TRACK APPLICATION CONSIDERED

Oswald Company's Rock Crusher Case Heard by Public Utilities Board

Protests from a delegation of property owners and residents in the vicinity of Tenth avenue and Sixty-seventh street against granting the application of the Santa Fe Railway for permission to construct a spur track across Tenth avenue to the Oswald Paving Company plant were heard by the Board of Public Utilities yesterday and taken under advisement. Petitions signed by 366 persons against the spur track and other petitions in favor of it were submitted.

There now is pending before the court a suit against the maintenance of the plant in the district as a nuisance. The Southwest Protective Association was the principal protester, while the Board of Education opposed the plan as a danger to children attending the Hyde Park school.

Railway representatives explained that the request for a spur track is for the purpose of simplifying switching operations rather than adding to them.

Granting of the application, it is said, would legalize the spur track across Tenth avenue, which is what a majority of the residents do not want.

Applications for permission to operate a new bus service from Pico Heights to the Hollywood business district, and from Edendale to Sixth and Hill, Los Angeles, were deferred.

Echo of Union's War on Dyers Heard in Court

Echoes of the recent union labor troubles in the dry-cleaning industry were heard yesterday in the court of Superior Judge Gould. The case is that of Ida Harman against Louis Bachrack. Miss Harman obtained a $50 judgment in Small Claims Court as damages for the destruction of a dress sent to him for cleaning. The case was carried to Superior Court on an appeal heard yesterday.

According to the testimony, the plaintiff took a dress to Bachrack for cleaning, he being an agent for the Alex Dye Works. While the garment was in the process of cleaning, it, along with a number of others, was ruined.

The dye works asserts the clothing was ruined by a "shock," or an act of syndicalism brought about by union labor troubles at the plant and that it or its agents are not responsible for the destruction of the garment.

Judge Gould took the case under submission following the taking of testimony.

She Aims at B Flat But Slips, So Suit Results

In the key of C, may be, Mrs. Ruth Lipton can get along very nicely. But if it goes into G or F, she stumbles at F sharp or B flat, and take, for instance, the Rachmaninoff prelude—well, it's awful, according to her lawsuit which is being tried before Judge Bowron in the Superior Court.

Because, Mrs. Lipton says, ever since that automobile accident, she just cannot hit the black keys with any accuracy at all. Her hand is too stiff, she asserts. And so she wants $25,000 in damages from May M. Early.

Mrs. Early, on the opening day of the trial yesterday, did not attempt to say whether Mrs. Lipton's inability to strike the black keys is worth $25,000. Her stand, as set forth in her complaint, is that the accident resulted from Mrs. Lipton's driving too fast.

Trial of the case will continue today.

Crawford Faces Court Because of Auto Death

After hearing testimony, Municipal Judge Stafford continued until this morning the preliminary hearing of Charles T. Crawford, district manager of a safety-razor company, charged with manslaughter and failure to give aid as a result of the death on April 4, last, of Morris O. Peterson, 58 years of age, of 2007 Ocean View avenue.

Commander John H. Blackburn, U.S.N., inspector of recruiting for ten Western States, called by the defense as a character witness out of turn so that he can return to San Francisco, completed his testimony as court closed.

Dep. Dist.-Attys. Ham and Kemp are prosecuting Crawford.

FIRST GOODRICH TIRES SHIPPED

Initial Carload Sent From Plant Here

Celebration at New Factory

The first shipment of locally made automobile tires from the new Pacific Goodrich Company's tire plant yesterday started north to San Francisco for distribution. The shipment took place within four days after formal opening of the factory.

Representatives of the company, the Chamber of Commerce and the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific companies participated in the ceremonies of loading the first car from the city's newest industrial plant, located in the Union Pacific industrial tract No. 5.

The car was switched to the local railroad yards and a few hours after loading was started on its journey over the Southern Pacific to San Francisco. Approximately 2000 automobile tires comprised the initial shipment, which was loaded under the supervision of L. C. Wolfe, traffic manager for the Goodrich company.

THREATS TO 'GET' COURT JOBS DENIED

Miss Millett Adjudged Guilty of Violating State Building Act

Vigorously denying statements attributed to her that she would "get the jobs" of everybody connected with Municipal Judge Frederickson's court, Sally Van D. Millett was given a suspended sentence yesterday following conviction on a charge of violating the building ordinance.

Miss Millett, declaring she was a school chum of Grace Coolidge, wife of the President, told attaches of the court, according to Deputy City Prosecutor Ida V. Wells, that she would have them "fired" if she was found guilty.

Judge Frederickson adjudged her guilty of building a balcony that protruded over her residence at 1424 Magnolia street in violation of the State Housing Act. He then questioned her about her asserted statements. She indignantly denied uttering them.

Judge Frederickson fined the defendant $100, which he suspended with the provision Miss Millett improve her property to conform with the building laws.

U. S. C. WILL PAY HONORS TO MOTHERS

Campus Arranges Program Today With 500 Parents Expected to Attend

Mother's Day will be celebrated on the campus at the University of Southern California today when approximately 500 mothers of students, many coming from States other than California, visit their sons and daughters during an all-day program.

Under auspices of the Young Women's and Young Men's Christian Associations the annual event is scheduled to be opened with a special chapel program in Bovard Auditorium at 10 o'clock this morning. William Henley, president of the Trojan student body, will preside.

Fraternity and sorority houses will open their doors to the mothers at noon and entertain with luncheons.

A May fete to be conducted in the garden of President Rufus B. Von KleinSmid's residence, 718 West Adams street, at 4 p.m., will mark the afternoon's program. Co-eds in costumes of all nations will dance as a part of the program.

Banquets at the Y.W.C.A. and the Y.M.C.A. will close the day. Rosita Hopps and Stanley Hopper, presidents of the two organizations, are to be in charge during the day.

Red or white carnations are to be worn by the Trojan students in honor of the mothers. The parents attending will be given favors by co-ed campus organizations.

REXORD PROTESTS LISTED FOR TODAY

The City Council this morning will hear protests against the improvement of streets in the Roxford avenue and Borden street improvement district.

Exposition Will Be Well Backed by Los Angeles

Judging by the number of reservations made last week by Los Angeles concerns for exhibition space with the Pacific Southwest Exposition in Long Beach this summer this city will likely dominate all others in the matter of products display.

A few of the space reservations received to date include the Standard Oil Company, Shell Oil Company, Union Oil Company, Richfield Oil Company, Western Oil Company, Barker Brothers, General Electric Corporation, Frigidaire Company, Italian Vineyards, Albert Brothers Milling Company, Pacific Clay Products, Pacific Knitting Mills, Simon Levi, Globe Grain and Milling Company, Arrowhead Water Company, virtually all the leading real estate firms, Malibu Potteries, Singer Sewing Machine Company, Electrical Products Company, California Dairy Council, Portland Cement, Pioneer Paper Company, Fairbanks-Morse, Sunset Sanitary Corporation, United States Spring and Bumper Company and many heating and plumbing firms and oil equipment concerns.

The exposition will open July 27.

CITY GOVERNMENT TO ASSIST LON GBEACH

That the Los Angeles city government be fittingly represented in the parade and celebration to be held at Long Beach on May 26 to mark the dedication of the Pacific Southwest Exposition was urged at yesterday's Council meeting by Councilman Colden. He said that the entire Council should take part in the parade headed by the Fire Department band.

Councilman Randall urged a Los Angeles city exhibit at the exposition.

GIRL TAKES POISON AFTER PUNISHMENT

Because she was punished by her mother, according to police, 15-year-old Dorothy Lubert of 3972 South Hobart Boulevard attempted suicide by swallowing poison at her home yesterday. She was given emergency treatment at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital and is expected to recover. The mother, Mrs. Olga Lubert, inflicted the punishment, police report, after the girl had stayed all night with a girl friend. Reprimanded when she returned home yesterday morning, Dorothy is said to have gone into the bathroom and consumed the poisonous drink.

SENSATIONS IN RUM TRIAL NEAR

Case of Orange ex-Officer and Prisoner Opens

Former Jailer Gives Details of Theft Conspiracy

Hearing Enlivened With Immunity Charge

Unusual revelations regarding the handling of liquor seized by Orange county dry officers were indicated yesterday when the trial of Claude Williams, formerly a prisoner in the Orange County Jail, and Ray Wallace, formerly a deputy sheriff in that county, began in United States District Judge Henning's court.

A jury was selected in the morning and testimony was begun in the afternoon with evidence given by Joe Irvine, formerly assistant jailer at the Orange County Jail. He was on the stand during the afternoon and detailed how he and others planned to steal twenty out of about 400 cases of liquor, secretly transferred by the Sheriff of that county from a cell in the jail to a room in the Courthouse.

MOTION DENIED

The court denied a motion on the part of Otto Christiansen, defense counsel, for a severence of the trial of Williams but granted a severance for H. L. Eldred, a clerk in the Orange County Assessor's office, and Ora Hobbs, said to have helped in secreting the assertedly stolen liquor, which the government charges amounted to eighty cases of Scotch.

Assistant United States Attorneys Gallagher and Armstrong in the examination of the first witness, Irvine, brought forth a statement from him that while he was at the jail he saw Mrs. Ann Philpot, mother of Madge Bellamy, motion-picture actress, visit Williams almost daily in the jail.

IMMUNITY CHARGED

The afternoon session was enlivened by an endeavor by Mr. Christiansen to get in evidence that Irvine, named in the indictment as a co-conspirator, but not as a defendant, had been given immunity from prosecution after he had been shown or told of an asserted statement by a former deputy Sheriff of Orange county. The jury was excused during the argument but the court refused to allow the testimony.

It was intimated that sensational testimony involving various persons will be introduced in the case. The case was continued until today, with Irvine still on the stand.

CLUB WOMEN SEE VICTORY

pathy and dollars no country in Europe could live. The boycott could be used to force arbitration, Mrs. Norris said. It would give time for international thought upon the justice of a difference of opinion between nations.

NEED SAFETY WEEK

"America is not an imperial nation and the hands of her women are free to act for the best interests of the country," Mrs. Norris concluded.

A challenge to conserve human life now needlessly lost in industrial, motor, submarine and airplane accidents was issued to the womanhood of the State by Will J. French of San Francisco, director of the State Department of Industrial Relations.

"Booze" was given credit for 9159 accidents out of a total of 20,019 last year. Deaths resulted in 1651 cases. The yearly increase in automobile deaths, nation-wide, is estimated at 2000, according to French.

"We need a safety week of 365 days," said the speaker. "More than 4000 school children were killed last year and more than half of these were in the middle of the blocks. A work of prevention by woman is needed," said French, and he quoted from a friend who said, "Whenever a woman driver puts out her hand, I know she is going to turn to the right or to the left or to wobble or go straight ahead."

He admitted, however, that all pleas for "personal liberty" in driving come to his department from men. Accidents now are among the leading causes of death lining up behind heart disease, tuberculosis, cancer, cerebral hemmorrhage and nephritis. Taking male deaths, accidents rank third. Mrs. Helen Holt of San Francisco is organizing here an organization of women to help prevent accidents. She will preside at a "safety breakfast" tomorrow morning.

which were awarded to his meat-packing firm.

Police Commissioner Thorpe, acting as president, announced that the commission can take no action regarding Webster as his resignation had not been brought officially before the board by the Mayor. Later in the day, Mayor Cryer addressed a letter to the commission informing them of Webster's resignation and instructing the board to elect a new president. Action probably will be taken tomorrow.

Yesterday it became known at the City Hall that Mayor Cryer has three names under consideration for appointment to the commission. While the Mayor refused to make any comment, it was rumored about the City Hall that one of the men being considered for the commission is Alfred E. Adams, secretary of the Retail Dry Goods Association.

Reports made public that City Prosecutor Lickley had split with Chief Davis and issued a sizzling statement, were denied by the prosecutor and a second report that Mayor Cryer had refused to see Chief Davis also was denied.

CONVERSION STATE LAWS ANALYZED

North Dakota Professor Discusses Possibilities in Law Review

"By way of caution it should be noted that the laws of California are codified and that some of the results reached through equitable conversion in other jurisdictions may be reached here under statute law," states Dean Orville B. Cockerill of the school of law of the University of North Dakota, and visiting professor in the law school of the University of Southern California, in an article headed "Equitable Conversion in California," appearing in the May issue of the Southern California Law Review.

The issue also contains an article on "Diplomatic Agents," by Francis Deak, research assistant to John Bassett Moore, former judge of the Permanent Court of International Justice. Another article is entitled "Vice and Traffic—Police Handicaps," with Chief of Police Vollmer of Berkeley as its author.

Editorial notes in the Law Review say that students in the Trojan law school come from sixty-three different colleges and universities.

LOT CLEAN-UP AREA OUTLINED

First Ordinance Presented to City Council

Notices Prepared for 1552 Wilshire District Plots

Work to Start Immediately After Protest Hearing

Inaugurating the second annual lot-cleaning campaign, designed to minimize the number of fires on vacant lots by removing dry grass and weeds, the first ordinance of intention was presented to the City Council yesterday. It covers twelve separate districts, comprising 1552 lots in the area bounded by Beverly Boulevard, Adams and Hoover streets and Arlington avenue.

Upon adoption of the ordinance, the day for hearing protests is set and notices will be posted on all affected lots in the district. These notices must be posted five days prior to the date set for hearing. After hearing protests, the Council will pass the final ordinance and the city then will commence the cleaning of all lots which have not been cleaned by property owners. The actual cleaning of lots by the city forces probably will start about June 1.

AUTHORITY CITED

This work will be done under authority of an act of the Legislature granting power to city officials to enter private property and destroy dangerous grass and weeds which might be a fire menace. The City Council, on April 11, last, granted authority to the City Engineer to employ certain personnel for this purpose.

With the funds appropriated and personnel allowed," City Engineer Shaw said, "it is estimated that about 10,000 lots will be cleaned before the authority expires. It is intended that the entire district bounded by Colorado street, Manchester avenue, Indiana street and Robinson street will be cleaned this summer.

COST GOES ON TAX

"All lots posted which have not been cleaned by property owners will be cleaned by city forces and the cost thereof will be charged against the property owners as a special assessment in their next year's taxes.

"This is only the second year this plan has been in effect and it has been discovered to be one of the most inexpensive methods of eliminating fires starting on vacant lots. Of the 9126 fires in Los Angeles during the last fiscal year, more than one-third, or 3103, were grass and rubbish fires."

Preacher Jailed for Attack on Gardena Woman

John Mish, Hermosa Beach real-estate operator and also a preacher in the Full Gospel Mission of the beach city, was arrested yesterday by Capt. John Neighbors in charge of the Sheriff's office Substation No. 3, charged with attacking Mrs. Rena Parker, 1050 Loretta street, Gardena. The officers were told Mish appeared at Mrs. Parker's home Monday morning and while threatening her with a revolver ordered her to prepare to elope with him. The theats were made in the presence of her daughter, Mrs. Etta Roark and Mrs. Violet Shellnut, according to Mrs. Parker's complaint.

Mish will be brought before Justice of the Peace Patterson of Gardena for arraignment on the charge on the 10th inst. at 10 a.m., according to Capt. Neighbors.

Traffic Death Manslaughter Charge Voided

On motion of Clarence B. Conlin, his attorney, charges of manslaughter against James Mumolo, growing out of the death of 7-year-old Dorothy Gilmore, were dismissed yesterday by Municipal Judge Baird.

The child died from a severed jugular vein on April 19, last, following a crash between the car driven by her mother, Mrs. Hazel Gilmore, and that of Mumolo at Sunset Boulevard and Vermont avenue.

Mumolo, according to testimony offered by the defense, was unable to avoid the accident when Mrs. Gilmore stopped her car abruptly in front of him. The child was the daughter of Patrolman Ralph C. Gilmore, 2955 Rimpau Boulevard.

Driver Jailed After Smash-up

Charged with failure to stop and aid after an accident, Roger Camp, 22 years of age, a transient chauffeur, was caught at Twenty-fifth and Hill streets yesterday, following a collision at Thirtieth and Figueroa streets, police report. No one was injured in the mishap.

PICNICS FOR THREE STATES

When the former residents of New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland meet Saturday in Sycamore Grove they will find county registers open to enable them to find old home State friends. President C. Newton Miller will supply a popular program of song and oratory and will provide silk badges and coffee. All who ever lived in these States are urged to meet the home folks again.

Jail Term Given Man Taken for Liquor Attack

Captured after he is asserted to have attempted to force liquor down the throat of a 16-year-old girl, Tom Estes, 27 years of age, a tile setter of 918 West First street, began serving a twenty-day sentence in the City Jail yesterday in lieu of a $100 fine imposed by Municipal Judge Ballard.

Estes pleaded guilty to possessing two pints of liquor, but denied a disturbing-the-peace charge. His trial before a jury will be set today by Municipal Judge Sheldon.

Miss Flora Crawford of the West First street apartment, reported that Estes entered her suite and seized her by the neck, attempting to force her to drink liquor. Her screams brought Mrs. Ray Luther, who summoned police.

Child Welfare Meet Scheduled

The annual child-welfare program of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, to which the cradle roll children and their mothers are invited, will be given tomorrow at 2 p.m. in the First Methodist Church. Mrs. Laura McClurkin, State vice-president, and Mrs. Hattie Doughty, county president, will speak.

KANSANS TO HAVE REUNION

Sleight-of-hand tricks by George Bunnell will feature the program at the Kansas reunion tomorrow evening in Veterans' Hall at 246 South Hill street. Mrs. John A. Bixler will sing, Dr. and Mrs. V. P. Ervin will give vocal and instrumental numbers and James Clark will give whistling and xylophone numbers. Following the program there will be dancing and sociability.

DRIVERS PENALIZED

Two Given Jail Terms as Speeders and One Fined as Road Hog

Found guilty of traffic violations in Municipal Court yesterday, W. C. Richwold was fined $50 and James Glen and A. J. Garcia sentenced to spend five days in the City Jail. Richwold, who lives at 507 North Foothill Boulevard, was ordered by Judge Hardy to pay the fine for being a "road hog."

Glenn, said to be the chauffeur for Lew Cody, cinema actor, received his punishment for driving fifty miles an hour in a twenty-mile zone, and Garcia, whose home address is 520 West Forty-second street, is charged with speeding at that rate in a fifteen-mile area. Glen appeared before Judge Reed, the other two being tried in Judge Hardy's court.

Today's Bible Text

O Lord, how manifold are Thy works! in wisdom has Thou made them all: the earth is full of Thy riches. Psalm civ:24.

FEW CONVICTIONS

It might be mentioned in passing that men of strong convictions seldom get on the jury.

NO LIMIT

The infinite variety of matters over which men and women can disagree seems never to wane. However, the man who wanted a divorce because his wife wouldn't let him keep chickens in the living-room has brought up a brand new issue.

OUR BIG SCHOOL

In all the world there are but two larger schools than the University of California, so it is reported from Berkeley. No great surprise will attend the announcement a few years hence that there is none as large. Californians go in for Education with a big "E."

NO CAN DO

An optimist is a spark who buys the marriage license before asking the girl. Anyhow, a swain did that thing in an eastern State the other day and now finds the license is a total loss. The young lady says she wouldn't marry him on a bet. Thus proving that you never can tell.

COMPLAISANT PARISIANS

It is reported from Paris that a German opera troupe, the first to sing in that city since the war, has taken the Parisians by storm. Too bad the Germans didn't think of this means of capturing the French capital in 1914. It would have saved them and the rest of the world a lot of trouble.

HIGH INTEREST

Mukden is the place for brokers to transact business. Chang Tso-lin, its present ruler, has been trying to force the Mukden paper dollar upon the people, and to do so he has devised a plan under which the government will pay 20 per cent interest for short-time loans. This is one way of raising the wind, but not by any means the cheapest.

NO HANGMAN

Colorado finds it difficult to get men to accept the job of hanging criminals. So it now has a new kind of automatic gallows. It worked quite successfully in the cases of two convicted murderers, who stepped on a trap and hanged themselves. Quite effective. Now, will somebody invent a similar system for those who contemplate murder?

PHYSIOLOGICAL ANALOGY

In the discussion of Dr. Millikan's new discovery, that "matter is being eternally created," and that some continuous creative force balances whatever disintegrating process goes on upon the earth, no one yet has observed how the theory seems to correspond to the processes of anabolism and catabolism which build up and tear down man's body, and which maintain a more or less metabolic balance.

BIG AS A WASHTUB

A drove of tortoises, each about as big as a washtub, has been imported from the Galapagos Islands and will be turned loose on the desert near Tucson to multiply and make glad the heart of the epicure. All very well, but the importers of these gentle beasts should remember how Australia fared when a flock of rabbits was released down there. In a breeding race between hare and tortoise the old fable might be repeated, as they say this washtub brand of turtle propagates and grows with amazing rapidity.

A SACRED PRIVILEGE

In the pleasant and thriving town of Upland the cheerful theory is advanced that a man and his wife may fight if they want to and it's nobody's business. In a recent family brawl the police, when summoned to the scene by the neighbors, did not interfere, the Chief agreeing with the husband that there might be a reason for fighting when the wife piled the husband to capacity with boxes and then got mad because he wouldn't carry one more. The question arises, would a policewoman have been so complaisant, or would she have jailed the box carrier?

NO CASE FOR LENITY

Whether or not Clara Phillips remains behind the bars of San Quentin five years longer, or whether she is released tomorrow, may make little difference when she is considered as an isolated individual. But a serious mistake will be made if the State Prison Board exercises its apparent option of freeing her, none the less; and the fundamental error would be in considering her as an isolated individual, not taking into account the example that lenity will set for other savages with the murder impulse.

The jury that found Mrs. Phillips guilty of murder in the second degree did so only after several ballots on which eight jurors stood out for the death penalty. She was sentenced to a minimum of ten years' imprisonment, as the law provided at that time, and public opinion considered that a victory for her and blamed the jury for letting her off so lightly. While awaiting the result of an appeal she flouted justice by contriving her escape from the old County Jail and was recaptured in Honduras. Her capture, trial, escape and recapture meant a very heavy expense to burdened taxpayers.

Last year the Legislature, in its wisdom, saw fit to change the minimum penalty for murder in the second degree to five years. The lawmakerr were not thinking of Clara Phillips when they did so; else they might have provided that the law should not be retroactive. Why the law was changed at all is something of a mystery; there was no public clamor for lightening the murder penalty. It now appears that this vicious and lawless woman may receive the benefit, and that instead of serving the ten years that was deemed small punishment at the time of her conviction, she may be freed next month, at the end of five.

Her parole, if granted, will be a reward for "good behavior!" What a strained construction must be placed upon these words when they are applied to Clara Phillips! She has been "good" in prison because she had to be, because, for the first time in her life, some restraint was placed upon her conduct. Let her actions when under restraint be contrasted with her actions when not under restraint, when she lured an unsuspecting young girl out on an automobile ride and beat her to death with a hammer, when she eloped from the County Jail with a man not the husband she professed to love with undying devotion, and it can readily be guessed from what source her "goodness" proceeds.

Five years have been taken by the State from Clara Phillips's freedom; but Clara Phillips subtracted fifty years from the life that Alberta Meadows had a right to live.

For the sake of other Alberta Meadowses, to protect potential victims of other headstrong and unruly persons of the Clara Phillips type, the State of California should keep this murderous young woman behind the bars just as long as the law permits. Clara Phillips should not be paroled in June this year, or any other year until she has served the full time of, at least, her original minimum sentence, paid all of the very light penalty required of her by the trial court.

PRINCE CAROL AGAIN

Prince Carol, ever-hopeful opportunist, probably has merely succeeded in cheating himself out of a sojourn in England during the most pleasant days of British weather by his manifesto declaring himself ready to assume the Rumanian throne. It is true that many thousand Rumanian peasants are marching upon Bucharest in protest against the present government, but there is very little to show that they are anxious to have Carol for their ruler and even less to indicate that they would be advantaged if he were.

Carol's remarks about his forced abdication amount to declaring that the papers he signed are not binding because he has changed his mind. Such a plea would not be recognized at law and may be dismissed as absurd. A measured opinion that Carol was not fit to govern Rumania or any other country was left as a heritage by the late king, his father, and it concurs with the opinion of the world. There is no longer, thanks to the League of Nations and other agencies, as much danger to world peace in Balkan intrigue as there once was, but the European chancelleries probably feel safer with Carol in Paris instead of Bucharest, and they will have a good deal of say in the matter.

The peasant demonstration has not assumed the character of a revolt, and probably will be ended by a compromise that will leave Carol farther from the throne than ever. In the meantime England has ordered out this pernicious self-advertiser for attempting to conduct a revolt on its soil, probably more to keep its record clear than because it attaches any importance to his efforts.

ALL WET

The burden of harmonizing the deliberations of the Democratic National Convention has been placed upon the shoulders of Claude G. Bowers, editorial writer on the staff of the New York Evening World. It is his responsibility to strike a keynote which will blend with all the other political sounds to come after his. His endeavor will be worthy of the skill and experience of a gifted editorial writer and if he succeeds in tuning up the convention without crashing discords he will win a place among the first diplomats of political conventions.

The wet and dry issue will be hard to write into the score of his political harmonies. If he fails to touch that strain at all, it will shortly after his exit come screaming into the auditorium like a calliope following the tiger's cage in a circus parade. If his speech is dry he will pitch the keynote a little flat for a large portion of the assembly and if it is all wet his keynote will be a little sharp for the remainder.

Even his own journal, the World, appears to be somewhat dubious concerning the ultimate stand, if any, of the probable Democratic nominee on the wet and dry issue. Avowedly wet as he is, Gov. Smith has become very reticent when prohibition is under discussion. Writing in the New York Morning World, an editorial writer explains that his paper is not prepared "to believe that evasion and ambiguity are to be the tactics of the courageous and plain-spoken man in American public life today." Perhaps he should have spoken of Smith as the man who used to be all that.

Keynoter Bowers to be on the safe side must at least listen for some time to Al's private practice or the Houston concern will be jazzy and discordant. Even such a genius as a writer of Democratic editorials cannot pitch the tune unless he knows whether it is to be played on a water organ or at a "pop concert" with beer and pretzels.

TO AID LOST FLYERS

To be lost in the sky is, it seems, almost as bad as being lost on the boundless brine. In either case you are all at sea. In so far as he can do so Will Rogers, in whom there is a practical streak as well as a jesting one, is going to try to make the air lanes easier of navigation. In all of his many adventures in the mixture of gases which forms the blue envelope of the planet he has found that the pilots have greater trouble in making out their locations in Kansas than in other parts of the country. So Will is going to begin with Kansas and see to it that when aviators pilot their skyboats over the wide-spreading cornfields and urban centers of commerce and industry of that State that they'll know precisely where they're at.

Will says he will furnish the paint if the Kansans will do the rest. He wants the paint to be used on the tops of the biggest barns in Kansas. The avidity with which his offer has been grabbed up by the Kansas citizenry bespeaks much barntop painting and much gladness in the hearts of those aviators who have been unable to tell Topeka from Wichita or Abilene from Salina, but now will be able to descry them from aloft.

The only possible complaint that is likely to arise because of Will's philanthropic act is that he will be spending half his time flying over Kansas gazing proudly at the barntops, and that the rest of the country will be neglected.

A STURDY GENERATION

Seventy-nine thousand strong! That is the boast of the veterans of the Civil War who soon will be preparing to celebrate the annual Memorial Day. These old heroes belong to a sturdy generation. To be a veteran of that war and still be counted in the ranks of the living means that if one were 20 at the close of the great conflict in 1865 one now would be 83. Even if one were a drummer boy of 15 at that time his age would be 78 this year. That there should be 79,000 of these survivors tells the tale of extraordinary tenacity of life on the part of these veterans.

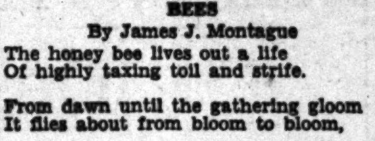
Taps have been sounded for 21,000 soldiers of that war since 1920, and the mortality is rapidly increasing, more than 1200 having passed away in March. But 79,000 remain as examples to the present generation which, if it would live to good old age, would do well to study the habits of life that have made these men of such sturdy stuff.

Doubtless there was something in the hardships these men endured in camp and battlefield that helped to build up the strong fiber that has lasted so long and in not a few cases may last for another decade or two. Out of extreme privation many a man has gained a new and firmer lease of life.

This truly remarkable record of longevity speaks well for the veterans' homes in which many of the old soldiers are passing their latter days. On the whole they must be fairly well managed to provide such means and conditions of survival.

WRITING BY PROXY

In the course of his lawsuit Jack Dempsey admitted that he did not even read the letters he was supposed to be writing to the press while training for the Firpo battle. Articles in the newspapers carrying his name did not even pass under his inspection. Likewise, Firpo, who could neither write nor speak intelligent English, was telling in graphic and luminous words about his fight while he was still lying in his dressing-room. In this connection it is also admitted that some of Babe Ruth's best descriptive literature was penned while that hero of the diamond was out of his head and in a hospital. The literary passion is so strong in our athletes that a knockout or a fit of insanity cannot interrupt its flow.



BEES

By James J. Montague

The honey bee lives out a life
Of highly taxing toil and strife.

From dawn until the gathering gloom
It flies about from bloom to bloom,

And gathers through the summer's heat
A lot of food it cannot eat.

The bumble bee has little zest
For anything but ease and rest,

But while he labors he employs
A deal of loud and useless noise

Which leads to the belief that he
Is busy as the honey bee.

Yet all that ever he lays by
Is just his needful food supply.

The honey bee in hives we pen
And make it gather sweets which men,

What time the autumn lamps are lit,
Proceed to take away from it.

To store upon their pantry shelves
And, through the winter eat themselves.

The bumble bee, shrewd canny drone,
Is in the meanwhile let alone.

Which shows that sometimes idleness
Is really quite a big success.

The LEE SIDE o' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

IT MADE us glad to learn it, so we take pleasure in passing the news along. O. Henry's place in literature is becoming secure and permanent. The book collectors, the folks who do a lot to hand a man down to posterity, are after his first editions, especially those he illustrated.

We learned this in the second-hand book stores of Los Angeles. A few months ago you could pick up O. Henry's for 15 or 20 cents, and sometimes they were included in those shelves marked "10c, 3 for 25." But now go browsing through the second-hand stores and you will find some marked $1.25, which was about what they sold for, brand new, twenty years ago.

And you can still find plenty of the "best sellers" of two or three years ago selling for from 10 to 25 cents.

Originals

It's the rather crude drawings of O. Henry which make many of these books valuable. And, speaking of originals, don't overlook the fact that the Cartoonists' Club of Los Angeles will have an exhibition of original drawings and paintings in the California Art Club, beginning May 15. There are more cartoonists and comic-strip artists of wide reputation in Los Angeles than in any other city, many of whom are well known abroad. They have the same touch in drawing that O. Henry had in writing, and in that exhibition you will see some pictures which have made people laugh or sigh all over our country and in many others.

A Stickler Stuck

Lee: What about "Doug" and his "Gaucho"? The correct spelling is guacho. See Webster's Dictionary. — A. Stickler.

Not our Webster, Stickle. It gives this definition: "Gaucho—A rider or cowboy of the pampas country of South America." You've evidently got confused by guachato, a South American bird, or person who makes squawky noises, or guaco, a South American vine.

A Difference

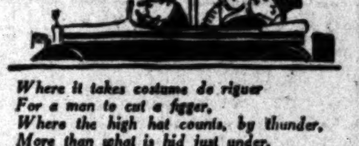
Anon. suggests that they ought to name that wonderful new mechanical man back east "Sim Crabill," because it says.

But Sim knows what he's talking about.

Where the East Begins

Where the blood's a little thinner
And they will call supper dinner,
Where the matrons are more placid
And the spinster maids more acid,
That's where the East begins.

Where the boosters are less noisy
And the girls not quite so boysy,
Where the handshake is more droopy
And the neighbors are more snoopy,
That's where the East begins.



Where it takes costume de riguer
For a man to cut a figger,
Where the high hat counts, by thunder,
More than what is hid just under,
That's where the East begins.

Where they're not so crude and shrile
And have dignity by the barrel,
Where society's less a mixture
And man more a polished fixture,
(For our "juice") the East begins.

BYRON DUDD.

Modern Mothers

Lee: Modern mothers are depicted in films as gay ladies who leave the children to rear themselves while they, the sweet mamas, step out. But evidence here says, "No." Any skeptic should make observations near any public school at assembling time. The streets are jammed with mothers driving cars of all prices, bringing their children and their neighbors' to school. Again at dismissal time they are there to carry the kids home. Did mothers do any better in the generation before, when kids trudged a mile to school, or in the generation before that, when they trudged five miles? . . . And yet, what a lot they miss. The little girls never know the delights of having their pigtails pulled. And where do the boys stage their fights? Ah, those were the happy days.—W. A. S.

Cheer Up

Don't be too blue, Was. There still are cigarettes to walk a mile for, it is alleged. And as for the mothers, maybe they know that's the only way to get modern kids home.

Issue Misunderstood

LOS ANGELES, May 4.—[To the Editor of The Times:] The day before election several friends who own property called upon me asking as a personal favor that I would vote against the airport, giving as a reason that taxes already were burdensome and if $6,000,000 were to be met, it would be most terrible for those owning property. It was the tax payers who worked against the issue and tried to make others feel it an unfriendly act to vote for it and thus have burdens increased. So you see the issue was not understood in that the airport could be made self-sustaining. This self-sustaining should be made conspicuous, if it comes to a vote again. I confess, being somewhat hurried, I myself did not understand the issue, though I gladly pay taxes for a public benefit.

Smells to Heaven

LOS ANGELES, April 28.—[To the Editor of The Times:] A street in the residential part of the city lined with palms, underneath garbage pails standing. This is the third day. Isn't that a beautiful picture?

Don't suppose a property owner on this street pays less than $200 a year in taxes, and we have this unsightly and unsanitary condition all the time; have had for months.

Instead of automobiles and drivers for the city fathers let us have garbage wagons and drivers enough to keep our streets clean.

A Chinese Puzzle

LOS ANGELES, May 4.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In trying to inform myself about the California community property law and the law of the descent of property I found it to be a conglomeration of crude ideas, admitting of many interpretations. It is truly the most abominable mass of uncertainties ever put into a statute book. It would be no credit to a bunch of lunatics from an institution for the mentally defective, to credit them with the authorship of said law. I am heartily ashamed of and disgusted with the "supposed" law. No one knows for certain what it means.

Charity Doesn't End There

LOS ANGELES, May 6.—[To the Editor of The Times:] The letter by "American Jew" in The Times of May 4 says, charity begins at home. He was right if we are sure some one is neglected, but at the same time our brethren in far Europe need help.

The American Jew can be down, but never out. Our private charitable institutions are crowded, but this over-crowdedness is being adjusted all the time. Old buildings make way for new.

The opportunities in this country for Jews and Christians are marvelous. There is not that mob persecution against a race that exists in parts of Europe.

The European Jews must be helped, those who are down and need a footing to get some place. The world is too divided yet in religious opinion to think for a moment that the European Jews will get help otherwise than from their own. They are helped sometimes from unknown sources in Europe that we know nothing about, but at the same time the Jew in America, if he can, should help his brethren not only here, but at the farthest corner of the earth.

Don't Want to Be 'Rested

GARDENA, May 2.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Lissen, Mister Editor! I live way out in the sticks on So. Main St. 'N don't never git to see mutch of modern City life, 'Cept when I come up there to the City, I'm jist a dyin' to loaf two or three days in Pershing Square, among the bares 'n dears 'n the blackbirds 'n pigeons, But I'm scairt of the Police, You see I ain't very prosperous lookin, that is, I wear common clothes 'n have the appearance of a pore workin' man. 'N I don't want to be a rested 'n have some criminal charge placed opposite my name when I ain't done nothin'. Do you reckon I'd git a rested if I sat down on a bench in Pershing Square? If I thot I wouldn't I'd shore love to loaf there two or three hours a day for two or three days. The Judge told 'em they had no right to a rest a hard workin' man jist 'cause he didn't shave for two days and was settin' on a bench in Pershing Square, If I thot they'd take me before that Judge I'd come up tomorra mornin, But I'm a feered they wouldn't so I'm goin' to Long Beach, where they ain't so darn paticl'ar 'bout how a feller dresses 'n the Officers are on the look out for crooks.

LIVE GAS PLANT

A plant that generates gas which can be lighted with a match is described in the British scientific journal Nature, by W. A. Hamor, assistant director of the Mellon Institute of Industrial Research of Pittsburgh. The plant is known botanically as dictamnus albus, and in common speech as dittany. It grows in Southern Europe and Central Asia. It is covered with glands that secrete a volatile oil, which, in hot weather, apparently evaporates, making the air about the plant inflammable.

JUST WHAT IS CIVILIZATION?

BY BAILEY MILLARD

"Man," said Dr. Charles H. Mayo, in a recent Los Angeles interview, "is still only half-civilized."

Dr. Mayo does not enjoy quite so great a reputation as a philosopher as a surgeon, but every little while he plumps out some chunk of philosophy, generally critical of the social order, though rarely if ever cynical. His view of man as only half-civilized may be considered natural in a way, as he has looked at life's ugliest angle, that of disease and suffering.

His idea that we are only 50 per cent civilized, based on the remarkable experience of one who has plumbed the depths of humanity in more senses than one, is arresting. At once it gives rise to the question: What is 100 per cent civilization? Dr. Mayo would be wise, indeed, if he could answer that question, for civilization is something that never really has been defined. Guizot wrote a book about it, but did not define it beyond saying that it is "an improved condition of man," and "might exist in various degrees."

We usually suggest civilization by negations or antonymic expressions. A people that has no arts, no social order and little or no clothing we call barbaric or uncivilized. Culture and good government are the best measures of civilization. Right here it is seen that the term is ambiguous and is one of relative application, for there are various degrees of culture and various kinds of government, and one would hesitate to say that a people which did not have the highest degree of each was not civilized.

It is all in the point of view. Matthew Arnold, writing of our civilization, criticised it most severely. He said that we lacked spirituality and made the machinery of our progress an end in itself. Thoreau considered money-makers uncivilized, and said that "to make money merely is to be idle and worse." But Dr. Johnson said that "men are seldom more innocently employed than when they are making money." Take your choice.

The optimist accepts and answers the challenge of Arnold as to our lack of spirituality by saying that despite all our hurly-burly habits, our proneness toward the worship of wealth and the fact that we do not always take advantage of our wonderful human privileges under a beneficent government, we recognize the value of religion and of culture, never really lose sight of the ideal, and always are aspiring. We hate graft and other manifestations of political corruption. We want the best men to govern us, and always stand ready to denounce immoral or ignoble ones.

Dr. Mayo hardly would deny the existence of these prevailing sentiments, so characteristic of our countrymen and of the mass of men everywhere save in the most benighted lands. To say that we are half-civilized is to bring rather a severe indictment against us, considering the fact that nobody ever has told us precisely what civilization is save that it is a degree of progress, and is susceptible of continual improvement. Who doubts our progress or improvement? We are at a point where war is generally execrated, and all the leading nations are out to suppress warlike tendencies. Culture, including the recognition of true values in art and music, is at its historical peak. Our views may have changed as to religious forms, but not as to true religious or moral worth. True we have crime waves, but for the first time in human history a general and determined effort is being made to strike at the root of crime by educating the young away from it. Our civilization is by no means spotless—that everybody will admit—but it has made many wonderful performances in the last fifty years and has cleared the ground for many more.

So, with other optimists, I am inclined to think that to say we are only half-civilized is putting it a little too strong. There is no harm in speaking of our race as civilized. The true test of civilization is the kind of man a country turns out, and we have been turning out some mighty fine ones, among them Dr. Mayo.

BATTLES OF BRIDGE

Things have changed since Charles Lamb wrote of Mrs. Battle's opinions on the polite game of whist. The discussion now is all about the opinion of bridge players on the battles of the game. Recently in Chicago a nationally known exponent of the game of bridge confessed that the game is too highly controversial to be always enjoyable. "There's too much fussing with your partner in it," he says; "too much scrapping over cards. That makes it unpleasant."

There is a pleasing, refreshing note in the practised etiquette of the tennis courts and the golf courses. It is strange that there should be more courtesy out under the open sky than in richly decorated drawing-rooms. The opinion of bridge battles set forth by one of its leading experts should serve to call attention to the fact that the country's most popular card game needs a little refining as to spirit and the sporting conduct of those who play it or play at it.

A DOG PATIENT

At Hoquiam, Wash., a common dog without a pedigree, but with a broken leg, appeared in front of a hospital. He hung around as if he knew what he wanted, sounding an occasional faint wail. He was admitted, put on the operating table and his leg "set." He came back the next day of his own accord to have it dressed in good hospital style.

PATIENT AT SEA AIDED BY RADIO

Receiving Hospital Surgeons Here Order Treatment Via Wireless

Giving treatments at sea by radio was added to the functions of surgeons at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital yesterday. A message was received from the S.S. Oneida, 700 miles at sea, asking for a diagnosis in the case of a man injured on board and advice as to what to do for him.

No details of the mishap were given but the radiogram contained a description of the patient's condition. After a consultation a reply was sent recommending a course of of treatment.

DIRECTOR OF TRUSTS ASKED FOR

Council Urged to Name Official to Act Under Charter Provision

The Board of Trust Commissioners, created by the new charter under provisions by which the city, through the board, can provide for the financing of homes for working people, yesterday asked the Council to authorize the board to appoint a director of trusts at a salary of $7200 a year to manage the department.

The trust provisions of the charter were sponsored by the late William Mead who saw the workings of similar city home building trust funds in European cities.

OLYMPIC AID FUND GIVEN GOOD BOOST

All $100 Boxes for Finals at Coliseum in June Sold; Total of $100,000 Needed

Swelling the local Olympic fund $1100, all $100 boxes for the Southwest Olympic finals have been sold. This was announced yesterday by Harold B. Franklin, chairman of the show committee of the mammoth athletic carnival and entertainment to be held June 16 at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

The first $100 box was purchased by Miss Winifred Dunn and Mrs. Irwin P. Furman, chairman and vice-chairman, respectively, of the women's committee. Two boxes were purchased by Mrs. E. L. Doheny, Sr. Others who bought large boxes are Jackie Coogan, Jr., Jack Dempsey, Maurice De Mond, Jean Hersholt, the First National studios, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thomson, Mrs. Hal Wrenn and Mrs. Grace Blaizer.

The June 16 show must raise the Los Angeles quota of $100,000 toward sending American athletes to the Olympic Games in Amsterdam this summer. Public sale of tickets is going on at the B. H. Dyas Company, Seventh and Olive streets. Mail orders are filled at 1116 West Washington.

SENNETT BEAUTIES TO DISPLAY BATHING TOGS

NEWS OF THE CAFES

A parade of mannequins displaying the latest in sport, street and evening dress will be a feature of the specially arranged program in Brandstatter's Montmartre Cafe this evening. Miss Kay Hammond will be guest of honor and will award the cup to the winners of the dancing contest which will be held during the evening. Other novel musical features have been planned by Vince Rose and Jack Taylor's Montmartre Orchestra.

COLLEGIANS AT MIRAMAR

"College Night" will be celebrated next Friday evening in the Miramar Hotel, Santa Monica, when sororities, fraternities and other college students will join in a jubilee starting at 2:30 p.m. in the New Miramar Beach Club, where a swim frolic and other sports are to be enjoyed until 5:30 p.m. Dinner then will be served in the Miramar Hotel, with dancing until midnight to music by Roland Backer's "Delight Makers." "It's a night of youth," said Edwin Lee, manager, "and everything will be done to assure the young folk several hours of real fun."

JOFFRE SISTERS DEPART

Bill Paine, host of the Vernon Country Club, gave a farewell party last night in honor of Velma and Ena Joffre, cousins of Marshal Joffre of France. The Joffre sisters have been featured in this popular night club for the past month in the latest dance creations from Paris. The entertainers are leaving for Chicago to fill a contract with a night club of that city.

NAVAJO DECORATIONS

Navajo blankets, Indian baskets and symbols are the interior decorations of the Navajo Cafe, just off Hollywood Boulevard on Cahuenga avenue. Mrs. Helena Heath Purnell, hostess, formerly operated the cafe in the Maryland Hotel and the Sunshine Tea Room in San Diego. Home cooking and pastries are featured in the Navajo Cafe, noon and evening.

PRIVATE CHOP SUEY ROOMS

Privacy and excellent oriental cuisine are featured in the Blue Bird Chop Suey Parlor, Sunset Boulevard near Cahuenga avenue, Hollywood. The large number of small private rooms afford patrons the pleasure of dining in seclusion. The Blue Bird is one of the oldest chop suey restaurants in Hollywood.

WOMEN HOLD CONFERENCE

Division Officers of Confederate Daughters Meet for Preconvention Session

Preceding the formal opening last evening of the twenty-eighth annual convention of the California division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, division officers met yesterday afternoon at the Huntington Hotel, convention headquarters, for a preliminary executive session. This gathering was for the discussion of plans and issues which will come before the first business meeting this morning. Mrs. Rudolph F. Blankenburg of San Diego, State president, conducted the proceedings, which lasted throughout the afternoon.

Beginning last evening with a reception in honor of the visiting officers, the convention will continue through the 11th inst. Mrs. Will M. Ritchey is chairman of the convention and presided at the opening reception.

Division officers who attended the executive session in the afternoon were Mrs. Blankenburg, Mrs. J. W. Wilhoit, Mrs. E. F. Scattergood, Mrs. G. C. Stribling, Mrs. M. H. Allison, Miss Kathryne Burkett, Mrs. F. B. Harrington, Mrs. B. A. Davis and Mrs. J. R. Kemp.

CRIME LESS, DAVIS TELLS CITY BOARD

Commissioners Assured Auto Thefts and Hold-ups Decrease

A reduction of 8 per cent in the volume of robberies and burglaries in the city and 10 per cent in automobile thefts for the month of April compared with the total for March, 1927, was reported to the Board of Police Commissioners yesterday by Chief of Police Davis. He declared there was a decided decrease in the amount of crime committed in the city during March, compared with the total for February.

The outstanding feature in April, he reported, was the arrest of Severrano Rodriguez, known as "Jack the Ripper," whose activities in police reports were that he had slashed the dresses of thirty-two women. Rodriguez was given 180 days in jail.

The Chief reported that five sessions of the police traffic school had been held and that of 1482 officers who had taken the examination all but twenty-eight had passed with a percentage of 85, when 75 was all that was necessary.

Mothers Here Blessed With Good Health

The business of being a mother in Southern California apparently is a task conferring long life and good health in more than average degree, it appears from scores of letters flowing into the offices of the California Dairies, Inc., in connection with the company's search for Los Angeles' oldest mother.

Launched last week by St. Cyr Hookstratten, vice-president of the dairies, the search so far has revealed fifteen maternal parents who have to their credit ninety summers or more. The company's objective is to honor the oldest mother in the city on Mother's Day, Sunday, with the gift of a replica in ice cream and almond paste of a mother's book.

Negro to Face Murder Trial

Attentions paid his white wife actuated Vernon Paul Green, negro, of 2012 Griffith avenue, to shoot and kill Leo King, another negro, according to testimony adduced yesterday by Dep. Dist.-Attys. Menzies and McLaughlin before Municipal Judge Baird.

Green appeared at King's home at 859 East Twentieth street on the night of April 30, last, and fired several shots at him, resulting in King's death at the Georgia-street Hospital the following day, the prosecution charges.

Judge Baird ordered Green held for trial on the murder charge and fixed bail at $15,000 at request of Attorney C. S. Price.

FILMS PLAN TO INVADE ALL EUROPE

First National Plans to Widen Scope of Activity Told by President

First National Pictures, Inc., definitely has gone into the business of producing films in Europe, Clifford B. Hawley, president of the organization, here conferring with Watterson R. Rothacker, vice-president and managing director at the company's studios in Burbank, announced yesterday.

Two production affiliations already have been made, one in England and one in Germany, Hawley said, and eight feature films have been completed for release.

"In Germany First National has set up a production organization second to none, called Defu-First National," Hawley declared. "The studios are in the heart of Berlin, where several hundred employees work under direction of Ray Rockett, formerly a producer at the Burbank studios. Three pictures, 'Dancing Vienna,' with Ben Lyon and Lya Mara; "The Phantom Airman,' with an all-star cast, and 'The Circus of Life,' also with an all-star cast, are ready for release.

"Five pictures have been completed by our London organization, known as First National-Pathe, Ltd. Several units from here will be sent abroad to make special features, Hawley said.

Funeral Rites of Miss Rouzee Set Tomorrow

Funeral services for Miss M. Winifred Rouzee, 45 years of age, will be conducted in the First Presbyterian Church of Hollywood, Gower and Carlos streets, tomorrow at 3 p.m. with Dr. Stewart MacLennan officiating. Interment will be in Hollywood Cemetery.

Miss Rouzee, who has been ill for several months, died the 7th inst. She was Bible teacher of the college class of the Hollywood Presbyterian Church and prominently identified with church work. She was connected with the National Bible Institute of New York City for many years, the Los Angeles Bible Institute for the past six years, and spent several years in China.

A memorial service will be conducted in the Hollywood Presbyterian Church Sunday at 3:30 p.m. Miss Rouzee leaves no immediate relatives.

INFORMANT JAILED

Evidences of Drink Found After Automobile Crash

Clare F. Young, 35 years of age, of 2643 Bedford street, called the police department Monday night when his automobile collided with a car driven by Duane Davis, 4209½ Burns avenue, at Crown Hill avenue and Columbia street. Detective Lieutenants Roberts and Hickey began an investigation that ended in the Receiving Hospital, when Dr. Renfrew pronounced Young intoxicated. Then the officers appeared before Dep. Dist.-Atty. Judson and obtained a complaint against Young charging him with driving an automobile while intoxicated.

FROM THE DIARY OF A SUCCESSFUL HOSTESS

I enjoyed the sorority luncheon at the Premiere today more than ever before. Perhaps it was because the president was absent and the program committee without a program—we didn't have a speech, not even a "three-minute" one . . . But I would have had a good time anyway, the mood I was in, and the appetite I had. Everything, from bouillon to that delicious Apple Sauce Cake, just tasted "too good to swallow," as Jim would say.

SOCIETY

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY

The Little Church of the Flowers in Glendale was the setting chosen by Miss Frances Catherine Hartzell for her wedding last evening with Neil Robert Campbell, the ceremony being read by Dr. John M. Schaefle in the presence of relatives and friends. The dainty bride, given in marriage by her uncle, George Alanson Hart, was charming in a gown of white satin and lace, the long veil of tulle caught into a cap of lace and pearls, and held in place by sprays of orange blossoms, and she carried an arm shower of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Miss Rose Elizabeth Daum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Daum, assisted as maid of honor, wearing a charming model of green tulle and carried a shower of Premier rosebuds, while Miss Carmen Morrell, the bridesmaid, was in peach tulle and carried Butterfly roses.

George De Forrest Home served Mr. Campbell as best man and the ushers included Myers Dutte and Neal Clements.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Ruth Brauer presided at the organ and also played the wedding marches, while Mrs. Neil Hastings (Monna Hayes) sang "All for You," "Oh, Promise Me" and "At Dawning."

Following the ceremony there was a wedding supper in the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George De Forrest Home (Lucie Hartzell,) 1152 Longwood avenue, for relatives and the bridal party, after which Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left for a bried honeymoon trip, and later will go east to Chicago and New York and make their home in Big Rapids, Mich.

Mrs. Campbell, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. George Alonzo Hart, has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. Home, since the return of the George De Forrest Homes from New York. She was graduated from Cumnock School and has a host of friends in the Southland, who are regretting her going east to live.

Mr. Campbell, who was graduated from the Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1926, is the son of Dr. and Mrs. James B. Campbell of Big Rapids, with whom they will visit until their own home is decided upon. Mr. Campbell has just resigned from the United States Navy and was detailed aboard the U.S.S. Arizona with the Pacific Fleet.

Mrs. Home received her guests in a Chanel model of pink chiffon and a shoulder bouquet of baby orchids, while Mrs. Hart wore yellow chiffon heavily beaded in rhinestones and a shoulder bouquet of orchids.

Announces Betrothal

One of the lovely affairs of the week was the luncheon with which Miss Cosette Cook, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward J. Cook of 1155 Elden avenue, entertained Monday afternoon in the Los Angeles Country Club, honoring her brother's fiancee, Miss Margaret Burrall, whose wedding with Thomas Lyons Cook will be an event of this afternoon in All Saints Church, Beverly Hills. The occasion also served to formally announce Miss Cook's betrothal to Robert Nathan Wiley, son of Mrs. E. R. Wiley of this city. No date is set as yet for the wedding, which, however, will be an event of the summer.

The news was told by means of the corsage bouquets of lavender sweet peas and yellow roses, which formed the place favors, with tiny scrolls tied by satin ribbons bearing the names of the betrothed.

Miss Cook was graduated from Marlborough School and later from the Bennett's School at Millbrook, N. Y., while Mr. Wiley is an alumnus of the University of California.

The yellow and lavender color scheme was effectively carried out in the decorations and appointments of the luncheon, attractive place cards marking the covers for Miss Cook, Miss Burrall, Miss Peggy Quinlon, Miss Marjorie Gillelen, Miss Houston Jones, Miss Alice Wiley, Miss Virginia Schaefer, Miss Virginia Cruze, Miss Corrine Ross, Miss Katherine Reynolds, Miss Helen Conway, Miss Jewell Ussher, Miss Mary Stimson, Mrs. Alan Burton, Mrs. Burton Yarnell, Mrs. Edwin Julian Cutting, Mrs. Heber Fowler, Mrs. M. M. Bailey, Mrs. John Fredericks, Jr., Mrs. Charles Francis Forbes, Mrs. Albert Harrison, Mrs. Rowland Fance Lee, Mrs. Richard Stanley McCune, Mrs. James McRoberts, Mrs. Charles F. Noyes, Jr., Mrs. C. F. Partee, Mrs. Theodore E. Rackerby, Mrs. Garnet Cecil Rainey, Mrs. Carl Wittenberg, Mrs. Alfred Wilgus, Mrs. Briant Harris Wells, Mrs. Danford White, Mrs. Elmo York, Mrs. Burton F. Yarnell, Jr., and Mrs. Arch Little.

Gene East

Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Thomas of 2500 Eighth avenue with their two young daughters, Carolyn Jane and Barbara Ella Thomas, left yesterday afternoon for an extended visit in the East, to be met in Chicago by Mr. Thomas's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thomas of New Harmony, Ind., who are taking their grand-daughters to their home for a visit while their parents are on their trip which includes White Sulphur Springs, Va., where Mr. Thomas is a delegate to the bankers' convention. Later they will visit New York, Washington and other points of interest before returning to New Harmony for a visit. They will be away for at least six weeks.

Felicitations

Congratulations are being extended Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Moir (Phyllis Kemp) over the arrival last week of a tiny daughter, who is to be called Mary Suzanne Moir. Mrs. Moir is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Nesbitt Kemp of La Mesa Drive, Santa Monica.

Another recent arrival is the son who came Monday to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Mackay Longyear of 342 North McCadden Place. Mrs. Longyear was formerly Miss Elizabeth Boyle and this is the third son in the Longyear home.

To Visit Here

The many friends of Mrs. Earl Braithwaite Allan of Sheridan, Wyo., will be glad to know she is arriving today for a week or ten days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Franklin Perkins in the Biltmore.

Moonlight Ride

A moonlight horseback ride was greatly enjoyed by a number of students at Westlake School and the Junior College Friday evening. Chaperones included Mr. and Mrs. John Matthews, Miss Marianna Whittlesey and the directors of the Los Angeles Riding Academy, the party riding up over the ridge along Mulholland Driveway overlooking Beverly Hills. Among those riding were the Misses Georgia Crowell, Betty Janss, Elizabeth Tippey, Phyllis Petit, Nancy Stafford, Janet Dines, Elizabeth Colyear, Kathryn Gayle, Elizabeth Battle, Margaret and Jeanette Williams, Virginia La Fon, Yvonne Garnier, Marjorie Terry, Margaret Pfennig, Jane Foster, Luana Hopper, Dorothy Potter, Bernice Robinson, and Betty Hastings.

Delightful Affair

Miss Hazel S. Woodward and Miss Jean Woodward of Sierra Madre were hostesses Saturday at a bridge luncheon in the Hotel Huntington, Pasadena, which brought together a group of guests from Los Angeles, Pasadena, Long Beach, Santa Monica and other near-by cities with a large representation from Sierra Madre.

Two long tables were laid in the big dining-room, artistically decorated with great plaques of spring flowers. The place cards were in pink of original design. At the table over which Miss Hazel Woodward presided were Mrs. F. F. Myers, Mrs. [illegible] J. Fairbanks, Mrs. H. J. Gilmore, Mrs. W. Pennoyer, Mrs. R. H. Mackerras, Mrs. W. C. Shaw, Mrs. R. Wood, Mrs. Walter Graecen, Mrs. C. J. Dickson, Mrs. P. Seeley, Miss Harriet Grant, Miss Wayland, Mrs. W. J. Lawless, Mrs. Frank Sawyer, Mrs. J. Woehler, Mrs. J. M. Steinberger, Mrs. L. J. Clayton, Mrs. Roland A. Adams, Mrs. George M. Borgridge, Mrs. C. K. Jappe, Mrs. Charles C. Montgomery, Miss Thomasella Graham, Mrs. E. Manning, Mrs. W. H. Bravender and Mrs. George Mitchell.

At Miss Jean Woodward's table were Mrs. J. H. Warner, Mrs. J. U. Mackerras, Mrs. Samuel Graham, Mrs. J. T. Mason, Mrs. Robert S. Corlett, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. George Lehner, Mrs. H. H. Steinberger, Mrs. M. D. Welsher, Miss Mary Leedom, Mrs. Lyle M. Anderson, Mrs. George M. McRoberts, Mrs. M. D. Goodfellow, Mrs. Hall Perry, Mrs. Guy D. Steinberger, Miss Mattie Seeley, Mrs. F. Griebenow, Mrs. Henry Moore, Mrs. Stella Dennison, Mrs. Victor Woehler, Mrs. G. I. Farman, Mrs. Victor C. Hill, Miss Bertha Carson, Mrs. Laurence Winne and Mrs. George Dinwiddie.

After luncheon bridge was played at tables in the main lobby, which was decorated with flowers that carried out the day's color scheme

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Hubby's New Shirts

If the sleeves of hubby's new shirt are too long you will find it easier to shorten them from the shoulder than where the cubs are attached. If shortened at the cuffs it will entail making new plackets. In any case, put just a pleat in them halfway up the sleeve for the first washing. They might shrink in laundering enough to save you all the bother of shortening.

When Closets are Scarce

When the house or apartment is small it is often necessary to keep the electric vacuum cleaner in a clothes closet. The bag is bound to be dusty and a cover of cretonne is a joy to slip over it before putting away, to prevent the dust from ruining one's clothes. A heading in the top of a square or material with a draw string that will tighten around the top of the bag is just the thing.

An Orange Stick

Never clean your nails with a file, penknife or any sharp instrument. It will only scratch the underneath part of the nail, and this roughened surface will collect dirt and hold it far more quickly and stubbornly than before. Use an orange stick for this purpose.

REMOVE MAKE-UP with PALM and OLIVE OILS

The surest way to combat coarse skin, blemishes, blackheads. These beauty oils embodied in a true complexion soap

HERE is a way to make washing your face an actual beauty treatment. Women are amazed at the softness of their skin, by the fine texture of their pores, as a result of this complexion habit.

If the skin is regularly cleansed each day—if make-up and grime are thoroughly removed—natural charm results. The most effective means to do this, in gentle safety to the skin, is by daily use of Palmolive Soap.

Its rich, luxurious lather embodies two famed beauty oils—the oil of olive and the oil of palm. They gently penetrate and cleanse the pores when applied in the following way and keep your skin radiantly clear, gloriously soft and charming:

Each night wash your face gently with soothing Palmolive. With your two hands massage the magic lather of its oils into your pores, cleansing them thoroughly. Then rinse, first with warm, then cold, water. Dry by gently patting with a soft towel. Add a little cold cream for dryness, perhaps, but that is all.

Remember—always remove make-up before you sleep. If left on it dries skin, fills pores and brings unsightly blemishes and blackheads. Always use Palmolive. 10c a cake, everywhere. The Palmolive-Peet Company, Chicago, Ill.

[illegible] of the colon [illegible] condition, such poi- [illegible] the blood stream cannot [illegible] In a large percentage [illegible] there is not only a dangerous absorption of poisons from the colon, but because of prolapsus and kinks in the colon these poisonous toxins are occasionally forced back into the small intestine where they are even more readily absorbed than in the colon. Constipation and obstipation must therefore be overcome. Until one has learned to do this through using a sensible diet and developing a better tone of the intestinal and abdominal muscles, the safest plan is to take one or two enemas every day to assure a thorough cleansing of the colon.

This enema treatment should be used by anyone suffering from any kind of disease or disorder. Laxatives are temporarily helpful, but there are many objections to the continued use of such remedies which in the end produce more intestinal irritation. The washing out of the colon with plain water cannot produce any injury to the membranes or produce a partial paralysis as claimed by many who are uninformed. The inside of the colon is always unclean, and certainly cannot be injured by washing with clean water.

After several weeks of such a cleansing treatment it is necessary for anyone to wait two or three days after taking the last enema before the bowels will move by themselves. This is just because the bowels have been completely cleaned out at least two days in advance.

Keep the colon clean! If you do not have two or three bowel movements daily, take one or two enemas each day until you learn how to overcome constipation.

I will be glad to send you a special article on the cause and cure of constipation. Just send a self-addressed, stamped, large envelope and ask for the article called "The Cause and Cure of Constipation."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Question: Mary G. asks: "Are kidney stones really made of stone, and if so, how is it possible to dissolve them?"

Answer: Kidney stones are of various kinds. They are made of uric-acid crystals, urates, oxalate of lime, phosphate crystals, calcium carbonate, cystine, carbonate of lime, xanthine and indigo. These crystals and minerals are cemented together into differently shaped stones, but are rarely of the same composition as ordinary stones of the soil. Many of these stones can be dissolved under proper dietetic treatment. If the chemistry of the urine is properly changed, the cemented crystals lose their adherence to each other and pass out in the form of "gravel." Such remedies as muriatic acid are sometimes used to dissolve these stones, but the safest and sanest method is through changing the chemistry of the urine by scientific dietetics.

Q.: Mrs. K. L. G. writes: "I intend taking a sea voyage, but as I am a very poor sailor, I dread being seasick. Do you think I could overcome this tendency to seasickness if I eat only certain kinds of food?"

A.: It is probably true that a vast amount of seasickness is caused simply by biliousness. Yet, there are many people in good health who become nauseated whenever they sit in a swing or are subjected to any regular motion such as they get when on a ship. This may be due to defects of vision, which can be corrected by properly fitted glasses, or it may be caused by an improper amount of the balancing fluid in the inner ear. In the latter case, one may be unable to overcome the trouble except by staying in bed and lying in a horizontal position. This will generally overcome seasickness, no matter what the cause. This would be a good time for you to try a fruit fast, using only one kind of fruit on any one day.

Practical Pointers

A paint brush is a splendid duster for carved furniture.

Ice-cream boxes can be washed and dried to serve as containers for the packed lunch.

Have you a pot or parsley on your kitchen window sill for practical and ornamental use?

A tablespoonful of paregoric in a saucer where you have seen red ants will cause them to disappear.

The White Kitchen

If yours is a white kitchen you will find it easier to wipe off soil and grease as they appear, rather than when they accumulate until extreme measures are required to remove them. It is easier on the paint and it means a neat, clean kitchen all the time, not just following housecleaning.

Sound Auction Bridge

by Wilbur C. Whitehead

The World's Greatest Authority...

Each day is published a complete hand presented by Mr. Whitehead. These hands may be played with cards by one, two, three or four players. Fill out a chart of your own and compare it tomorrow with Mr. Whitehead's play. Do this each day and carefully read Mr. Whitehead's explanation, and you will find that your knowledge of the game will progress rapidly. Compare your bidding and play with that of your friends—the comparison may be illuminating.

Salient Points of the Bidding

After West's Heart bid, North, though holding normal support for his partner's bid of Clubs and a legitimate assist, can see no hope for game at Clubs, so makes the independent Diamond bid in hopes that his partner may be able to arrive at a game-going declaration. With the knowledge that Diamonds are stopped, South bids No Trump.

Salient Points of the Play

Tricks 11 to 13. West must bare his Ace of Hearts to protect his Spades, and being placed in the lead with a Heart is compelled to lead up to the Ace-Queen of Spades, thus giving Declarer a Small Slam.

PAN BOILED FISH

Wash the fish in cold water, and cut in pieces the proper size for individual service, dip the pieces in salted milk, half a teaspoonful of salt, to one cupful of milk and press into them finely sifted dry bread crumbs. Place the pieces of fish in a well-greased pan. Sprinkle over them some oil and bake in a quick oven from ten to fifteen minutes. Time depends on the thickness of the pieces of fish. When the fish is a nice golden brown, remove to a hot plate and garnish with lemon slices and parsley. Serve with the fish tartar or lemon parsley sauce.

ORANGE PIE

Beat the yolks of three eggs with one cupful of sugar, and beat smooth, beat in two-thirds of a cupful of milk, the grated rind and juice of one orange, two level tablespoonfuls of sifted flour and half a teaspoonful of salt, beat smooth, pour into a double boiler and stir and cook until thick and smooth. Cool slightly, pour into a baked pie shell that has been brushed with egg white and let stand until cold. Cover with a meringue made with the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Brown in a slow oven.

SOUR CREAM WAFFLES

Sift one and a qaurter cupfuls of flour with a half a teaspoonful and half a teaspoonful of sugar and halft a teaspoonful of soda. Add gradually, one cupful of sour cream and the well-beaten yolks of three eggs, add four tablespoonfuls of melted butter, beat well, and add the stiffly beaten whites of the three eggs. Bake in a hot waffle iron.

LEG OF LAMB, FRENCH STYLE

Pour boiling water over two cloves of garlic and bring to a boil. Drain off the water and cover with fresh boiling water and let stand five minutes. Drain and chop fine. Mix with six finely chopped boned anchovies, cut six slits across the skin of a leg of lamb, press the garlic and anchovie mixture into the slits and dredge the leg of lamb with fine bread crumbs. Place in a baking pan with one cup of consomme, bake two hours, basting often.

ACTOR DISPUTED IN DIVORCE CASE

Maid Contradicts Evidence of Kenneth Harlan

Tells of His Relations With Mrs. Gertrude Henry

He Will Appear Friday in Identification Test

Asserted relations between Kenneth Harlan, motion-picture actor, and Mrs. Gertrude Virginia Henry were described yesterday by Mrs. Paula Schultz, a former maid at the Universal studios, in her testimony in the divorce case brought by Albert Preston Henry, wealthy retired manufacturer, on the ground of infidelity.

The maid's testimony brought back into the case the name of the actor, mentioned earlier in the trial, which is being held before Judge Dudley S. Valentine, and as a result Harlan again will be asked to appear in court.

IDENTIFICATION CHALLENGE

Attorneys Clyde Murphy and J. R. Files, counsel for Mrs. Henry, said they will have the actor in court on Friday at 10 a.m. to determine whether the witness, Mrs. Schultz, and others who have linked his name with the case, can identify him. The other witnesses are Lewis G. Straighter and R. E. Lemert, petty officers of the steamship Avalon. Testimony has been adduced to the effect that Mrs. Henry accompanied the actor on a trip aboard the Avalon to Catalina Island.

In broken English, Mrs. Schultz described how she was a maid at the Universal Studios during June and July, 1927, taking care of twenty-six bungalows, one of which was occupied by the actor. It was at a time he was engaged in making a picture, she said.

She told of numerous visits by Mrs. Henry to Harlan's bungalow, and of seeing her smoking and drinking there.

SAYS SHE FALSIFIED

Damaging testimony was given against the wife during the day by N. J. Morehouse, who lived next door to the Crescent Heights Boulevard house, said to have been occupied by Harlan in the summer of 1927. He told of being awakened in the night by parties and said he saw Mrs. Henry there.

FILM BOARD CONVENTION DATE NEARS

Leaders from Key Cities of Entire Country Meet Here Next Week

Headed by C. C. Pettijohn, general counsel for the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, representatives of the Film Boards of Trade in the various key cities of this country and Canada will assemble at the Ambassador the 19th inst. for a week's convention.

Each film board is composed of representatives of film distributors in its particular area, and one of their functions is settlement of contractual disputes arising from the sale end of pictures. Last year 15,451 controversies between exhibitors and distributors, involving $4,250,000, were amicably settled by arbitration.

Between business sessions the secretaries will visit the studios and theaters in Hollywood. The convention will close with a banquet.

STEAMSHIP EXECUTIVE ENTERTAINS

Manager of Japanese Lines Gives Dinner for Local and International Officers

Reciprocating the hospitality extended by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce on Monday, Noboru Ohtani, managing director of Nippon Yusen Kaisha, generally called the NYK steamship company of Japan, which is the third largest steamship company in the world in tonnage, was host at a banquet at the Biltmore yesterday noon in honor of the passenger and freight executives of the railroads and steamship companies represented in this city.

One hundred guests assembled and Mr. Ohtani was assisted by Y. Nagashima, his passenger-traffic manager; S. Nagase, general purchasing manager; S. Imai, general freight agent; T. Yamamato, Pacific Coast general manager; Y. Kimura, Los Angeles manager; J. V. Braga, general agent at Los Angeles, and James King Steele, publicity agent.

This is the initial visit of Mr. Ohtani to this city and is the first world tour of the officials of the Japanese steamship company, which was established forty years ago and which now makes Los Angeles a port of call every two weeks.

"Our steamship company is the only organization in the world making Los Angeles a direct port of embarkation to the Orient and to South America," said Mr. Ohtani at the banquet. "We anticipate a development of business from Port Los Angeles alone which will command within a period of five years 20 per cent of our tonnage, amounting to 148 vessels of 844,000 gross tons. Our budget for this year calls for the expenditure of $40,000,000 and half of this amount is being expended for three super vessels for the Los Angeles-Orient service."

Today the guests from Japan will visit the harbor district and tomorrow will be guests of honor at a banquet to be given by members of the local Japanese consulate corps.

SILENT DRAMA TO TURN NOISY

First National Adopts Firnatone As Its Sound Device; Noted Stage Director Signs Contract With Lasky; Jack Dempsey, Estelle Taylor, Home Soon

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

It begins to look as though all the silence is to be taken out of the silent drama, and that the screen of the future will whoop it up with the best of the stage melodramas.

First National Picture is to enter the field of synchronized sight-and-sound films with a bang, judging from the announcement we have just received from President Clifford B. Hawley of that center of art and culture.

A complete opera, much drama and some musical comedies will be filmed with lines and music to accompany the pictures, according to the word received.

Every few days a new sound device comes to our notice, and the one with which First National is affiliated is called Firnatone, for the use of which First National has joined up with the Victor Talking Machine Company. All theaters equipped with Electrical Research Products sound devices can use Firnatone records without installing additional equipment.

"Lilac Time," Colleen Moore's starring vehicle, will have, we are told, its airplane battles and other war sequences reproduced in Firnatone.

"The Squall," a stage play, probably will be the first picture to be made with all the lines spoken, according to President Hawley.

"We also plan to make the musical comedy, 'No, No, Nanette,' with much of the original music and lines recorded," he explained. "'La Tosca,' the opera, starring Billie Dove, will be synchronized with music and lines. Corinne Griffith's picture, 'The Divine Lady,' will contain the Battle of Trafalgar, which lends itself to sound recording, and 'The Barker,' Milton Sills's picture of carnival life, and 'Show Girl,' a backstage story of a chorus girl, are being considered for Firnatone.

Robert Milton With Paramount

Just give it time and the screen gets them all. Now it is Robert Milton, noted playwright, theatrical producer and director, who listened to the call of the films. He has joined the production staff at the Paramount studio in Hollywood, according to the announcement of B. P. Schulberg. Milton has just arrived in Hollywood from New York, and yesterday took up his duties as one of Schulberg's staff, to lend his years of directorial experience to the screen.

For a number of years Milton directed theatrical successes in Russia and Germany. In recent years he has produced some of the outstanding Broadway dramas, and also has written successful plays.

Among his New York directorial hits are "The Charm School," "He Who Gets Slapped," "Bride of the Lamb," "The Dark Angel" and others.

The director at one time fulfilled a contract with Oliver Morosco, coming west to direct a play or two at the Morosco.

Jack Dempsey and Estelle Return

ESTELLE TAYLOR

Having concluded all their plans for a stage appearance under the management of David Belasco in a play to be called "The Big Fight," Jack Dempsey and Estelle Taylor will return home from New York, arriving here Saturday morning. They have stopped off briefly in Salt Lake City.

It is quite likely that Miss Taylor will appear in a picture or two before going back to New York to commence rehearsals for her stage appearance, as she and Jack need not leave here for their eastern stage work until July 25. The play is to open in Atlantic City for a tryout late in August, after which Jack and Estelle will return to Hollywood for a vacation until around the last of September, when the show will open in New York.

Clara Bow Being Groomed!

CLARA BOW

More than one critic has remarked on the temperamental likeness of Clara Bow to Pola Negri. Now that Miss Negri is leaving Paramount to sign a big contract with another company, it is whispered that Miss Bow is being groomed to play the same sort of dashing, reckless dramatic roles that have helped to make Miss Negri famous.

While it will, of course, be some time before Miss Bow acquires the finish and skill of Miss Negri, still, the work she has been doing in some more or less serious parts lately assigned her reveal that there is a resemblance in the quality of the talents of the two. In her current picture she is playing a tempestuous and dramatic part.

Report is to the effect that Miss Bow will later act in a new film version of the old play, "Madame Sans Gene," in which, you will remember, Gloria Swanson appeared for Lasky a few years ago.

And even more to the point is the fact that Ernst Lubitsch will probably direct if Miss Bow plays the role.

Popular Film Folk Return

PAULINE STARKE

Jack White, head of Educational Comedies productions, and his wife, Pauline Starke, have come home from their trip east and south. They returned several days ago to their Beverly Hills home, but have been extending their vacation. White returns soon to his comedy supervision work, however, and Miss Starke is considering two or three picture offers.

Though intending to go to Europe, the pair got no further than Havana and New York, where they spent many weeks visiting friends and seeing shows.

W. R. Rothacker Celebrating

Watterson R. Rothacker, vice-president and managing director of First National, is this week celebrating a triple birthday. This includes his own natal day, besides which the week marks his nineteenth year of association with the motion-picture industry, and the eighteenth anniversary of the founding of the Rothacker Film Manufacturing Company.

Rothacker points proudly to the fact that his laboratories printed and developed every foot of film for the thousand or more pictures produced and distributed by First National Pictures since the inception of the organization until he sold his interests to Consolidated.

In point of service, therefore, Rothacker is officially the oldest inhabitant of the First National organization.

Owen Gorin With Goldwyn

Maybe you remember Owen Gorin and maybe you don't. He was here in 1923 and played in a picture with Laura La Plante and in a few comedies. Then he returned to Germany.

In case you do remember this handsome young actor, you will be glad to know that you will have a chance to see him again. He has been engaged by Sam Goldwyn for an important role in Vilma Banky's picture, in which Walter Byron, also a new face on the American screen, will play opposite Miss Banky.

Incidentally, the name of Miss Banky's picture has suffered its first title rebirth, probably not its last, judging from the manner in which Sam Goldwyn seems to enjoy changing his mind about titles. Instead of "The Innocent," the picture will be called, for the life of this bulletin any way, "The Awakening."

Lawrence Gray In It

Lawrence Gray

It is really all over except the shouting through the megaphone, if any, now that Colleen Moore's leading man has been chosen. The star will start work on her next First National picture, "Oh, Kay," within a few days after she arrives from Honolulu, where she has been vacationing, according to announcement from John McCormick.

Lawrence Gray is to play hero to Miss Moore's heroine, and McCormick and Mervyn LeRoy are now busy selecting the remainder of the cast.

Joy Auburn Signs

Joy Auburn's beauty is not to be lost to the world if Fox officials have anything to say about it. Miss Auburn signed yesterday for a nice part in Madge Bellamy's current starring vehicle, "Mother Knows Best."

Franklin Pangborn Free-Lancing

Having completed his contract with Pathe and Cecil B. De Mille, Franklin Pangborn, an actor well known both to stage and screen, and who has been starring in farces for the above-named organization, is now free-lancing.

Pangborn co-starred with Marie Prevost in a number of pictures, and was featured in "My Friend From India."

THREE MEN ON BASE IN NINTH!

Baseball Rules Explained in Free Booklet for "Times" Readers

A runner is on second base and the batter hits a ground ball toward shortstop. The ball goes between the shortstop's legs, and as the base runner passes behind the shortstop the ball hits him. Is he out or not, and is the batter entitled to go to first if he can make it?

A booklet giving the official rules adds greatly to the pleasure of watching baseball. A copy may be obtained free by Times readers by writing name and address clearly on the coupon, inclosing 6 cents in stamps or coin, and sending to the Los Angeles Times Information Bureau, Washington, D. C. Full address is necessary. It should not be sent to The Times' Los Angeles office.

Rain of Contracts Falls on Author

"It may rain water for some people," said Henry Irving Dodge, Saturday Evening Post writer, as he boarded a Union Pacific train yesterday for New York amidst a momentary outburst of Pluvius, "but for me it also 'rained' five contracts."

In other words, Mr. Dodge came to Los Angeles and in a few days sold five of his most recent stories for film adaptations. He refused to divulge the names of the stories. Mr. Dodge is the author who wrote "Alice in Yellowstone" and "Skinner's Dress Suit."

IDEAL MOOD IN GRIFFITH FILM

"Drums of Love" Is Work of Poetry and Beauty

Ovation for Director at the Production's Premiere

Philbin, Barrymore and Alvarado Triumph

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

It is a work of beauty—delicate, romantic and poetical, D. W. Griffith's first production in Hollywood in a period of eight years. Based vaguely upon the story of Francesca da Rimini, but with the locale set curiously in a different world from the original version, it came to the screen last night at the United Artists Theater. "Drums of Love" is its title.

D. W. Griffith himself was present at the premiere—the first time since "Broken Blossoms." There were associations of sentiment and pleasure in this fact for those who were there—and particularly for that group who had known the Griffith premieres of the old days.

The audience was singularly representative of the films. Griffith's name still spells magic, notwithstanding his long absence, and the many changes wrought by the years.

In many respects it was a triumphal conquest. Not like the old conquests, because there are altered circumstances and conditions in the more actively competitive spheres of pictures today. But still a victor—radiant and rare for that lyrical spell which is his creation for the films only Griffith can evoke.

There were ceremonies—the presentation of a token by C. B. De Mille, a watch and cigarette holder. Charlie Chaplin came upon the stage and extended a warm hand of greeting. Griffith himelf made a speech—in the gayer mood which is his wont today. There were ovations—and a significant one for the picture especially.

One may well regard "Drums of Love" as a manifestation individual and apart among pictures that have shown of late upon the screen. It is different, too, from anything that Griffith himself has ever directed. It is the first costume production that he has made since "Intolerance"—I refer to the Babylonian episode in this—and it proffers nothing of that melodramatic idiom which is typical of the earlier Griffith pictures.

Whether it is the sort of picture that the public will anticipate from Griffith I do not know. Some there are who may find this new vein not to their liking, but others—perhaps a considerable majority—may sense in this the sounding of a new and important note.

Two things that struck me as marvelously impelling about this picture are the love scenes, and the acting of the individual principals. This goes further than mere acting. It amounts to a veritable change of personality in the instance of Mary Philbin, that makes one wonder what remarkable things this particular role may mean for her future.

Griffith has caused her to lose that childish naivete that has been typical of so many of her performances, and made her figure instead very dominantly in the plot. She even touches the note of seductiveness in certain of her scenes.

I do not believe that Lionel Barrymore has surpassed his work in this picture at any time during his career. His portrayal of the Duke Cathos is a herculean blending of the forbidding and the friendly. Crude and gross to a degree, he is in many ways the most sympathetic character in the story.

Don Alvarado received a huge testimonial of applause. It was apparent that a new romantic hero had definitely arrived.

"Drums of Love" overthrows certain conventions of the film theater to a degree amazing. The love of a brother for a brother's wife is hardly a familiar theme. The treatment of the plot is exceedingly cautious for the most part, and the fact that the story is told in pictorial impressions rather than with the smooth flow of drama seems to be a factor in this delicacy of the handling of the story.

Personally, I would have preferred to have seen this tragedy of Francesca da Rimini—for that ostensibly is what "Drums of Love" is—in its natural setting. It is essentially something that belongs to the medieval times. However, there are digressions from the original—among other things the ending having been changed. The finish as adapted will probably prove popularly more efficacious than the death of the two lovers, and is very well contrived.

The scene that will persist in the memory from this film is the one in which the lovers first declare themselves. The Griffith technique is ideal in this. It is one of the finest moments in any recent picture.

The beginning of the picture is somewhat sketchy, and it takes some time to introduce the main issue of the plot, but there is a peculiar intensifying of interest since the motif of the love between the girl and the brother is disclosed. Griffith attains some superb lyrical heights in the disclosing of this, with the one exception, that the scene of the midnight rendezvous of the lovers is dwelt on a shade too long.

There is no question but that this picture should be seen for its beauty, the spirituality of feeling that so much of it discloses. In some brief bits of comedy there are some jarring notes, but the entire film is otherwise on a highly idealistic plane, and as such is something decidedly different from a majority of films.

The adaptation was made by Gerrit J. Lloyd, and in addition to leading players, Tully Marshall, excellent, William Austin, Eugenie Besserer, and Joyce Coad are in the cast.

Hugo Riesenfeld's music, and the atmospheric prologue are eminently satisfying. Riesenfeld's musicianship exerts a keenly pleasurable influence.

ANNAPOLIS HO!

Lina Basquette, together with other featured members of the cast of "Annapolis," will leave for the East within a few days. The picture will have as its background the United States Naval Academy located at Annapolis and will be directed by Christy Cabanne, who directed Navarro in "The Midshipman."

Sentiment Stirs Spectators

Helen Ferguson and Jason Robards
Make an attractive couple in "New Brooms," the comedy which Henry Duffy is offering these nights at El Capitan Theater in Hollywood.

"BATHING BEAUTIES" ACT

The most famous of bathing girls displaying the latest thing in bathing suits—that's the theatrical "scoop" secured by the Million Dollar Theater, where Mack Sennett's 1928 bathing beauties will appear on the stage Friday afternoon and evening and Saturday afternoon, in the connection with the showing of Sennett's comedy-romance "The Good-bye Kiss."

A separate unit of the prologue "Kisses," which has created much comment at the Third and Broadway house, is being arranged especially for the girls.

American-made costumes and special importations include beruffled silk bathing frocks of plain or designed silk, and slimly fitted knit suits featuring gaily colored embroideries. Striking color combinations, and unique wraps and caps are included in the display.

One costume is a Chinese beach pajama suit with matching cap and parasol. Another import is of black and white satin with matching cape. Silk rubber wraps are an innovation.

"Interference" Returns Here for New Run

After a record-breaking run in San Francisco the entire production of "Interference" arrived in town this morning for the Los Angeles premiere at the Mayan Theater tonight.

Pat Somerset, well known on both the London and New York stages, who is starred in the role of the fascinating villain, Philip Voase, will be seen for the first time in Los Angeles. Somerset's characterization of the blase roue, who reduces murder to a fine art, created something of a sensation up north.

Somerset is playing the same role that Gerald Du Maurier, the English actor, did in London, and Du Maurier is the man who gave Somerset his first theatrical opportunity.

Montague Shaw, Doris Lloyd and Isabel Withers head the cast, which includes Flora Bramley in an ingenue role.

Love Story Has Many Devotees

Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, screen sweethearts, are pleasing crowds every day at the Carthay Theater in their new romantic "Street Angel," which many consider an even sweeter and more pleasing love story than their "Seventh Heaven."

This delightful story, directed by Frank Borzage, is laid in the romantic spots of Naples and the surrounding countryside, and unfolds the life and trials of a fiery little Neapolitan street waif and her handsome lover, who is an itinerant portrait painter.

"Street Angel" is only being shown in Los Angeles and New York City during this season.

Noted Organist Is at Warner's

One of America's leading theater organists in the person of Harry Q. Mills has been placed in charge of the console of the organ at Warner Brothers Theater in Hollywood, which opened to the public a fortnight ago. Mills is president of the Los Angeles Theater Organists' Club and is recognized throughout musical circles of the Southland as a player of distinction.

Like so many organists who now devote themselves to motion-picture work, Mills's first experience was as a church player. In turn, he officiated as organist in practically every church in Salem, Or. He entered theater work in Seattle and Portland, and recently filled the position of organist at one of Los Angeles' downtown theaters for a period of five years.

On four evenings each week hereafter, Mills will give a recital via KFWB.

IN PLEASANT VALLEY

William K. Howard, together with Victor McLaglen, Nick Stuart and other principals of "The River Pirate," is on location in Pleasant Valley filming exteriors for that production. The unit will return to Hollywood this week for completion of interiors.

JAPANESE ARTISTS TO BE SEEN

Grauman Arranges Two Special Performances at Windsor Square

The troupe of Japanese actors who created so much interest recently among film and stage celebrities of Los Angeles through their work at the local Nipponese theater on Jackson street are to be presented by Sid Grauman in two special performances at the Windsor Square Theater the 19th and 20th inst., it was learned last evening.

These actors, formerly of the Imperial Theater of Tokio, slipped into Los Angeles unheralded and were presented by the Japanese American Drama Society before several audiences comprised almost entirely of their own countrymen.

Charles Chaplin, among other film stars, heard of the company and visiting a performance was so pleased with the work done that he interested Mr. Grauman to the extent that a private presentation was given at the Chinese Theater at which were present Joseph Schenck, Henry King, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Goldwyn and others.

The special performances at the Windsor Square have been planned by Mr. Grauman purely for the benefit of the Japanese players and to give interested members of the stage and film colony an opportunity to enjoy the acting of Misuru Toyama, Miss Koharua Ohara and others of the dramatic company. The plays to be given are among the ancient dramatic works of Japan, one of them dating back 2000 years, and will be enacted in Japanese.

"Skyscraper" Comedians to Remain Team

With Pola Negri in "Three Sinners" and the Publix Revue, "Blue Plate," approaching the end of their engagement, the Metropolitan Theater is making preparations for the opening of William Boyd's latest photoplay, "Skyscraper," which comes to Sixth and Hill Saturday.

Through the courtesy of the Cecil B. De Mille studio, the "Met" plans to have a special performance with the featured players in "Skyscraper" making appearances on the stage.

William Boyd and Alan Hale make their debut as a comedy team in "Skyscraper," in roles of an altogether new type. Their antics as hard-boiled steel riveters met with so much success in the East that the De Mille organization plans to keep the duo together for a comedy series.

Also appearing in support of William Boyd are Sue Carol and Alberta Vaughn.

"Havana" will be the Publix stage revue. The cast is headed by several Havana entertainers, including Hadji, the guitar player. Other featured persons in "Havana" are George Dewey Washington, Berke and Naldi, Wally Jackson, Coster and Hewlett and the Boris Petroff Girls with special stage band.

FILMARTE'S FEATURES ARE UNIQUE

New Art Playhouse Plans Bright Opening; Stella Seager is Vocalist

Tonight the Filmarte Theater, located at 1228 North Vine street, opens its doors with the usual flood of light and the attendance of stars of the motion-picture world. The opening program has been selected with a great deal of care, and much thought has been expended upon the balancing of the various items. Music plays a large part in the support of the screen fare, a trio of stringed instruments supplying chamber music.

Among the attractions on the first program at the Filmarte and one which reportedly is going to delight music lovers, is the singing of Stella Seager, who has been induced to return to the stage after an absence of one year.

There is a great deal of romance in Miss Seager's career and the rich beauty of her voice reflects something of this quality. After engagements in this country, Miss Seager went to England where she was playing in "Hearts and Diamonds" at the Strand Theater in London, and at short notice she was called upon to fill a very difficult role on the second night of the run, substituting for one of England's best-known singers. She received an ovation for her work from the critical London audience and the great vocal artist, Jeritza, then singing at Covent Garden, receiving word of Miss Seager's instantaneous success, selected one of her beautiful bouquets and immediately sent it to Miss Seager with the note: "From one singer to another. Congratulations. Jeritza."

After a very successful series of engagements in the English metropolis, Miss Seager a year ago, relinquished everything to return to America as the bride of Mitchell Leisen, the noted art director of the De Mille studios.

On the screen, "The Golden Clown," the new Swedish picture, will be the main attraction, and Robert Florey's new opus, "The Love of Zero," will be supplementary.

Player's Voice Highly Lauded

When the talking pictures come into their own, as they are bound to do in the next few years, there is one screen star who is slated for "big things," and that is Lois Wilson, says a theater story. She is demonstrating her ability as an actress on the stage of the Vine-street Theater, where she is playing the feminine lead opposite Edward Everett Horton in "The Gossipy Sex."

Miss Wilson has one of the loveliest of speaking voices.

Miss Wilson has already made several Vitaphone records.

"WINGS" WILL CLOSE

Record Run of Aviation Film Passes Seventeen-Weeks Mark

"Wings," Paramount's picturization of the story of war-time flyers, is in its last week at the Biltmore Theater here. The engagement of the unusually successful picture ends with the final show Sunday night. It will then have completed a run of seventeen weeks and one day, the engagement having begun January 15.

The original booking for "Wings" at the local Erlanger chain playhouse was for eight weeks. So sweeping was its success from the start here that soon the length of time was extended to ten weeks, then to twelve and eventually five more weeks were added and then a single day when it was found that Ethel Barrymore and her company would not reach here until Monday morning.

Some idea of the comparative importance of Los Angeles as a theater town may be had from the fact that "Wings" ran in Chicago for only ten weeks, in Boston for twelve, and in San Francisco six.

AT KIT KAT CLUB

Ole Olsen and Chic Johnson, nationally known vaudeville headliners who are now making a tour of the country after a year's engagement in Australia, will be the guests of honor tonight at the Kit Kat Club on Washington Boulevard. They will also act as hosts to a party of friends and John Clayton Pool, who staged the "Kit Kat Club varieties," the stage show which is being presented, is arranging several special numbers.

"MOONLIGHT MAIDS"

"Moonlight Maids," this week's burlesque at the Follies, features Hazel Miller. In the supporting cast, Charles Fritcher still retains his "delicatessen" dialect, and with the aid of Leo Leonard, handles the comedy. Cynthia Hendry and Vivien May, the two soubrettes, are seen in several dancing numbers. Lee Murphy offers a specialty and the "Follies Beauty Chorus" work harmoniously and sing.

MOTHERS INVITED IN

Preparations are going forward at the Boulevard Theater for a special free performance on Sunday morning—Mothers' Day—which is being given for all the mothers of Los Angeles. The management extends a cordial invitation to them, young and old, to witness the morning's program as guests of the Boulevard. "Mother," starring Belle Bennett, will be the film attraction.

LECTURE-RECITAL TONIGHT

This evening the Emanu-El Forum, Wilshire and Manhattan, will present Cantor Reuben R. Rinder of San Francisco, assisted by Nina Lissauer, soloist; Maurice Amsterdam, 'cellist; Will Garroway, pianist, in a lecture-recital on synagogue folk and modern Jewish music. In his lecture-recital, Cantor Rinder deals with the rise and development of Jewish music from biblical times to the present day.

HEADLINERS TO SKATE

Koehler and Edith, featured headliners in the revue at the Metropolitan Theater this week and sometimes known as America's foremost skating team, will give an exhibition of acrobatic roller skating tomorrow evening at the Ambassador Skating Pavilion, it was announced yesterday.

MELON PICKERS LAUNCH STRIKE

Critical Situation Sighted in Imperial Valley

Workers Demand Increase in Payment Per Crate

I.W.W. Agitators Declared Instigators of Move

EL CENTRO, May 8.—Drastic action designed to prevent a general walk-out of cantaloupe pickers in Imperial Valley was taken today when the Imperial County Board of Supervisors, following an executive session this afternoon, instructed Sheriff Charles Gillett to have officers present at all meetings of the workers and arrest agitators wherever found.

A critical situation has developed in the valley within the last twenty-four hours, according to melon growers and shippers, who appeared before the board this afternoon. According to their assertions, Mexican pickers who were under contract to harvest the melon crop on a basis of 14 cents a crate, have been called in from the fields and are demanding wages ranging from 15 to 20 cents a crate.

Although the workers involved are chiefly Mexicans, it was asserted today that American I.W.W. members are back of the movement. While the Supervisors were in session this afternoon a group of Mexican workers assembled in front of the Courthouse. Deputy sheriffs started to take them in custody, but were told by spokesmen for the group that they had appeared to discuss their problems with the District Attorney. They were still closeted with the attorney late this afternoon. Growers who appeared before the board today declared that they could not meet the demands of the workers, and charged the pickers with a direct violation of their contracts.

Supervisor Henry Jackson of Brawley, where the labor trouble is centered, declared that every day of idleness will mean thousands of dollars' loss to the growers because of the highly perishable nature of the melons. Sheriff Gillett sent deputies to Brawley tonight, when a general meeting of the workers was to be held, and said that if agitators are present they would be arrested. "I am going to be chairman of that meeting," Gillett said.

Melons are just beginning to mature, and while the growers have not suffered any loss yet, it is feared that unless the trouble is settled without delay serious results will follow.

Manager Named for Santa Ana

SANTA ANA, May 8.—Appointment of W. G. Knox, representing the Third Ward on the Santa Ana City Council, as City Manager to succeed E. B. Collier, resigned, was announced today.

Knox was City Engineer from March, 1922, to March, 1925. He was elected to the City Council in April, 1927. His successor on the Council will be appointed within a few days. Collier resigned his position to become manager of a citrus firm at Orange, in which he is interested.

SPEEDING ARREST PRODUCES NEW JOB

GLENDALE, May 8.—The novel experience of being thanked for making an arrest by the man he tagged bewildered Traffic Officer H. E. Coombs today, after he had filed a charge of speeding thirty-one miles in a fifteen-mile zone against Harlem Cooper.

Cooper, when he received the tag, remarked that he was out of work and would have a hard time scraping up the money to pay his fine. Coombs ascertained that Cooper is a mechanic and hunted up an employer of skilled labor and found a job for Cooper, and then sent him word that he could go to work.

Cooper took his first lunch hour off to hunt up Coombs and thank him for arresting him and making it possible for him to get the job.

NATIVE SONS PLAN COURTHOUSE RITES

SANTA BARBARA, May 8.—Dedication of the new Courthouse will be in charge of Santa Barbara Parlor, No. 116, Native Sons of the Golden West, County Supervisors decided yesterday. The Native Sons requested the ceremonies be held during the week of the 21st inst., as at that time the Grand Parlor will be in session at Redding and grand officers could attend after the meeting.

The entire expense of the ceremonies will be assumed by the local parlor. Several speakers will be provided for the day and the parlor plans to present a large American flag and a California Bear flag to the county during the ceremony.

WOMAN KILLED IN CRASH

Husband Also Seriously Injured in Collision With Pacific Electric Train at Covina

COVINA, May 8.—Mrs. Vern Vincent is dead and her husband probably is fatally injured as the result of an automobile accident early this morning, when their automobile collided with a Pacific Electric train at the intersection of Lark Ellen and Bedillo avenues.

According to police reports, Vincent, who was driving, stopped for one train to pass and started his car across the other track when his car was struck by the east-bound express.

The impact hurled the car approximately fifty feet from the tracks, completely demolishing it. Mrs. Vincent was rushed to the Covina Hospital, where she died in a few minutes.

Vincent sustained internal injuries, serious cuts and bruises, and his recovery is doubtful, it was said. Mrs. Vincent leaves a son and daughter, both under 12 years of age, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fowler of Montebello.

SALVATION ARMY MAN SWINDLED

Plea for Funds to Help Stranded Boy Produces $10 and Man Vanishes

ONTARIO, May 8.—Capt. Wilfred Hill, in charge of Salvation Army operations here, is $10 loser today because of his faith in mankind, and police are searching for a clever swindler who is $10 richer.

Capt. Hill was approached by the man, who said he wanted $10 with which to aid a San Francisco boy, stranded in Ontario, in getting home. The cash was given him and the man took Capt. Hill to a hotel where, he said, the boy was staying. At the hotel he told the Salvation Army worker to wait and he would bring the boy out.

Capt. Hill waited a long time and then investigated. He discovered the man had departed through a rear door and that his story about the boy was a fake. The same kind of fake story has been worked on charity organizations in near-by cities, police learned today.

Salaries for Teachers at Pomona Rise

POMONA, May 8.—Following a protest registered a week ago by the Pomona Teachers' Association, the Board of Education last night increased local school - techares' maximum salaries by additions of two larger steps in elementary schedules.

In announcing the action of the board, Superintendent of Schools Emmett Clark stated that new teachers would be required to serve two years at the beginning salary of $1200 for teachers or $1800 for principals before being eligible for increase. The salary range was changed by the additions from a scale of $1200 to $1600 to a schedule of from $1200 to $1800 in the eighth year of service. For principals the range will be $1800 to $2550 instead of $1800 to $2300 as formerly.

The complete schedule as revised is: elementary teachers, first and second year, $1200; third year, $1300; fourth year, $1400; fifth year, $1500; sixth year, $1600, seventh year, $1700, and eighth year, $1800. Principals are advanced $125 per year after the second year from the beginning salary of $1800 to the maximum at the eighth year of $2550. Elementary teachers reaching the maximum of $1800 in the eighth year will not be retained unless they have obtained six additional units of university work during summer schools or six units of travel study as granted by the State Department of Education.

Citrus Takes Debate Honors

GLENDORA, May 8.—Citrus Union High School won the debating championship of the San Gabriel Valley league last night on the subject "Resolved: That disputes between capital and labor should be settled by compulsory arbitration."

The affirmative side was upheld by Thatcher Jordan and Lowell Jones of Monrovia, while the champions, two brothers, A. G. and Bob Shelton, defended the negative for Citrus. Citrus was awarded the trophy cup which it has held for two years, and the victory last night marked the third consecutive year its debaters have held the league championship.

The victors were coached by W. V Smith while the Monrovia team was instructed by R. B. Huxtable. Judges were Prof. Wright, head of the debating department at the University of California; Prof. Lindsley, head of the speech department at Occidental College and Prof. Ramsey Harris of the English department, Pomona College. The debate was held at the Monrovia High School.

GAME REPORTS GIVEN

GLENDORA, May 8.—C. L. Savage, district fish and game commissioner, and Arthur Shay, district ranger, addressed the San Gabriel River Chapter, Izaak Walton League, last night. The speakers gave official forestry and game reports for their respective districts. C. L. Nickle, president, presided over the meeting.

PARK PROPOSAL APPROVED

Santa Barbara County Supervisors Indorse Plan to Convert Oliver Homeplace in Canyon

SANTA BARBARA, May 8.—The proposal to make a county park of the old homeplace of Mrs. Frances B. Oliver in Mission Canyon by public-spirited citizens, who have purchased the property for the county, was approved yesterday by the County Board of Supervisors.

In accepting the property the Supervisors agree to instrust the custody of the park to the forestry board, maintain the home place in its natural state, provide water and lighting facilities, keep a caretaker in charge of the park, permit, if funds are raised, installation of an art gallery, and to consult the board of trustees of the museum of natural history on questions of use and development of the property and abide by their decision.

The park will be known as Rocky Nook, the name given the ground by Mr. and Mrs. Oliver. It includes nine acres of wild wood, with rare shrubs and roses immediately surrounding the house, bypaths winding around the rocks and through the oak grove, crossing Mission Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Stanwood recently purchased the property and held it until money could be raised by interested people to buy the land for a county park.

HOSPITAL DECISION PROMISED

Property Owners Object to $1,000,000 Plant in Crown City

PASADENA, May 8.—Final action on the application of the Sisters of St. Joseph for a special permit to erect the first unit of a $1,000,000 Catholic hospital on Howard street will be taken next Tuesday, Clayton R. Taylor, chairman of the board of City Directors, declared today.

The City Hall Council chamber was packed with foes of the project who contend that if the permit is granted their property will be damaged. These residents were told that those interested have not had sufficient time to study the question.

At their regular weekly meeting today, the board opened bids for the improvement of West Colorado street from Delacy street to Orange Grove avenue. The contract for the first section to be improved was awarded to the Bartlett and Mathews Company. The amount of the bid was $41,068.87, 1 per cent lower than the bid of the Ducey-Breitenstein Company.

The directors voted to consider the petition from the Lamanda Park Business Men's Association, which urges the construction of a $25,000 public plunge in Lamanda Park.

VALLEY FRUIT TO SET HIGH AVERAGE

AZUSA, May 8.—Reaching its peak year in shipments, the Azusa-Covina-Glendora Fruit Exchange announced today that the f.o.b. average was higher during the season just closing than all previous years in the history of the exchange.

As a clearinghouse for smaller fruit companies in the valley, the exchange handles shipments for the Azusa Citrus Association, Azusa Foothill Citrus Association, Azusa Orange Company, Glendora Mutual Orange Association and the Irwindale Citrus Association.

Shipments amounted to 587 cars, averaging 462 boxes per car, and 183 oranges to the box, according to Paul Brecht, secretary and manager. Returns on 511 cars amounted to $1,033,219.03, Brecht said.

The fruit was exceptional in quality and graded 88.7 sunkist, and 11.3 choice, according to Brecht.

MRS. HEAD DIES AT HOME IN MONROVIA

MONROVIA, May 8.—Mrs. Nell H. Head, club woman and wife of Dr. V. E. Head, died this morning at her home, 214 North Alta Vista avenue, following a protracted illness.

Mrs. Head, who was 51 years of age, had lived in Monrovia for eleven years, having been born in Tennessee, February 2, 1877. She leaves her husband, one brother, J. F. Peck of Tempe, Ariz., and a sister, Mrs. Lois Neely of Guntersville, Ala.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock, from the Renaker Chapel. Interment will take place in Live Oak Cemetery

BONDS SOLD TO WIDEN HIGHWAY

MONROVIA, May 8.—Bonds for acquisition and widening of Foothill Boulevard from Mayflower avenue to Canyon Boulevard, have been sold to the California Pacific Securities Company of Pasadena for $44,238, according to announcement made from the City Engineer's office today.

City Attorney William F. Palmer filed the bond money with the Superior Court, which will decide whether the amount is sufficient to cover the land awards for the widening, it was said. If the court approves, procedure on the proposed widening will begin.

SHOE-STORE BLAZE CAUSES $1000 LOSS

VENTURA, May 8.—Property damage, estimated to be in excess of $1000, resulted last night when a blaze broke out in the storeroom and workshop in the rear of the Fashion Boot Shop here. Many pairs of shoes stored in the rear, together with repairing equipment and the wood work were burned.

The only damage done to a few shoes in the front part of the store was caused by smoke and water. The origin of the fire had not been determined today. This was the most serious fire that has occurred in Ventura for several years.

CANVASSING OF VOTE ATTACKED

New Election Scrap Starts at Huntington Park

Court Asked to Void Report From City Council

Returns Certified by Only Two of Five Members

HUNTINGTON PARK, May 8.—Court proceedings have been started against members of the City Council in an effort to void the canvass of the vote of the city election held April 9, last. Judge Victor McLucas of the Superior Court signed an order directing City Clerk William P. Mahood to certify to the court a transcript of the records and proceedings of the meetings of the City Council held on April 16 and 23, last. The complaint was signed by Glen Tyler. Hearing has seen set for 10 a.m. the 14th inst.

PROCEDURE QUESTIONED

It is charged in the complaint that Otto R. Benedict and Elmer E. Cox are "now purporting to be members of the Council without having been duly qualified." The meeting of the Council during which the canvass was made is said to have been attended by only two members of the Council, Jerome V. Scofield and John C. Flick. The other members of the board at that time failed to appear at the meeting.

The complaint, however, says that election "returns given out by the precincts as a result of said election showed that Otto R. Benedict and Elmer E. Cox to have received a sufficient number of votes in excess of those received by M. A. Blanchard and Fred C. Fricke to cause the said Otto R. Benedict and Elmer E. Cox to be duly elected."

OVERWHELMING VOTE

Blanchard was a candidate for reelection and Fricke was his running-mate. They were indorsed by the Civic League ticket. Benedict and Cox also were candidates for the Council, indorsed by the Citizens' League. Benedict and Cox won by almost a 4-to-1 vote over Blanchard and Fricke.

A week following their election the vote was canvassed and as Blanchard, Fricke and Wood were not present, Councilmen Scofield and Flick canvassed the vote and the newly-elected members, Cox and Benedict, took the oath of office.

Universalists in Crown City for Conference

PASADENA, May 8.—Delegates from Universalist churches in all parts of California arrived here today for the opening sessions of the forty-first annual convention of the denomination. The convention meetings will be held in the Throop Memorial Church.

A supper for all guests was given at 6:30 p.m. today. Dr. Willard C. Selleck, president of the convention, opened the first session at 7:45 p.m., following the supper. Dr. C. Sheldon Shephard was the principal speaker. The delegates will gather tomorrow at 9 a.m., when Dr. Carl F. Henry, pastor of Throop Memorial Church, will direct a communion service.

VENTURA COMMUNITY CHEST ASKS $11,500

VENTURA, May 8. — When the annual three-day drive of the Ventura Community Chest opens here on June 6, the people of Ventura will be asked to subscribe only 1,-500 to meet the charitable needs of the community for the coming year.

This amount was set last night at the final meeting of the board of directors of the Community Chest following a series of conferences with representatives of the various charitable agencies of Ventura.

The $11,500 budget for the coming year will be divided as follows: Salvation Army $3000; Girl Scouts, $2250; Boy Scouts, $2000; Cottage Home, $1500; Associated Charities, $1500; Holy Cross School milk fund, $500, and expenses for campaign, including secretary's salary for year, $750.

BREAKFASTERS TO HONOR MOTHERS

ARCADIA, May 8. — Members of the Foothill Breakfast Club will devote their program Thursday morning to observance of Mother's Day, with several Los Angeles speakers scheduled to appear, it was announced today.

Announcement was also made that the Breakfasters are planning to invite Carrie Jacobs-Bond as special guest, to one of the sessions this month.

POMONA COLLEGE GREETS NEW HEAD

Dr. C. K. Edmunds

CLAREMONT, May 8.—Dr. C. K. Edmunds, recently appointed president of Pomona College, arrived here today, and has taken up his administrative duties. Appointed in February to fill the place once occupied by James A. Blaisdell, now president of Claremont Colleges, of which Pomona is a part, Dr. Edmunds will assume control of the affairs of the older institution immediately. Since his appointment, he has been in the East, closing up his affairs.

Dr. Edmunds will serve as president of Pomona College. Dr. Blaisdell is to be president of Claremont Colleges, while E. J. Jaqua is to continue as executive of Scripps College. Both Pomona and Scripps are under the guidance of the Claremont Colleges organization.

Dr. Edmunds was president of Lingnan University, Canton, China, for twenty years, and more recently has been provost of Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore.

His first public appearance will be on Thursday morning, when he is scheduled to speak at a meeting of the Pomona College student body. He is to speak at the University Club at Los Angeles Thursday noon.

NEW FACTS DISCLOSED IN MURDER

Victim of San Diego Bandit's Gun Expected to Wed Dancer Today

SAN DIEGO, May 8. (AP)—The tragedy of the murder Sunday night of Joseph Malloy, assistant manager of the New California Theater, was intensified today, when it became known that he was to have been married tomorrow.

One of the first things the theater management did after Malloy had been removed to a hospital, was to telephone Los Angeles and notify his fiancee, Miss Clarice Gannon, production director and dancing teacher at the Metropolitan Theater. Miss Gannon left the bedside of her mother, who is seriously ill, and came to San Diego by the midnight train, but her fiance had succumbed to the bandit's bullet a few minutes before her train pulled in. Malloy had been engaged to Miss Gannon for about two years, friends said today.

Miss Gannon has remained in San Diego as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lyons. Mr. Lyons is musical director of the theater.

A theory advanced today was that the shooting of Malloy was done for revenge, not robbery, but against that the police set the apparent fact that the man who killed Malloy seemed not to know him by name. That evidence was given by theater employees, who directed the man to the office where Malloy was shot down.

Coroner Kelly will hold an inquest tomorrow over both Malloy and Otto A. Morrisey, who was shot down by the police after Malloy was fatally wounded. Morrisey is supposed to have driven the automobile in which the man who did the shooting made his escape. The police tonight were still searching for Morrisey's companion.

EXHIBIT ABANDONED

HUNTINGTON PARK, May 8.—The annual exhibit of work done in the schools here will be abandoned this year, according to W. L. Stuckey, superintendent, who states that there is not a vacant room within the city large enough to house the display.

FOUNDERS' DAY PLANNED

Residents of Whittier Will Honor Old-timers Who Established City in 1887

WHITTIER, May 8.—Founders' day will be observed Friday with a picnic in Central Park and a program of reminiscences by former Whittier residents and those now living here. It will be the forty-first anniversary of the founding of the Quaker City.

Whittier was originally a tract of 1200 acres of land, covered with wild mustard bloom, when Aquilla Pickering and a band of Quakers bought the land and founded a Quaker colony, naming the village Whittier after the great Quaker poet, John Greenleaf Whittier.

Of the eight founders, two are still living, and are T. Elwood Newlin, a retired banker of Los Angeles, and Hervey Lindley of Seattle. The other six were Aquilla Pickering, John H. Painter, Fordyce Grinnel, Elazer Andrews, Jonathan Bailey and Milton Lindley. Of the fourteen who came to Whittier July 19, 1887, as a nucleus for the family life that later developed, four are still living. Two of them are in Whittier and are Mrs. Anna Lee Dorland-Coffman and A. Pickering. The other two are Miss Eva Shaw of Washington, D. C., and Edgar Scott of Salem, Iowa.

Annual observance has been made of founders' day for a number of years and an organization for the purpose of perpetuating interest is composed of Judge M. T. Owens, president; Mrs. Blanche Adams Rees, vice-president, and Mrs. Anna Lee Dorland-Coffman, secretary-treasurer.

NINE FLYERS GIVEN NOTICE

Aviators Ordered to Vacate Clover Field Hangars

Court Battle Predicted in Dispute Over Leases

Officials Declare Move is Part of Development

SANTA MONICA, May 8.—Court action loomed today in the serving by the city of three-day notices to vacate Clover Field, Santa Monica's municipal airport. The notices were addressed to nine aviators, some of them pioneers at the field who established hangars there prior to the purchase of the 175-acre tract by the city in 1926. Those receiving the peremptory notification were Robert Lloyd, Al Wilson, J. B. Nicholson, James W. Montee, H. B. Suppe, A. L. Markwell, J. E. Granger, George Lysle and Leo Nomis.

Three months ago the Santa Monica City Attorney, instructed by the City Commissioners, gave notice to Clover Field tenants to sign new leases or vacate. The new contracts call for building standard hangars on space rented at $650 a year. Bob Lloyd stated today that he regarded the new lease proposition as a political move to stifle competition in manufacturing airplanes at the field. City officials, however, maintain the new deal is a part of the municipality's plan to develop Clover Field along lines in harmony with the city's adjacent municipal golf links and recreation park. The Douglas company, one of the leading airplane manufacturing concerns in the country, owns a seven-acre tract on which it is erecting a new $75,000 factory, to be of artistic design. This concern leases the right to use the landing and starting runway of the field.

Lloyd stated he had paid the city $500 last fall on a lease of the space he occupies, on a basis of $1008 per year for a five-year, renewable lease. He paid an additional $500 later, he asserted, and holds canceled checks from the city. The new lease deal, which is offered to supplant the one for which he asserts he paid, would cost $7800 per year for the ground he signed up for on a basis of $1008, he declared. The new leases, he added, prohibit operation of a lunch room and have other clauses which would ruin his business, established long ago at the field.

"I believe those who pioneered the field ought to be given at least a fighting chance," Lloyd said. "Personally I intend to stand pat, and will carry the matter up to the higher courts if necessary."

City officials say all the aviators will be given an opportunity to remain if they abide by the new leases. It was said at the field that some of the tenants had agreed to the new leases or decided to move to Los Angeles and other surrounding fields. One airplane manufacturer was said to be building a new plant in Venice, vacating his old hangars at Clover Field.

It was reported here that the city of Long Beach has made attractive offers to the Army Air Reserve Corps to move from Clover Field to that city. The Army has rented space at Clover Field at $1 a year for several years, and Santa Monica Commissioners have been in conference with army representatives over renewal on a basis commensurate with bond interest and other expenses developing since the municipality made its purchase.

Douglas company officials have denied repeatedly any desire to eliminate competition in airplane manufacture at the field.

THRIFT URGED IN REDLANDS SCHOOLS

REDLANDS, May 8.—The school-children of Redlands are learning thrift, not only in the saving of money but also in the use of the supplies and material furnished to each room by the School Board and the State.

H. G. Clement, superintendent of the schools, has just received a report from Mrs. Mary Risher, director of the schools savings department, showing the savings plan progress up to the 1st inst.

This report shows that there are now 417 school accounts in the three banks here. The deposits represent 26 per cent of the pupils in the elementary schools. Franklin ranks the highest with 35 per cent and Kingsbury next with 34 per cent.

CLEANING OF LOTS TO END FIRE PERIL

ONTARIO, May 8.—Members of the Ontario service department began a new clean-up campaign in certain sections today. Warning cards were posted on more than 200 lots where weeds and rubbish were not removed in last week's clean-up campaign.

One more chance is given owners of the unsightly lots. If they are not cleared of weeds and rubbish the city will do the work and attach liens on the property for payment. This action is the climax to the city's effort to make the community entirely free from fire hazards.

WALNUT GROWERS IN MOOD OF OPTIMISM

SAN FERNANDO, May 8.—Production of walnuts in San Fernando Valley this year will total between 850 and 1000 tons, according to a preliminary estimate by David Brown, head of the Walnut Growers' Association. Last year the valley produced 500 tons of walnuts.

Outlook for prices for walnuts this season is good, according to Brown, because of the decreased production in other parts of the State. This increase in some sections amounts to as high as 40 per cent, Brown said.

COLOR BEARER AT LINCOLN FUNERAL

Andrew Jackson Kimball

SANTA MONICA, May 8.—Sergt. Andrew Jackson Kimball, who was color bearer at Abraham Lincoln's funeral, was a special guest last night at a meeting of No. 1 Lincoln American Lodge, in the Knights of Columbus hall, here.

Sergt. Kimball, now 86 years of age, enlisted at the age of 19 in the Seventh Maine Regiment. He served through the Civil War, and at the Battle of Antietam his regiment was reduced from 373 men and fifteen officers to sixty men and two officers. During his four years of service he was wounded four times.

Together with his older brother he walked fifteen miles to enlist, when their pooled interests failed to produce enough money for stage fare to the recruiting station. They arrived at midnight, and next day were marching to the front.

European Air Experts Study Safety Device

SAN DIEGO, May 8.—The merits of a San Diego-made aerial life preserver are being demonstrated to government experts in Europe by H. R. McClintock, president of a parachute manufacturing company here, it was learned here today.

Premier Mussolini extended the invitation to McClintock following the recent death of one of Italy's greatest flyers when his Italian-made parachute failed to function. The request from England came from the head of the British Air Ministry. The Lufthansa, largest of the German commercial air transport lines, is interested in the San Diego parachute chiefly because it has been instrumental in saving the lives of Valentine Gphart, secretary of the National Aeronautical Association, and of a number of western air mail pilots, it was said. The local parachute is now standard equipment on several air-mail lines.

McClintock left here March 29 for London, Berlin and Rome. The first intimation of the significance of his trip came yesterday when word from London was received that one of the local parachutes was used by an airman in dropping from an altitude of 12,000 feet, thus establishing a new European record.

GREAT-GRANDFATHER BAPTIZES INFANT

FULLERTON, May 8.—With four generations of the male line of the Holcomb family participating, James Willis Holcomb, Jr., 9 months of age, was baptized today by his great-grandfather, Rev. Francis R. Holcomb, 86 years of age.

James W. Holcomb, father of the baby, and C. E. Holcomb, grandfather, were the other members of the family representing the four generations.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Holcomb and son are visiting at the home of Rev. F. R. Holcomb at 202 East Commonwealth avenue.

TING COLOR TO MOOD SHOWN AT 'TIMES' HOME

Bertha T. Coler, Decorator of dence, Holds Audience With Talk on Tone Harmony

BY VALERIE WATROUS

to do with color, and what not to do with it, presented informal way yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Bertha Coler, graduate decorator, at the Los Angeles Times home in which the newest and best in home building and furnishing is being demonstrated.

to hear her speak. and lowering clouds dampen the ardor of those out Beverly Boulevard up the drive into the to inspect the housed beneath the Spanish tiles in this

MISTAKES CORRECTED

What may be done with the judicious use of complementary colors in correcting mistakes was described simply and entertainingly by Mrs. Coler. She drew from her experience and told of a room in which the walls had been painted a hideous green and which later was redeemed by washing with a thin stain of red.

"Chords of music are the vibration of the ether," the speaker declared, "and color is the vibration of light. It has been discovered that certain chords and certain colors awaken the same emotions, and now that we know how to use the scientific formula in working out our colors we can suit any room to the moods which should be experienced there.

MATHEMATICS PROBLEM

"People will tell you that they have a strong 'feeling for color,' but our feelings are not the most satisfactory guides. What we need is to take our color charts and work out our problems mathematically; we then can be sure that the result will continue to be satisfying and harmonious."

Mrs. Coler will give the second of her series of talks on Thursday, the 17th inst., at 3 p.m.

Dalzell Hatfield, director of the Newhouse Galleries on West Seventh street, will speak informally today at 3 p.m. He will discuss American and foreign painters and their work. On the walls of the home are many fine examples from his galleries, and he will use these to illustrate his art discussion.

ARCHITECT TO SPEAK

Mark Daniels, the architect, will speak again Friday afternoon, and Jack Rennick, designer of the hand-made Spanish furniture in the home, will appear at 3 p.m. Saturday.

Following the talks, Miss Marion Rouzie, official organist of the Artcraft Organ Company of Santa Monica, presents a delightful series of pipe-organ numbers.

In this connection it might be well to emphasize the fact that the Artcraft organ in the Los Angeles Times Demonstration Home was built in Santa Monica by a company which has gained wide recognition for its fine instruments. In fact, Southern California has an ideal climate for the manufacture of pipe organs, since it permits the year-round schedule of hours and temperatures at the factory.

WIDELY INDORSED

The Artcraft Organ Company's product has received the indorsement of noted organists, among them Prof. C. Albert Tuffts, official organist for the First Methodist Church, who will give an informal talk at the Demonstration Home next Tuesday afternoon, illustrating his remarks with passages from the works of famous composers.

The Times Demonstration Home is open every day from 11 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. There is a delightful cafe, part of the Miramar Estates equipment, where excellent luncheons, afternoon teas and dinners are served. The view from the home and from the Miramar Estates is one of the most charming in Southern California, and the sunset hour at the Miramar Cafe is a never-to-be-forgotten experience.

The Demonstration Home is reached by way of Sunset and Beverly boulevards, turning off at the entrance to Miramar Estates about 1000 feet east of the Malibu Road, which skirts the seashore north of Santa Monica. The road up to the home is well paved with no sharp curves or grades.

Easy to make Stucco Houses WATERPROOF

ly use pure lead paint—the same t which has for generations been standard for waterproofing and ifying surfaces of all kinds

It is as easy to waterproof stucco or surfaces as it is wood. Simply your skilled painter to apply pure paint.

This is the answer to the stucco painting problem. Except for a slight variation in painting cost, to satisfy the rough, porous stucco, such a surface presents no new or materially different problems from those met in painting wood and other surfaces exposed to weather.

With lead paint made of Dutch Boy white-lead the skilled painter covers your house with a film that moisture does not penetrate . . . that prevents cracking of the surface. He waterproofs and weatherproofs your house with paint that is tough and elastic . . . that does not crack or scale . . . that lasts long and is the most economical you can buy.

Gloss . . . Eggshell . . . or Flat Finish

With this Dutch Boy white-lead paint you can have a gloss, eggshell, or flat exterior finish. And you can get a brilliant, colorful finish, or as sober a treatment as you desire—to the exact tint or shade. This paint is colored specially for every job. Your color selection is practically unlimited.

New Emergency Hospital Given Formal Opening

The new $50,000 police emergency hospital at 2661 Pasadena avenue was opened formally last night. Chief Police Surgeon Dunsmoor and his staff of physicians and nurses and President William A. Wilson of the Lincoln Heights Commercial and Industrial Association acted as hosts and showed thousands of visitors through the building. The infirmary was packed with flowers.

Starting today, the new hospital will care for accident victims, this service at the Hill-street Hospital having been discontinued. Only City Jail patients hereafter will be cared for at the Hill-street Hospital.

The new hospital with its two operating rooms and separate wards for men and women will be open from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. on week days. It will be closed Sunday, when all cases will be sent to the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital. No major surgical operations will be performed in the infirmary, except in cases of extreme emergencies.

Dr. Dunsmoor will supervise the new emergency hospital and the staff will be: Assistant Police Surgeons Dean, Blanchar and Schmidt, Chief Nurse Reddy and Nurses Wells, Sperry and Otte.

Templar Grand Commander to Be Given Fete

A reception and entertainment will be given tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple, Pico and Figueroa streets, in honor of Andrew J. Copp, Jr., who recently was elected Grand Commander of Knights Templar of the State of California.

ANDREW J. COPP, JR.

Los Angeles Commandery, No. 9, will be host for the evening and the entainment will include an address by Commander Copp, a fancy drill by the Los Angeles Commandery Corps, readings by Dorothy Capp, selections by Purcell Mayer, violinist, and Otto Ploetz, "the tenor of the West." Knights Templar and their families and friends are especially invited.

Mr. Copp who last April 20 was elected to the highest office in the gift of California Masons, has been a resident of Los Angeles for several years and was Commandant of the Los Angeles Commandery, No. 9, Drill Corps.

SEATTLE COUNCILMAN WELCOMED LOCALLY

Councilman Otto Case of Seattle, Wash., was welcomed to the City Council yesterday and at the request of President Bonelli, Councilman Case "took a bow." Councilman Case congratulated the Council on the magnificent new City Hall. The Seattle Council has nine members elected at large, as was the case in Los Angeles under the former city charter. Councilman Case is now serving his second term. The procedure of the Council here was explained to the Seattle Councilman by Minute Clerk Carroll.

Rouzee Burial Set Tomorrow

Miss Winifred Rouzee, 44 years of age, known as a lecturer on Bible subjects, died at her home, 575 North Arden Boulevard, Hollywood, at 8:15 a.m. yesterday after a short illness.

Miss Rouzee, best known in Los Angeles and vicinity through her Bible classes, was a former Y.W.C.A. worker and also was formerly a member of the faculty of the Nanking (China) Training School.

Funeral services will be conducted from the First Presbyterian Church, Hollywood, at 3 p.m. tomorrow, with interment in Hollywood Cemetery.

TREE PLANTING IN VETERANS' MEMORY

SANTA BARBARA, May 8.—In memory of the Santa Barbara men who died in the World war, Santa Barbara Legion Post will plant seventy-one trees, with appropriate ceremonies at 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

The trees will be planted along the Coast Highway near Serena Park. Rev. Paul A. Davies, chaplain, will be the principal speaker. Mothers and families of the men in whose memory the trees will be planted are especially invited to attend.

CANADIANS TO FROLIC

A reunion, frolic and dance will be given tomorrow evening under auspices of the Canadian Society of Southern California at 1137 South Hope street. Four queens will be chosen by public applause, one each to represent England, Scotland, Ireland and Australia. Besides a balloon and toasted-marshmallow shower, the fourth preliminary of the old-fashioned waltz contest will be put on. Alfred Redmond's Irish Band will play. All Canadians, other British and American friends are invited. Col. A. G. Fonseca, formerly of Winnipeg, will be master of ceremonies.

NORWEGIANS ARRANGE INDEPENDENCE FETE

Norwegians in Southern California will celebrate Norway's Independence Day, May 17, with a picnic and a program on Sunday, May 13, in Sycamore Grove Park. The program will start at 2:30 p.m. and will consist of speeches by Dr. Walter F. Dexter, President of Whittier College, and by Rev. O. J. Ordal, pastor of a Lutheran church in Bellingham, Wash. Arne Norskog will render a vocal solo. The Norwegian Male Chorus of Los Angeles will sing.

NOWHERE is there a more pleasing combination of scenic beauty and historic interest than on the Baltimore & Ohio route to Washington and the East.

To the idyllic charm of the Allegheny Mountains, rugged and majestic in their ever-changing shades of color, is added the still more delightful attraction of that favored region which lies beyond—the Valley of the Potomac.

What stirring times that old Indian name—Potomac—recalls! And what halos of glory hover above the hamlets and towns of Potomac Valley! From Harpers Ferry eastward, every settlement has seen the "rocket's red glare" again and again. Interesting as it is, the story of Washington, the National Capital, is but a sequel to the story of the Potomac Valley.

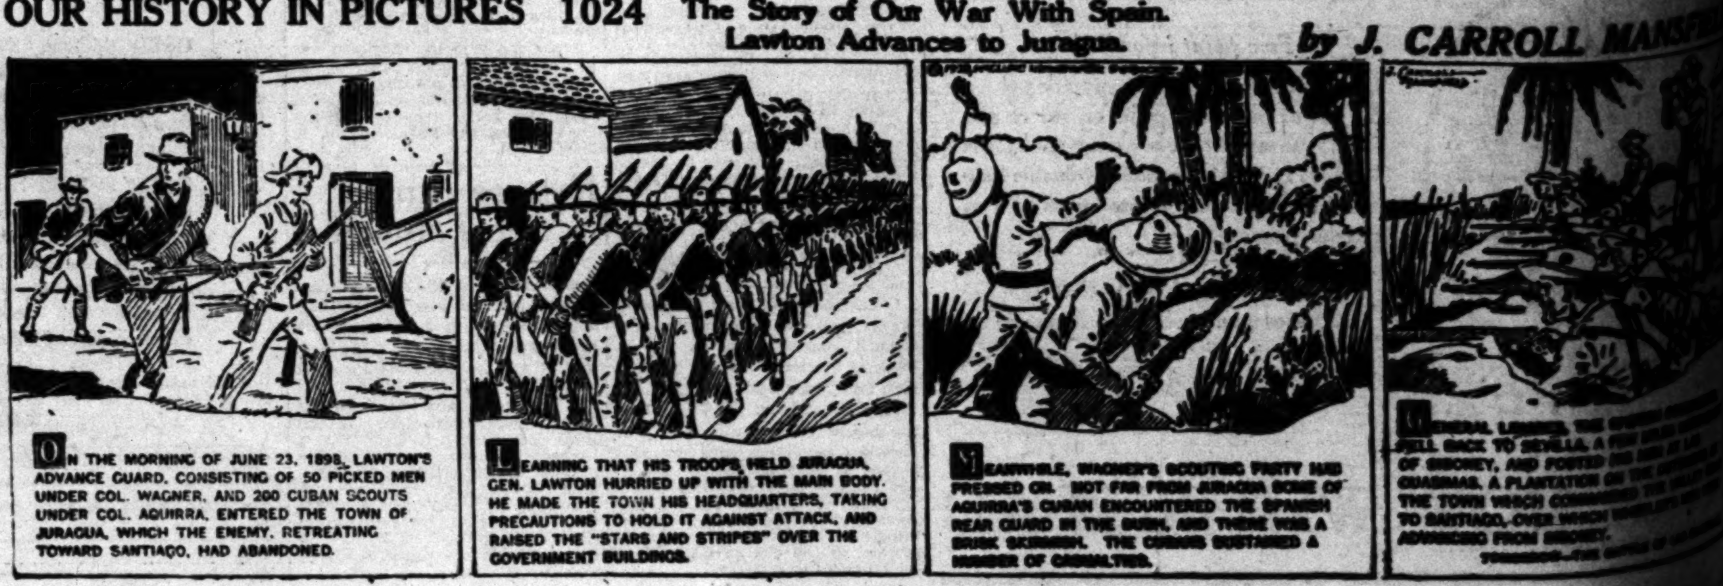
The Story of Our War With Spain.
Lawton Advances to Juragua.

by J. CARROLL MANSF



ON THE MORNING OF JUNE 23, 1898, LAWTON'S ADVANCE GUARD, CONSISTING OF 50 PICKED MEN UNDER COL. WAGNER, AND 200 CUBAN SCOUTS UNDER COL. AQUIRRA, ENTERED THE TOWN OF JURAGUA, WHICH THE ENEMY, RETREATING TOWARD SANTIAGO, HAD ABANDONED.

LEARNING THAT HIS TROOPS HELD JURAGUA, GEN. LAWTON HURRIED UP WITH THE MAIN BODY. HE MADE THE TOWN HIS HEADQUARTERS, TAKING PRECAUTIONS TO HOLD IT AGAINST ATTACK, AND RAISED THE "STARS AND STRIPES" OVER THE GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS.

MEANWHILE, WAGNER'S SCOUTING PARTY HAD PRESSED ON. NOT FAR FROM JURAGUA SOME OF AQUIRRA'S CUBAN ENCOUNTERED THE SPANISH REAR GUARD IN THE BUSH, AND THERE WAS A BRISK SKIRMISH. THE CUBANS SUSTAINED A NUMBER OF CASUALTIES.

PICO HEIRS SEEK LANDS IN SAN JOSE

Court Fight to be Based on Asserted Violation of Governor's Park Grant

The foundations of San Jose's police station and other municipal buildings will stand on wobbly ground within the next two weeks if the plans of Mrs. Cathalena Pico-Bell, 1817 Acacia street, this city, carry through—and Mrs. Bell says they shall.

To understand the situation perfectly be it known that the local woman is a grand-niece of Gen. Pio Pico, the last Governor of California under Mexican occupation. The general had a brother, Don Antonio, who was Mrs. Pico-Bell's great-grandfather.

About the year 1847 Don Antonio bequeathed the city of San Jose a tract of land on condition that it be called Pico Park and that no buildings be erected on it or streets run through it. In default of these provisions the ground was to revert to his heirs. While this was transpiring, Don Antonio's son married, raised a family and died.

One of the latter family is Mrs. Cathalena Pico, who, in due time, married J. J. Donohue, now a rancher at Flagstaff, Ariz. However, the Donohues separated after a time and saw no more of each other for years.

Mrs. Pico-Bell—she had married again—participated in the parade that featured the opening of the new City Hall here and her picture was printed in a paper. Donohue, the first husband, saw the picture and sent his former wife the papers given her at her father's death, but which she misplaced when she parted from Donohue.

Mrs. Pico-Bell went to San Jose and saw with her own eyes, she says, how the city of San Jose violated its pact with her great-grandfather, cut streets through what was once Pico Park and erected unsightly police stations upon it. Within two weeks, she says, she will file suit to recover the property for the Pico heirs. These include, in addition to Mrs. Pico-Bell, Mrs. Desea Pico-Todd of Los Angeles, George W. Green of San Francisco, Miss Henrietta Bell of San Diego, Mrs. L. de La Cuesta of Los Angeles and Mrs. Emma Castro-Wicken of Santa Maria.

VAN NUYS IN CLASH OVER HALL'S SITE

Factions File Petitions With Council on Location of Branch City Building

Rumors of a clash in the Van Nuys district over the question of enlarging the present branch City Hall property there or opening a new civic center six blocks north of the site now in use reached the City Hall yesterday in rival petitions filed with the City Council.

The first petition came from Richard E. Johnson and other residents who asked a district bond issue be submitted in Van Nuys for the purpose of acquiring land and property to enlarge the present branch City Hall site.

Next came a petition from B. R. Holloway and others asking for a district election to vote bonds for acquiring property for a branch City Hall to be located six blocks north of the present City Hall and bounded by Magnolia Boulevard, Saticoy street, Fulton avenue and Balboa avenue.

A third petition from G. Steers and others asks the Council to permit the people to vote on a district bond issue to acquire land to be made into a park surrounding the present branch public library in Van Nuys.

Nothing was said in the petition of B. R. Holloway and others as to where the money is to come from to build a new branch City Hall in case the bonds carried to buy the site.

Orpheum Grill to Reopen With Ceremonials

After complete renovation and redecoration, the Orpheum Grill, 829 South Hill street, will hold a grand opening today at 6 p.m. Special music will be provided by Johnson's orchestra until midnight. American Beauty roses will be given to ladies. New private booths have been constructed and a modern grill service and counter have been installed. Mural paintings are a feature of the decoration with mahogany woodwork and new fixtures.

A special table'd'hote dinner will be served tonight with the usual à la carte service.

HEALTH TALKS TODAY

Lectures Will Be Given Free at Southwest Building

Two free talks in the interest of health will be given in the demonstration rooms of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway, this afternoon. The one at 1:30, by Mme. Irwin Kellogg will be on "Breathing to Keep Fit," wherein the proper way to breathe will be emphasized, and the other, at 2, will be by Rose Waterman Harris of Dr. Lovell's staff, on "The Spirit of Youth." This will be illustrated by living models.

Both talks will be in the same room, one following the other, and both are free.

DIRECTORS SETTLE CITY HALL CLAIMS

PASADENA, May 8.—A final settlement of the Orndorff Construction Company's claims against the city on the construction of the new City Hall was approved today by the Board of City Directors.

Claims totaling more than $193,000 have been settled for $18,000 as the result of a series of conferences between the board and officials of the construction company.

STATION POWER TO BE LIMITED

Broadcasters May Be Given Stipulated Amount

Caldwell Explains Projected Plans of Group

Locals Would Be Allowed Limited Power

BY DR. RALPH L. POWER

Standardization of power for broadcast stations is now being given serious consideration by members of the Federal Radio Commission, and as a result of their studies it is probable that when reallocation of stations, channels and power is announced it will be found that broadcasters will no longer be free to choose the amount of power they will use, but will be required to use specifically stated amounts.

Limitations as to the amount of power that may be used by a station are necessary, it is pointed out by commission members, because of the fact that it will be necessary to allocate the stations among the zones, and that in so doing it will be necessary to give the same wave length to two or more zones, and provision must be made to permit the use of these frequencies by all stations on them without interferences.

There are only ninety broadcast channels and all stations to be licensed must operate on them. Two or more stations can use the same channel without causing interference only if they are some 1250 miles apart if using 500 watts; 2000 miles apart if using 1000 watts; 3500 miles apart if using 2000 watts and 5000 miles apart if using 5000 watts.

CALDWELL EXPLAINS

While a 500-watt outfit provides consecutive high-grade radio service for a distance of perhaps 100 miles, it ties up its channel with carrier-wave interference for a distance of 1250 miles under present technical methods.

"This simple engineering fact, that far-reaching 'waste area' always surrounding the relatively small 'service area' of every broadcast station, explains why in the public interest the wattage of every station on a clear channel should be increased to a power such that the service area will cover as large an area of populated continent as possible, while its proportional 'waste area' is spread over the two convenient oceans," it is explained by Orestes H. Caldwell, commissioner. "It also explains why there is a sharp limit to the number and power of stations that may share a single channel," he said.

"For even fair radio only three 500-watt stations can be placed in the continental United States on the same channel. If next we go to 1000-watt stations, only two, on opposite coasts, can successfully share a channel. And this power is about the limit for duplicating stations on the same wave length without heterodynes.

LOCALS LIMITED, TOO

"The public interest demands that stations occupying exclusive waves should be required to have high power, instead of medium power, which ruins a whole channel with interference and yet cannot be heard for many miles on it. A 50,000-watt station is far more efficient in utilizing a clear channel than is a 5000-watt one. A 100,000-watt station would give even better economy and public service, as experiments in New York State last summer clearly showed."

Mr. Caldwell's explanation apparently indicates that if a broadcast set-up containing national, regional and local stations is provided, the national stations will be required to use extremely high power, while the regionals will be limited probably to 1000 watts, and perhaps less, and locals will not be permitted much in excess of 100 watts.

'Quick on Draw' Enemies Told by Jacobson

Councilman Jacobson took advantage of a lull in the proceedings at yesterday's session of the City Council to defy his enemies.

He said that he is "tired of these threats" against his life, and said that he wants to give notice that if anyone starts after him that person will find that "Jacobson is quicker on the trigger of a gun" than the other fellow. "I am not afraid of these birds," he said.

One or two of the Councilmen yawned and asked Jacobson what he was talking about. He said mysteriously, that a number of unidentified persons have called him on the telephone at his home and his office and made threats that they will "get him" if he does not lay off attacking asserted vice and gambling conditions.

"Yes. What of it?"

"Want a corking idea for a skit?"

"What's the matter with it?"

"Nothing. Why?"

"You'd use it yourself if it was any good."

"It's good, but I don't dare to."

"I lay off the hot stuff, too."

"You don't get me. It's about a stenographer, see? If I used it my wife would want to know where I got the idea."

"Where did you?"

"From a stenographer."

SUMMONS FOR POLICE BACKFIRES

Man Seeking Hi-jacker's Arrest Booked on Charge of Liquor Possession

Orra H. Rafferty called police to catch a hi-jacker who robbed him of $125 and as a result will have to appear in court on June 4 to explain his asserted possession of a quantity of liquor.

Policemen Haver and Donohue went to Rafferty's house at 868 West Forty-seventh street Monday night to investigate. Their investigation carried them to the cellar, where they are asserted to have found three five-gallon cans of whisky, five gallon-bottles of whisky, five fifteen-gallon kegs of liquor and thirty-five quarts of saki. The officers added in the report of their robbery investigation that they booked Rafferty for possession of liquor. He pleaded not guilty yesterday and asked for a court trial.

Miles F. Honeywell, 36 years of age, a disabled veteran, giving his address as 704 Trolleyway, Venice, was arrested by Policeman Kenneth L. Golding for walking out of a restaurant on Windward avenue without paying for his meal. In his pocket the officer found a pint of liquor, for which Honeywell began serving a five-day sentence yesterday when he could not pay a $50 fine.

Deputy City Prosecutor Higgins prosecuted Honeywell.

Marco Newmark Made Chairman of Fund Appeal

Marco R. Newmark has been chosen chairman for Los Angeles for the United Jewish Appeal for $200,000 for relief of many national and international Jewish institutions. Mr. Newmark is past - president and a member of the executive committee of the Los Angeles Zionist district, a member of the administrative committee of the United Palestine Appeal, and a past - president and now director of the Nathan Straus Palestine Advancement Society.

MARCO R. NEWMARK

In accepting the local chairmanship Mr. Newmark issued a statement calling upon all Jewish groups in the city to co-operate in the work of raising funds for the important organizations who will participate in the funds raised.

Schools Assist Veterans' Work

"California is a diagnostic center in more ways than one," said Col. P. G. Lasche, in charge of the United States Veterans' Bureau of Palo Alto, at the Hayward yesterday. "For the bureau there are three diagnostic centers, Washington, Cincinnati and Palo Alto," he continued, "and we now have 700 patients under observation. Excellent co-operation is being shown by consultants of the University of California at Berkeley and by Stanford University in the work. The center acts as a clearinghouse for all cases west of the Rocky Mountains.

"An honorable-discharge certificate is all a veteran needs to receive attention, no matter how many years he may have been out of the service."

DIVORCEE SUED FOR BALM

[illegible] Charges That Mrs. Gladys Fowles Baylies Stole Love of Dr. Charles H. Lewis

[illegible] Baylies, wealthy Beverly Hills divorcee and said [illegible] prominent New York family, yesterday was made [illegible] in a suit for $250,000 damages filed in Superior Court here by [illegible] S. Lewis, who charges Mrs. Baylies with alienating the affections of Dr. Charles H. Lewis of Santa Monica.

[illegible] to the complaint, Mrs. [illegible] and her husband had lived [illegible] for a period of [illegible] and would have con[illegible] domestic accord had [illegible] Baylies appeared on the [illegible]. The complaint charges the [illegible] of Dr. Lewis's affections began last January.

Mrs. Baylies recently was divorced from Harry L. Baylies in the Superior Court here. At the time it was reported they owned community property worth $500,000.

Attorney Charles L. Nichols prepared the complaint filed yesterday by Mrs. Lewis.

FUNERAL OF MRS. BARKER NOT DECIDED

Last Rites for Director's Wife Held Up Pending Arrival of Brother

Funeral services for Mrs. Reginald Barker, formerly widely known on the stage and screen as Clara Williams, probably will be conducted on Friday, according to announcement yesterday. Definite arrangements will not be made, however, until the exact time of the arrival of a brother from Pittsburgh is known.

CLARA WILLIAMS.

Mrs. Barker, wife of the widely known film actor, died yesterday at the family residence, 112 South Ardmore, following a lingering illness. Her brother, E. Harold Williams, connected with the steel industry in Pittsburgh, took an airplane yesterday to Chicago, whence he departed for Los Angeles. He is due Friday.

The body of Mrs. Barker is at the Los Angeles Undertaking parlors. It is to be cremated following the funeral services, it was stated.

Mrs. Barker started her film career at the old Triangle studio with H. B. Warner, Charles Ray, Louise Glaum, Frank Keenan, Dorothy Dalton and others. She often worked at the old Inceville studio, where she became a leading woman and where she met Barker, a director at the time. When they were married she retired from the screen.

She leaves, besides her brother and husband, her mother, Mrs. Alice Mead, who was at her bedside when death came.

U. S. C. Alumni Subscription to Fund Announced

Approximately $100,000 has been subscribed to date by the alumni of the University of Southern California to the library and gymnasium building fund, it was announced last night at the university semi-centennial commission's office. Of this sum, $75,937 has been subscribed by alumni living in Los Angeles and $23,424 by alumni throughout the State and by a few scattering alumni about the United States.

At the second of a series of report luncheons the local alumni yesterday raised their total from $49,140 to $75,937, as the result of local activity on the part of the eight divisions at work about the city. The women's division, under the leadership of Mrs. William D. Armstrong, by reporting 100 subscriptions and an aggregate of $15,482, won all honors for the day. The amount raised to date by each local division in order of standing follows: No. 1, Mrs. William D. Armstrong, leader, $22,207; No. 8, Loyd Wright, leader, $11,405; No. 7, Linton Smith, leader, $10,870; No. 5, Dr. R. C. Lane, leader, $10,160; No. 3, M. E. Berger, leader, $6930; No. 4, Clifford Hughes, leader, $6035; No. 2, Hallam Anderson, leader, $5355, and E. W. Mattoon, leader, $2975.

The next report of local alumni will be called for on Wednesday, the 16th inst., when the leaders in the eight Los Angeles divisions will announce their subscriptions at a luncheon meeting at the Alexandria at 12:15 o'clock.

Miss Nilsson's Ride Results in Broken Ankle

Anna Q. Nilsson, film actress, is in the Santa Monica Hospital with a broken ankle as a result of an accident in the Sierra Nevada Mountains several days ago, it was learned yesterday. The actress, according to her physician, will be able to leave the hospital in three or four weeks.

ANNA Q. NILSSON

According to the physician, Miss Nilsson was horseback riding when her horse stumbled and she was hurled to the ground. She was picked up by members of the equestrian party and taken to a resort where she had been stopping in the mountains eighty miles north of Fresno. Three days ago she was brought back to Hollywood by automobile.

Miss Nilsson went to the mountain resort for a rest and vacation between pictures. She is not scheduled for another picture for four or five weeks and for this reason her physician, Dr. E. N. Reed of Santa Monica, believes her mishap will not interrupt her work.

Further Delay in Arraignment of Nigh Barred

It will take more than a chauffeur with a broken leg to delay the arraignment of William Nigh, motion-picture director, and Burt Trowbridge, his chauffeur, before Superior Judge Craig today.

That was the edict issued by Judge Craig last night when he told court attaches that after granting two continuances of the arraignment upon the plea that Trowbridge was suffering with a broken leg, he would demand an examination by Dr. Benjamin Blank, County Jail physician, should Trowbridge fail to appear today.

Trowbridge and Nigh are accused of assaulting Edward Usher, Jr., former Michigan football star. The altercation is asserted to have centered about the affections of Jean Jarvis, a motion-picture actress, who was in the company of Usher at the time of the asserted assault.

SHIPPING NEWS
AND ACTIVITIES AT LOS ANGELES HARBOR

CALPET ADDING TO PORT PLANT

Terminal Improvements Will Cost $750,000

Loading Station for Case Oil Being Modernized

Harbor Department Expending $100,000 on Wharf

California Petroleum Corporation is expending $750,000 for improvements to its case oil loading station at Berths 216 and 217, which oil men declare should make it one of the most elaborate in this or any other port. This is in addition to $100,000 which the Los Angeles Harbor Department is spending simultaneously for wharf extensions and rock bulkheads. The two jobs are expected to be completed in 100 days.

Much of the old plant, acquired by Calpet from Petroleum Export two years ago is being torn out, and tanks with a total capacity of 100,000 barrels of refined products installed, along with new warehouses, canning factories and such.

It is understood the plant will purchase flat tin and manufacture its own cans, and also will load refined products in bulk as well as in case form. Practically all the case goods is for export.

With the 500-foot extension to its wharf, the plant will have 900 feet of water frontage, sufficient to berth two large or three small carriers simultaneously. Freighters of other lines are expected to load case gods there, while the company's own fleet and that of the Texas Company, recently merged, will be frequent callers for bulk cargoes.

Several lines run under the Cerritos channel to the new plant from the company's larger loading station on Mormon Island, which also is undergoing material enlargement.

BILGE CLUB DINES IN NEW MARINE SETTING

"Who is more important, the captain or the chief engineer?"

The age-old controversy ebbed and flowed at the Cookery yesterday, where 122 shipping men and kindred spirits dedicated their new rendezvous at a buffet luncheon. As usual the question never was decided.

The group, heretofore functioning without heads or tails, will incorporate formally as the Bilge Club, but its motif will be principally fellowship, providing a meeting place where business can be talked over coffee cups. Howard H. Wickersham, as secretary pro tem, so far has been the only recognized official.

The new dining room is entirely maritime, many of the items being gifts from members. Yesterday it "dressed ship" for the formal opening. Out-of-town guests included J. A. Cronin of San Francisco, manager of the marine department for Standard Oil of California; Charles Irwin of San Diego, recently retired from marine superintendent of General Petroleum; Edward B. Egbert, consulting engineer of San Francisco; Harry C. Hanna, superintendent, Standard Oil refinery at El Segundo; E. A. Chamberlin, and Capt. A. H. Waterbury, San Francisco.

The plant quarantine staff at Los Angeles Harbor inspected 4500 vessels, 18,000 passengers from foreign ports, and 1,750,000 packages last year, A. P. Messenger, supervisor, told the San Pedro Shrine Club yesterday. More than 1000 forbidden packages were refused admittance, of which 100 disclosed dangerous insects.

The State's agricultural crops, totaling $500,000,000 yearly, lose $30,000,000 annually through pests already here, despite the fact the farmers spend $10,000,000 holding them in check.

Plant inspectors are maintained at all California ports as well as on border points.

Hamburg-American liner Resolute, last of five special globe-girdling cruise liners here this season, will dock at Berth 58 early the 11th inst., from San Francisco and sail that night for Havana and New York. Forty-three of her 375 passengers will disembark here, and the liner will pack up six bound for Havana. Auto tours will be given the travelers while in port. The new motor liner San Francisco of the same line will arrive from the north the same day and sail with forty-eight passengers for Germany that night. Hamburg-American's new motor ship Los Angeles sailed from Germany three days ago and is due here June 9 on her maiden voyage.

Los Angeles, having failed to bring forth a candidate for the United States Shipping Board to succeed Philip S. Teller of San Francisco, whose term expires June 1, San Francisco has advanced the name of Norman F. Titus, formerly with the McCormick Steamship Company and now chief of the transportation division for the Department of Commerce. Teller was selected two years ago, when Los Angeles failed to provide a successor for its own member, Meyer Lissner.

Oil consumption at Guaymas and Topolobampo has increased to a point where Standard Oil of California now is dispatching its little tanker El Segundo there almost monthly, thrice as frequent as heretofore. Thirty thousand barrels of refined and fuel oil are carried each trip. El Segundo returned yesterday, making the round voyage in record time of less than ten days, including stops over night at Guaymas and all day at Topolobampo. The company is establishing facilities at other Mexican west coast ports also.

Admiral Line's flagship H. F. Alexander will leave San Francisco tomorrow and arrive at Los Angeles Friday at 10 a.m., sailing for San Francisco and Seattle at 5 p.m. that day on her first run of the season. She will make the round voyage weekly. The Admiral Benson of the same line will leave here the 17th inst., to tie up at San Francisco till she resumes the Alaskan run this summer.

One hundred members of the Montana Association of Southern California lunched at the California Yacht Club yesterday and later cruised the port as guests of the Los Angeles Harbor Department. Thomas F. Keaveney, port historian, escorted them. Miss Montana Tully, a member from Wilmington, arranged the trip.

News of Ships and Sailings at Pacific Ports

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8. (AP)—Under command of Capt. Fritz Kruse, commodore of the Hamburg-American Line fleet, the company's steamer Resolute will arrive here early today on the last leg of a voyage around the world with 375 passengers. On her voyage, the Resolute has visited sixty-three cities in thirty countries and has covered over 35,000 miles. She will sail from here at midnight tomorrow and, en route to New York, will call at Los Angeles. A party of about fifty will go by motor to Los Angeles, stopping on the way at Del Monte and Santa Barbara.

To augment the trans-Pacific service of the Canadian Pacific Steamship Company, a new passenger liner is shortly to be built by the company, Fred L. Wason, general agent for the line, announced here today. The new vessel will replace the Empress of Australia, which was withdrawn from the trans-Pacific service of the company a year and a half ago. The contemplated liner will be of 25,000 tons, 653 feet long, with a beam of 77.9 feet.

C. L. Dimon, president of the Dimon Steamship Company, accompanied by John W. Chapman, vice-president and general manager, is due to arrive here within the next month, it became known here today.

SEATTLE, May 8.—Tramp tonnage, heretofore used between the North Pacific and the Orient, Australia or South Africa, is rapidly being diverted into intercoastal trade, six vessels being listed here today for sailings with lumber in May and June.

The flourishing condition of the intercoastal lumber trade was responsible for the listings. Charters reported today included the Ethel Freda, R. R. Sizer, Nordhval, Herman Frasch, Hollbridge and Vestvard.

Seattle's water front was the scene of a riot call today when Italian sailors on the motorship Recca battled with the ship's officers in an attempt to desert the vessel and take their chances of remaining in the United States in violation of the Federal Immigration Act. One arrest was made by police, who quieted the disturbance.

Capt. H. Le Feber of the Le Feber Packet Line of California today announced that he had purchased the motorship W. F. Burrows from Libby, McNeil & Libby and will operate her in the fish trade in the south.

TACOMA, May 8.—The British steamer Radnorshire shifted here from Seattle today to load copper and general cargo for London and other British ports.

Another arrival was the Derblay from Stewart, B. C., with a cargo of ore and no concentrates.

Canyon Election Before Council

The City Council yesterday took the first steps to call a special election in the Benedict Canyon district for June 26 to vote on the question of issuing $268,000 district bonds to acquire land there for public-park purposes. The holding of the election is asked for in a petition from residents of the district. Protests will be heard by the Council on the 23rd inst. against formal calling of the election.

Mme. Ehrlich, French woman attorney, was the first of her sex ever to witness an official execution in her country. She accompanied her client to the guillotine scaffold.

Found a Lot of Good Cars Offered

"I seldom get out during the day any more. John really needs our car down town."

"That was our trouble, too, until we bought this used sedan. Why don't you and John look through The Times some morning? We saw so many good cars in the want ads it was hard to make up our minds."

We have practically
A MONOPOLY on the rarest type of property
in Southern California

This property is now being prepared for a tremendous advertising campaign and already a few energetic and able salesmen are starting to sell it at a rate that has exceeded our greatest expectations.

We can offer immediate and profitable action to a few more men of the same kind. We want self-starters who are accustomed to making real money and who can handle a sale from start to finish dealing with the best class of well-to-do people in Los Angeles.

At least two years of constant activity now in sight. This will undoubtedly become the most profitable summer sales campaign ever known in Southern California.

It must be personally explained to be appreciated. Call between 9 and 12.

San Joaquin Valley Lands
DO ACTUALLY PRODUCE THE MOST ALFALFA PER ACRE IN CALIFORNIA
Full irrigation costs from $1.75 to $7.00 per acre per year. Alfalfa sells from $10 to $25 per ton. Our good land will produce 8 tons per acre. This is an annual return of from $80 to $200 per acre per year. 20 acres of land in alfalfa will produce from $1600 to $4000 per year. The down payment on 20 acres of this land, which is 25% of the purchasing price, will run from $500 to $875. We give ten equal payments on the balance, with the lowest interest on the balance.

FIRE DANGERS TOLD BY CHIEF

Department Head Outlines Duties of Citizens

Rules Recommended to Cut Useless Losses

Community Safety Depends on People's Acts

Full co-operation of every man, woman and child in the city of Los Angeles is needed by the Los Angeles Fire Department in its efforts to reduce fire losses to a minimum, according to a statement issued yesterday by Fire Chief Scott, and residents are urged to observe today as fire prevention day, one of the most important units of the Clean-up and Paint-up Week sponsored by the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce.

CHIEF SCOTT GIVES RULES

Observance of the following simple rules, Fire Chief Scott said, will contribute greatly toward reducing fire losses to a minimum:

Remove all dry grass and weeds from around barns, garages, fences, etc. Never build bonfires on windy days.

Burn all oily rags in the incinerator. Do not leave them lying around, as there is danger of spontaneous combustion fire.

Remove and dispose of all rubbish and other waste material from the premises.

Provide yourself with an approved type of incinerator. That is the only safe way to burn rubbish and other waste materials.

Chimneys should be cleaned and examined once each year, especially in using coal and briquettes. Many fires each year are caused by defective chimneys and by sparks flying on shingle roofs.

AVOID GASOLINE

Do not use gasoline to clean garments or gloves in the house. Do that kind of work in the open air away from the fire.

Keep an approved fire extinguisher in the house for emergency use. It is better to be safe than sorry.

Do not use flexible gas hose to connect gas heaters or stoves. Use solid pipe connections only.

Co-operate with the fire department by making your building safe against fire; by removing the cause of fire.

Keep in mind the location of the nearest fire-alarm box and memorize the telephone number of the fire department.

Report all fire hazards to the Fire Prevention Bureau.

Noted Authors to Be Present at Book Review

Mrs. Jack Vallely's monthly book review will be given Saturday at Bullock's at 10 a.m. A feature of the morning will be the opportunity to meet authors now living in Southern California who will be present.

Earl Derr Biggers, author of "Seven Keys to Baldpate," "Chinese Parrot" and other mystery romances, will autograph his new book, "Behind That Curtain," as will also Maude Kirk and Olive Orbison, whose novel of present-day Peking—"Behind the Devil Screen," has just been published.

Maj. George Kirkman, who has written "Buccaneers of the Pacific," under the pen name of George Wincherley, will autograph copies of his book, which has proved such a mine of delight for lovers of historic adventure and high romance.

Should Chief Standing Bear be able to arrange his return from the north in time, he will be present in Indian costume. The Sioux chief wrote "My People, the Sioux," which has received much favorable comment and interest.

Prowler Shot at Long Beach Fatally Hurt

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, May 8.—An unidentified prowler, suspected of attempting to break into a store at Orange avenue and Twentieth street, late tonight, was shot by Detective Sergeants Hanners and Blunt when he refused to surrender at their command. Both officers fired simultaneously. One bullet passed through his head. At the Seaside Hospital attending surgeons said he cannot live.

There were no marks of identification. His appearance fitted the description of a man who had attempted to hold up the California Pharmacy, Market street and Long Beach Boulevard, earlier in the evening.

"Many of these barriers are disappearing, thanks to recent educational facilities and methods, enhanced by the radio and cinema art," said Mr. Cooley. "All the world today is watching pictures produced in our Southland and, I hope, benefiting thereby. Today the youth in the backwoods districts of America is taking his morning exercises according to instructions given by physical culture professors 1000 miles from his cabin, and the lads and lassies of rural communities are learning to court and kiss in the fashion of the most modern sheiks and film queens."

[illegible] YORK, May 8. (Exclusive) [illegible] of Robert W. Stewart, [illegible] of the board of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, [illegible] requested by John [illegible] Rockefeller, [illegible] because of [illegible] in [illegible] before the Senate [illegible] investigating oil [illegible] leases. Rockefeller [illegible] had [illegible] from [illegible] Stewart a [illegible] to resign whenever [illegible] a request.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, JR.

[illegible] following statement was authorized today by Mr. Rockefeller: [illegible] April 27 I wrote Col. Robert [illegible] chairman of the board [illegible] Standard Oil Company of [illegible] the following letter:

[illegible] Col. Stewart: [illegible] recent testimony before [illegible] committee leaves me no [illegible] other than to ask you to [illegible] the promise you volunteered me some weeks ago that [illegible] would resign at my request. [illegible] request I now make.'

MEETING SUGGESTED

[illegible] April 30 I wrote again as [illegible] 'Dear Col. Stewart: Mr. [illegible] has told me that in the course of the conversation you had with him, after the receipt of my letter to you of the 27th inst., mention was made as to the possibility of a special meeting of the stockholders of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana being called so that they might all have an opportunity to express themselves in regard to your [illegible] resignation.
